Along this line, [REDACTED] was asked or questioned as to the extent of his acquaintance with DONALD DAVID DE PREESE, and he answered by stating that he knew DE PREESE as a prisoner at the California Medical Facility (CMF) at Vacaville, that he is aware of the fact that DE PREESE utilized the name "CINQUE", but that he had never met him on any occasion following his escape from Vacaville. He categorically denied ever meeting with DE PREESE subsequent to the killing of Dr. ROBERT or the kidnapping of PATRICIA HEARST. [REDACTED]

[redacted] were interviewed by Special Agents [redacted] in the presence of [redacted] at his office, [redacted] California. Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) credentials were displayed to [redacted]. Upon Special Agent [redacted] introducing Special Agent [redacted] to [redacted], [redacted] remarked, "It's very nice to meet you." [redacted] immediately retorted that he did not approve the "first name familiarity" and appeared to be incensed and stated that he and [redacted] should be referred to as [redacted].

[redacted] were advised that the purpose of the interview was to give them a further opportunity to discuss any matter concerning the Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA) with the FBI. [redacted] then stated, [redacted] that they do not desire to discuss anything further with the FBI pertaining to the SLA. [redacted] were then advised that the specific purpose of this interview was to determine if they had any information regarding a .22 caliber High Standard Pistol which was located recently in a house occupied by SLA members in Los Angeles. The [redacted] were advised that this particular pistol was registered with the Oakland Police Department in 1962 by [redacted].

[redacted] were further advised that [redacted] had advised the FBI on May 29, 1974, that he had been given the pistol by [redacted] but he had subsequently given the pistol to [redacted]. [redacted] had advised that he kept possession of the pistol until about 1969 or 1970 when he gave the pistol to [redacted].

[redacted] admitted that [redacted] had come to her residence at [redacted], after she had told him about an attempted burglary at her residence. She stated that a ladder had been placed against the house near a window and she had related this to [redacted]. At the time [redacted] came to her residence, he brought with him a .22 caliber pistol which he showed to [redacted] and to "four or five neighbors in an effort to scare them". [redacted] then advised that she had not been given the pistol by [redacted] and she in fact had no idea what happened to the pistol. She denied emphatically that [redacted] turned the pistol over to her or to [redacted]. [redacted] was then asked if he knew anything about the High Standard Automatic .22 pistol allegedly given to [redacted] by [redacted] and [redacted] stated he has no information whatsoever about this gun. [redacted] emphatically denied that either had given the pistol to any SLA person or in fact that they had ever had the pistol in their possession.

At this point in the interview, [redacted] stated that in anticipation of the possibility that [redacted] may be called before the Federal Grand Jury, he has corresponded with [redacted] in her appearance before the Federal Grand Jury. The attorney was curious as to the possibility of the [redacted] being called before the Federal Grand Jury and it was explained to [redacted] that any appearance before the Federal Grand Jury would be up to the U.S. Attorney, however, the possibility does exist that [redacted] would be asked to make a statement before the Federal Grand Jury which could be followed by a statement by [redacted] regarding the .22 caliber pistol mentioned above since the pistol was recovered from a house occupied by the SLA.

TAPE FROM 6:00 P.M. PDT, KPFA BROADCAST, "NOTHING IS MORE PRECIOUS THAN", 5/25/74:

This communique is addressed to those who bear the hope and the future of the people. Let your guns express the voices of freedom. I am General Field Marshal CABRILLA of the federated forces of the Symbionese Liberation Army. I am also a war council member of the newly-formed United People's Liberation Army of America -- UPLA. This united front of urban guerrilla organizations was forged out of an emergency meeting after the events in Los Angeles last week. I have been authorized by the council to make certain information public from subject 1, 2 and 3 from this historic meeting. But first I must say to you TANIA, BILL, EMILY -- if you have not received our message through proper channels, I say to you -- regroup, regroup, do nothing in haste. We will unite in time.

Subject #1: The meeting of the federated forces of the Symbionese Liberation Army with the guerrilla organizations now under the umbrella of the United People's Liberation Army. Purpose - To honor our heroic SLA soldiers, to expand our combat unit operation, to coordinate expanded combat unit operations through multiple organizational techniques.

Resolutions

1. To restructure all active underground forces into combat units of regional and national proportion.

2. To inform all combat units of the Black Liberation Army, the Symbionese Liberation Army, the PAC, the BGF, the BCS, and the NWLF to put all combat units on alert.

3. To choose the time and the place for our coordinated assault. Our regrouping is for the purpose of restructuring techniques. The purpose is for maximum effect from our coordinated assault.

4. To add Mandate #17 to our Rules of Combat. No more than three individuals will occupy a safe house. Six soldiers are too many comrades to lose in one attack.

5. Issue Mandates 17 - 22 and Items 8 - 10 to intelligence units to be coded and distributed to security units for distribution to all guerrilla organization combat units.

6. To call on those to move by the example of the SLA SIX to embrace our struggle. TO ALL COMBAT UNITS -- ATTACK -- your deeds will be recognized and our underground will embrace you.

7. To inform the people that the SLA SIX were the victims of overkill techniques. The military armed corporate state made examples of them in order to frighten future combatants. It is now our turn to make examples of them. We must become hunters. We will not be frightened -- our guns will express our disfavor. Remember, time is on our side.

Subject #2: Decoration of valor displayed in combat for those who bear the hope and future of the people. Honor the mark of the Sholin Dragon.

Subject --

1. General Field Marshal CINQUE
2. NANCY LING PERRY - FAHIZA
3. SOYA - PATRICIA
4. CANDY - CAMILLA
5. JALINA - ANGELA

(Second Person)

6. WILLIE WOLFE --

For displaying the highest form of comradeship and love forced in battle, we give to you the highest honor which can be obtained by an urban guerrilla, the mark of the Sholin Dragon. It symbolizes love, stress and regeneration. This symbol was materialized by our slain comrade Field Marshal GEORGE JACKSON. It was he who initiated this rite with lots of love and stress, a regeneration of the spirit of comrades GEORGE and JONATHAN and of SASHA, TOKUR (phonetic). You have been tied to them in the true spirit of revolution.

7. PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST - TANIA --

For displaying the love and stress and regeneration by feeling your two comrades in Los Angeles. You have also been marked by the Sholin Dragon. Remember those comrades who bear symbol they are the best of our kind. Remember the meaning of the symbol -- for it unites us as one, past, present and future.

All of us remember that no more than 15 living comrades have been marked by this honor. We love you TANIA. We're moving on to higher ground.

Signed - JUNGA ABDUHL ASAD (phonetic)
Minister of Cultural Affairs
Black Liberation Army

Subject #3: An ode to the six slain soldiers -- for those who bear the hope and future of the people -- your guns faithfully express the voice of freedom. SOYA, JALINA, CAMILLA, WILLIE, FANIZA, we watch you as American's children. Standing on the Outer Perimeter of our base camp. We wonder if you would ever come and join us to sit around the campfire to share the pains and the sorrow of revolution. And then one night you approached us. We knew not whether to trust you for you bore the trappings of white skin. Would you fail to pick up your comrades and wash their painful wounds? Would you leave your comrades on the urban war zone and then run selfishly back to suburbia? We mourn for you now but we know that you are one of us and are with us. Our backs are good enough for embracing you as comrade. For your courageous display of comradeship has united us forever.

You were given a seedling by the manchild JONATHAN, nurtured from the blood of Field Marshal GEORGE JACKSON. You grew into maturity on the merits of your own strength. Brother, comrade, soldiers of the people, General Field Marshal CINQUE, you taught them well. You chose to die with your troops. Your example has gone deep into the hearts and minds of the people. We will remember you as a brother who taught by example. We embrace you, we embrace your comrades, we mourn your death, but we smile with joy knowing that American children have come of age.

XII. BLACK CULTURAL ASSOCIATION

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 4/20/74

[REDACTED]

He had become associated with the Black Cultural Association (BCA) at CMU when the group was first conceived in about 1969, and has remained active since that time. He had met both ~~HERO FLEMMER~~ and DONALD DE FREEZE through the BCA when the latter two had entered the group at a later date. He had not become closely associated with either of them since they were the type who kept to themselves for the most part. DE FREEZE had attempted to make a power play in the BCA to have himself voted in as chairman. This effort on his part had failed due to other members disliking his militant and hate attitudes. Due to this failure, DE FREEZE had left the BCA and had formed his own group, known as "Insight".

He had never had any idea either ~~FLEMMER~~ or DE FREEZE might have been organizing the Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA) during their time in prison, and, in fact, had first heard of the SLA on television news broadcasts. He emphatically denied any approach by or effort on the part of either ~~FLEMMER~~ or DE FREEZE to get him to join the SLA. He was of the opinion the great majority of other members of the BCA would make the same comment.

The BCA, at times, had a membership of up to one hundred members. The size of the membership would fluctuate from season to season and also on the basis of the type of activities offered by the BCA.

The only current information he has concerning ~~FLEMMER~~ or DE FREEZE is what he sees on television.

Interviewed on

File # SC 7-203

[REDACTED]

He had met JEAN (GINVARD) CHAN, DAVE GUNNEL (phonetic), RUSSELL LITTLE, "WILLIE THE WOLF", BOBBY STEINER, and [REDACTED] through activities of the BCA at CMF. [REDACTED] had come to CMF four or five times with other members of the group for BCA activities. This group had started coming to CMF about one and one-half years ago.

[REDACTED]

He is of the opinion RUSSELL LITTLE came to CMF and attended meetings of the new group formed by DE FRENZE, the group known as "Insight". He is unable to recall CHIEF STEINER, [REDACTED] ever attending any of the meetings of DE FRENZE's group. These latter individuals appeared to become visibly upset with any attempts to inject any radical aspects into the BCA.

The aims of the BCA were to instill self-pride in Black inmates through education and knowledge through political reading and other classes. Inmates were given tests to find their level of education and to place them in the appropriate level of BCA activities. With regards to these aims, he felt CHIEF STEINER, and [REDACTED] were completely "righteous" in their efforts to assist the BCA.

He has received recent correspondence from [REDACTED], a letter just before Easter and an Easter card. In her letters, she has never mentioned any connection with the SLA. She stated in her last letter she was being harrassed by "the man", whom he feels is the FBI. She further stated maybe she should stop writing since it might hurt his parole chances. She had made the comment in one letter that there was "no way she could be connected with this madness", referring to the SLA.

SHAN likewise has made no indication she is connected with the SLA.

[REDACTED]

He stated he personally does not feel either SHAN, STEINER, [REDACTED] are a part of the SLA. He noted he was greatly shocked to hear that STEINER had been marked for death by the SLA.

His very first knowledge of the existence of the SLA was via news broadcasts. Later news broadcasts intimated a connection between the SLA and the BCA, which came as a complete surprise to him.

He described WHEELER and DE FREEZE as "loners" and apparently formed their own group after not being able to get power in the BCA. He further described DE FREEZE as the real pusher for power, with WHEELER more of an intellectual type. He stated WHEELER had been an active participant in BCA activities in the early beginning of the group, but had slacked off in his participation later on. He would show up for meetings of the group on an infrequent basis.

He was of the opinion both WHEELER and DE FREEZE have the same feelings of hate and militancy and would likely remain together on the outside.

He stated the majority of the BCA had no idea of the creation of the SLA. Only a person close to DE FREEZE would have known of the creation of this group.

He also advised he has no knowledge whatsoever concerning the kidnaping of PATRICIA HEARST.

XIII. INTERVIEWS OF

1Date March 28, 1974

[REDACTED] was immediately advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and that the purpose of the interview was to obtain any information he may have regarding the whereabouts of CAMILLA C. HALL. [REDACTED] advised he had no information regarding the current whereabouts of HALL and said that he had not received any such information since last talking with Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Agents, March 15, 1974.

[REDACTED] was then questioned whether he had firearms in his residence. He appeared shocked and speechless and at first indicated it was none of the FBI's business if he does have firearms in his residence. He then consented to show Agent [REDACTED] three firearms which were stored with the barrels up in a front closet at his residence. One rifle appeared to be an ordinary M-1 rifle, and the following was stamped on the barrel and receiver, "U. S. Rifle caliber 30 M-1 Springfield Armory, 509349 D28287-195A A-6". Another rifle was a bolt action rifle, which appeared to be about 30 caliber. The receiver was stamped as follows, "ERA37000, 30 caliber bolt action". The last was a J. C. Higgins Model 583.1, bolt action, 12-gauge shotgun.

The numbers on the M-1 rifles were checked through the California State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation (CII) and the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) with negative results. [REDACTED] advised he had no further information to furnish the FBI.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription May 21, 1974

[REDACTED] was interviewed at her residence, [REDACTED] California, and acknowledged at the onset of the conversation that she was aware of the Agent's identity from previous meetings. She thereafter provided the following:

(She was in tears and had been visibly crying for some time. She was having coffee in her kitchen.) She does not know, nor has she ever known, the whereabouts of members of the Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA). She has not acted in a support capacity for the SLA..

She feels responsible for the SLA members who died in Los Angeles last week and yet knows that there was nothing that she could do as an individual to change the course of events. She feels responsible in the sense that she feels everyone is responsible, as society created the conditions which led these individuals to take such a drastic step and commit their lives to an effort to change society.

The police must have done what they had to do, though she wishes they would have permitted the fire department to move into the area sooner.

The situation could not have turned out differently given the attitude of the individuals involved. They had resolved to die in the end, and had accepted that death would be the result of their actions. They did not expect to live and tell their story, but were committed to the apparent belief that through their actions a change more dramatic than through writing could be wrought.

[REDACTED] CAMILLA HALL seemed to have a fierce dedication. While [REDACTED] had not seen her since joining the SLA, [REDACTED] felt from newspaper reports of the SLA activities and from her previous friendship with CAMILLA HALL that HALL had made up her mind that she was ready to die when she joined the SLA. At that point CAMILLA was prepared to die and knew that she would die.

Interviewed on 5/20/74 at San Francisco, California File # SF 7-855

by S [REDACTED] nb Date dictated 5/20/74

Several months ago she felt a change coming over CAMILLA. She felt that CAMILLA was becoming more and more frustrated with the world and with her own ability to effect change upon society.

She was glad to see that CAMILLA's father has stood behind his daughter in death and not dismissed her death as a useless gesture. She questions whether PATRICIA HEARST's father would ever do the same for his daughter. She watched Mr. HALL on television and was lifted by his words.

These people were so dedicated to their cause. They loved deeply. She doesn't believe in their methods, but believes they wanted to shock the country and this was the best method that they knew of. They wanted to reverse the course of the country and she believes that their deaths will have some effect in that direction.

Their political philosophy isn't clear and she never knew CAMILLA to have a specific political philosophy. She doesn't believe that they followed any one line but believes that what they intended was to change the entire society from what they believed to be a wrong course. They wanted to wake people up and intended to die in that effort.

After the $50,000.00 reward offer was made, she had wanted to talk to HEARST personally. She even contemplated contacting SA [REDACTED] and asking him to arrange a meeting between her and HEARST. She would even have used the ruse of having information just to tell HEARST not to try to buy his daughter, but to become as committed as his daughter and reach her through his hearst.

Last night (May 19, 1974) after hearing of CAMILLA's death, she wrote a suggestion to HEARST, but doesn't know how to present it to him because she feels that if it comes from her the FBI will believe that she is acting as a spokesman for the SLA or is in contact with them.

She intended to suggest that HEARST give $4 million to a prison reform effort in the name of CINQUE and in honor of CINQUE's efforts for all people.

She doesn't know where the surviving SLA members are and never knew the HARRIS'. She didn't know they were in Los Angeles, but had a feeling that they might have departed the San Francisco area. She doesn't believe they will return to the San Francisco area and doesn't think they will give themselves up because they are too dedicated at this point to reverse their activity.

Had she known the whereabouts of the SIA while they were in San Francisco, she doubts that she would have contacted authorities, but would have tried to convince them herself that they should work through other means to accomplish what they wanted.

He stated that SOLTYSIK loves to hike and climb mountains and that she is very athletic and is an avid camper. Her "trademark" is the fact that she invariably wears a kerchief around her head which is generally brown in color and that she is very partial to the color brown when it comes to her wearing apparel. She is a "sun worshipper" and always is deeply tanned since she likes to frequent the beach area, although she is not a surfer.

unrecalled, is of foreign extraction and has a deep accent.

SOLTYSIK attended the University of California at Berkeley and immediately after enrolling there began to live with another man according to [REDACTED]. SOLTYSIK is fluent in the French language and it was [REDACTED] belief that she attended the University of California at Berkeley on some type of scholarship due to her proficiency in that language.

SOLTYSIK dresses in plain clothes which generally consist of brown cords or levis with some type of top, generally of halter type. Her hair is always closely cropped and she always wears earrings which have large loops in them. [REDACTED] believes that her ears are pierced.

SOLTYSIK constantly frequented the Devereaux Beach at Goleta which was near the University of California, Santa Barbara, and she also camped out at a location north of Goleta in the mountains which took approximately one hour to reach, site unrecalled at this time.

[REDACTED] stated that he would review some of his old notes and momentos and attempt to determine if he can come up with any additional information regarding SOLTYSIK and would advise the FBI.

MIRIEL JOY FREER was interviewed at her residence, [REDACTED]. She was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and the purpose of the interview, after which she voluntarily furnished the following information:

In September, 1973, she moved to the Bay Area from [REDACTED] and, inasmuch as she had previously lived in Berkeley and had previously possessed a California Driver's License, she applied for a reinstatement of her license. At that time she was temporarily renting a room from [REDACTED] at 1634 Walnut Street, Berkeley. This was the address she furnished when she applied for the reinstatement at the California Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) office. However, prior to receipt of her license by mail, FREER moved to [REDACTED]. After several weeks she called the [REDACTED] to inquire if her license had arrived. She was told that it had come in the mail and that they had "forwarded" it to her at [REDACTED]. FREER, knowing of the DMV's policy against forwarding mail, supposed that the license had instead been returned to Sacramento and, therefore, went to the DMV office in [REDACTED] and executed a change of address notification. This was probably in mid or late October, 1973, and at that time DMV personnel told her that her license should get to her in a couple of weeks.

Approximately sixty days passed and the license did not arrive. FREER returned to the DMV office in Oakland, at which time DMV "put a tracer" on the license. As a result of this check, DMV advised FREER that the license had been mailed to her at [REDACTED] California, but for some unexplained reason it never arrived at FREER's residence. At this point, DMV decided to start from scratch and had FREER execute new paper work, took a new photograph, and processed the application as they did with a "lost license case". Within two or three weeks, FREER received her new license which she now possesses.

FREER displayed this license and it was observed to have her color photograph thereon and proper descriptive data relating to FREER. A notation on this license indicates it will expire on her birthday in 1974. FREER advised she has no idea why or how a copy of her license would appear in the burned ruins of the Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA) house at 1466 East 54th Street, Los Angeles, California, apart from the possibility that it was intercepted in the mails. FREER stated that she is not acquainted with PATRICIA MICHELLE SOLTYSIK, also known as Mizmoon, or any of the other known SLA individuals and knows nothing of the SLA apart from what the news media has reported.

From interview and observation, the following descriptive data was obtained:

Name:	MURIEL JOY FREER

[REDACTED] advised that he was acquainted with ANGELA DE ANGELIS ATWOOD during her attendance at Indiana University (IU), Bloomington, Indiana. [REDACTED] advised he knew her best during her school days at which time she appeared to be a conservative and straight individual. After she graduated from IU, he did not have much association with her. According to [REDACTED] ANGELA was associated primarily with those who were acting and were active in the theater department. He last saw ANGELA when she was working for the Audiovisual Section of the School of Education which was in 1971. [REDACTED] indicated he had not heard any information regarding ANGELA since that date other than what he had read in the newspaper recently. [REDACTED] indicated he was surprised that ANGELA was working with blacks in the Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA) as she appeared to be almost a racist while at IU. [REDACTED] explained this further by stating that when ANGELA was active in a sorority at IU, that blacks broke up an event known as the "Little 500" and ANGELA acted very strongly to this and seemed to be almost anti-black.

[REDACTED] gave several names of acquaintances of ANGELA's which included [REDACTED] who is currently an [REDACTED] and an individual known as [REDACTED] who is [REDACTED] in Los Angeles, California. [REDACTED] advised she is well acquainted with ANGELA ATWOOD.

[REDACTED] advised she last saw [REDACTED] the Summer of 1973, at which time ANGELA and [REDACTED] ANGELA's husband, came to Bloomington, Indiana. [REDACTED] related that ANGELA was splitting up with her husband GARY and that ANGELA had just been to her sister's wedding on the East Coast and was returning to California. [REDACTED] was planning on staying in Indiana, however. [REDACTED] visited with ANGELA for several hours on one afternoon. [REDACTED] passed through Bloomington en route to California. At that time, ANGELA indicated she was actively involved in a women's theater in California. At that time, ANGELA did not indicate any involvement with the Symbionese Liberation Army nor was the name mentioned. [REDACTED] has not been in contact by correspondence or in person since the Summer of 1973 with ANGELA.

[REDACTED] advised that while ANGELA was at Indiana University she did, on at least one or two occasions, attend an antiwar demonstration and also a tuition strike demonstration at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana. [REDACTED] ANGELA had some lack of communication with her father and ANGELA's husband GARY was also a very possessive and jealous individual. As a result, ANGELA gained an interest in some Women's Liberation causes. This occurred [REDACTED] after ANGELA left Indiana University.

Following [REDACTED] and ANGELA's marriage, [REDACTED] visited the ATWOODS [REDACTED] At that time, [REDACTED] and ANGELA argued a lot. [REDACTED] was ignorant, particularly in political matters. [REDACTED] stated that she had met [REDACTED]

She stated GARY and ANGELA hit it off well [REDACTED] and shortly began living with each other which lasted for about one year. ANGELA and GARY then were married and moved to California shortly afterward.

CARY ATWOOD and BILL HARRIS were good friends while at Indiana University and later they became friends also with EMILY HARRIS, the wife of BILL HARRIS. About a year after CARY and ANGELA moved to California, EMILY and EMILY HARRIS also moved to California. BILL HARRIS and CARY and ANGELA were all involved in plays through the Theater Department at Indiana University or the Deam County Playhouse in Nashville, Indiana. According to [REDACTED] BILL HARRIS related well to blacks and seemed to understand black thinking quite well.

[REDACTED] advised that ANGELA, when [REDACTED] in conversation during the Summer of 1973, indicated that the women's theater group she was involved in had several individuals named CATHY (Last Name Unknown) involved in the group and ANGELA urged [REDACTED] to come out of San Francisco and join them. [REDACTED] related that ANGELA has a number of friends back near home in New Jersey from her high school days. It is unknown if ANGELA has maintained contact with any of these individuals. ANGELA, according to [REDACTED] has rejected the Catholic religion, and seemed to have adopted a substitute. She described [REDACTED] as an individual who always extended herself to others, was willing to help in any way possible. She stated that ANGELA loves the ocean and would undoubtedly stay near a beach if possible. ANGELA was very serious about her theater work during the Summer of 1973 and seemed quite excited about it. ANGELA was not an individual who corresponded with anyone and [REDACTED] and ANGELA have had no contact since the Summer of 1973.

[REDACTED] explained that another close friend [REDACTED] who resides at [REDACTED] was also a close friend of [REDACTED] during the Summer of 1973. The meeting appeared stable and very dedicated to the Marxist movement. [redacted] advised she had studied Russian history in college and did not feel closely attuned to the attitudes and opinions of those individuals at the meeting. [redacted] advised that the people at the meeting appeared to be educated middle class individuals in their mid to late twenties who had sought jobs in factories to participate in the labor force activities.

[redacted] recalled ANGELA ATWOOD's residence being a two story house and that the meeting occupied the first floor. [redacted] was unable to provide the location of this residence but advised that it was still in Oakland but closer to Berkeley than was the residence on 41st Street occupied by the HARRIS'. [redacted] advised the house appeared neat and clean with large trees covering the front portion of the house with a small porch attached to it. [redacted] advised the furnishings of the house appeared to be "early hippie" but neat and clean. [redacted] advised ANGELA ATWOOD gave the appearance of being a newcomer to the Marxist group and several times commented that other individuals would have to explain things to her. [redacted] stated ATWOOD served cake and coffee to those members present. [redacted] advised the meeting appeared to be more like a seminar with individuals speaking occasionally standing to make a comment.

[redacted] advised this group did not speak of prison reform or appear to be dedicated to Third world issues, however, they did make mention of the escape of [redacted] from Vacaville Prison and noted that he had not contacted the group but they would make a decision as to how to handle this should he contact the group.

[redacted] advised the HARRIS' were not the case individuals interested in all forms of new movements with the HARRIS' being the most radical of the two. [redacted] advised that [redacted] appeared to be restless seeking a political affiliation with which to identify himself. [redacted] believed that [redacted] had worked for the University located in Berkeley and [redacted] had worked as a delivery employee for REA Express with past employment being in a Oakland Day Care Center. [redacted] advised they frequently spoke of "Pigs" referring to police officers and had encouraged [redacted] to join their movement.

[redacted] advised she had never heard of the organization known as the Symbionese Liberation Army, had never heard of DONALD DE FREEZE and had only on one occasion met an individual who had been in prison.

[redacted] advised this individual was described as a white male approximately 28 to 30 years of age and was described as being 6'2" in height, weighing approximately 200 pounds, sporting brown short curly hair with a pitted complexion. [redacted] advised this individual visited the HARRIS' briefly while she was at their apartment in August, 1973 and indicated he had been a recent releasee from a California prison. [redacted] advised he was wearing a green army fatigue type jacket and spoke in an intelligent tone of voice. [redacted] was unable to advise either the prison or the time of release.

[redacted] advised while she was at the residence of the HARRIS' she met a young black woman but was unable to provide a description of this individual other than a Negro female approximately 18-19 years of age who was small in size. [redacted] stated the black female was occupying one bed in the residence and she therefore could not describe the female to a better degree. [redacted] said while at the HARRIS' study group meeting someone mentioned the fact that the Negro female was not present indicating she had previously attended such meetings. [redacted] advised this Negro female appeared to reside regularly with the HARRIS'.

[redacted] advised there was a Negro couple residing adjacent to 2434 41st, apartment, who were acquainted with the HARRIS' but not closely acquainted on a social basis. [redacted] advised they may be able to provide the identity of the Negro female who occupied the bed.

[redacted] advised EMILY would probably be found in a middle class neighborhood as opposed to a ghetto type environment due to her previous upbringing and her personal likes and dislikes. [redacted] described EMILY HARRIS as a female who seemed to be neatness and who desired the better things in life. [redacted] advised she knew EMILY HARRIS was exceptionally close to her younger brother.

[redacted] advised in January, 1974, she was in California over the weekend of January 26 and 27, 1974 on a business trip with her new employer. [redacted] advised while there she attempted several times to reach the HARRIS' on the telephone using telephone number 654-1330. After numerous calls [redacted] advised the landlord's son answered the phone and engaged her in a ten-minute conversation indicating that the HARRIS' had suddenly departed their residence. [redacted] advised she then grew alarmed and called [redacted] in Washington to report the incident and determine if he knew the whereabouts of either the HARRIS' or ALWOOD. [REDACTED] advised she located [REDACTED] and he was unable to provide additional information. [REDACTED] stated she subsequently was contacted by [REDACTED] at which time he indicated her previous suspicions about the HARRIS' and ALWOODS being involved in violent activities in California were correct. [REDACTED] indicated this to be proof that [REDACTED] has had contact with the HARRIS' since their disappearance from California.

[REDACTED] was displayed Federal Bureau of Investigation wanted flyer #474 and after studying it, [REDACTED] advised she was not familiar with the photographs or names appearing thereon. [REDACTED] advised the individuals may have attended the Marxist group but that she did not recognize them on a positive basis.

Interviewing agents provided [REDACTED] with the knowledge of Harboring Statutes and requested [REDACTED] cooperation should any member of the group contact her for assistance or transportation. [REDACTED] promised agents she would notify the FBI through the individual agents immediately should anyone contact her concerning the HARRIS'.

[REDACTED] She stated EMILY appeared to be a typical average student, however very quiet in nature.

[REDACTED] advised that during her association with EMILY, she did not recall EMILY expressing her political views except for the usual social discussions in regards to the college community politics and activities.

[REDACTED] advised that in the fall of 1968, when [REDACTED] however, were still friends. During this same period of time a mutual friend (name not recalled) introduced EMILY SCHWARTZ to WILLIAM HARRIS. [REDACTED] stated she first met WILLIAM HARRIS during the time EMILY was dating him. She advised that WILLIAM HARRIS had been reported to have previously been in the military before she met him and that her observations of HARRIS reflected his appearance to be a little more radical (in regards to dress and demeanor) than the average college student. She explained that WILLIAM HARRIS wore his hair longer and had a mustache, which at that time was not the usual college student image.

[REDACTED] advised that until recently, she was not aware that the HARRISES were in the San Francisco area until she observed their names in the local newspapers. [REDACTED] stated she has not nor does she expect to be contacted by either of the HARRISES. [REDACTED] was advised of the elements of the Federal Harboring Statute by law to which she stated she was thoroughly aware of the statute and that

[REDACTED] All of her relatives currently reside at her father's residence located at [REDACTED] New Jersey. [REDACTED] advised that he had been close to ANGELA ATWOOD, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] ATWOOD attended Manchester Regional High School in North Haledon, New Jersey, graduating from there in 1966. She then entered Indiana University at Bloomington, Indiana, and was awarded a degree in education in 1970. She remained in that area, and in 1971, she married GARY ATWOOD, her current husband, from whom [REDACTED] believes she is currently separated. [REDACTED] stated that he attended her wedding which took place during May or June 1971, on a farm located near Indiana University. Also in attendance were her sister ELENA, her brother LAWRENCE, and their aunt JUDY LE PROTTO. These were the only members of her family who attended, and her father was noticeably absent.

[REDACTED] on several occasions he traveled to Bloomington, Indiana, and spent time with "ANGEL". He also met GARY ATWOOD, her husband to whom he did not like at all. As a matter of background [REDACTED] stated that "ANGEL's" father was quite wealthy, being a high official in the Teamster's International Union, and that she was very well provided for. Her interests ran to the theatre and arts, and although she obtained a degree in education, she threatened appeared to be her primary aim. Her discussions the last year or so, when he was in contact with her, were extremely political. He attributed this for the most part to her relationship with GARY ATWOOD. Following their marriage, ATWOOD he understood was granted Conscientious Objector status, and served two years as a Conscientious Objector somewhere in Northern California. During this period, she was employed in the Berkley, California, area as a waitress.

He last saw ANGEL at the wedding of her sister SUEBA, which occurred in June 1973, at North Haledon, New Jersey. Besides being accompanied by her husband, she was accompanied by another female acquaintance from the Berkley, California area. At that time he told ANGEL that he intended to come to the Los Angeles area and seek employment. He did so, and last was in contact with her during either August or September 1973, when he called her at her residence in Berkley, California. Since that time he has not been in contact with ANGEL in any way, and he is most doubtful that she is aware of his current residence or employment.

At this time [REDACTED] viewed photographs of DONALD DAVID DEFREEZE; PATRICIA MONIQUE SOLTYSIK; NANCY LING PERRY; CAMILLA CHRISTINE HALL; WILLIAM and EMILY HARRIS as well as TERO LAVON WHEELER. He was unable to identify any of these individuals as anyone known to him in connection with ANGEL.

[REDACTED] advised that ATWOOD's father had recently undergone open heart surgery. However, in the past ATWOOD's father has always provided well for her in the financial sense, and might be approached by ATWOOD according to [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] advised that he believed it would be extremely difficult for ANGEL's father to deny assistance, but on the other hand, he believes him to be a most honorable individual, and would surmise that he would contact the FBI.

[REDACTED] advised he was furnishing the above information for the assistance of the FBI in this matter.

[REDACTED] Develop background information on the Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA) in connection with that murder. on a Saturday. [redacted] as told by a female who answered that [redacted] was not in at the time. [redacted] requested that [redacted] return her call. [redacted] did not and [redacted] called back again that same night. [redacted] did not recall [redacted] address at that time except that it was somewhere in Oakland. She did not believe that it was on [redacted] Street. [redacted] did speak to [redacted] when she [redacted] called back on that Saturday night. [redacted] as quite hostile toward [redacted] over the telephone, and stated that she did not have to talk to [redacted] and was going to consult an attorney before saying anything at all.

[redacted] recontacted [redacted] the same telephone number on the following Wednesday. [redacted] again acted very hostile. She stated that she had contacted her attorney and he advised her that she did not have to make any statements to [redacted], and stated further that her attorney had advised her that she could bring a legal suit against [redacted] and the [redacted] if [redacted] used [redacted] name in any article in connection with the SLA.

On a date [redacted] recalled as being sometime between February 10, 1974 and February 15, 1974, she attended a party for the [redacted] given by [redacted] who is a [redacted] at the University of California at Berkeley (UCB). During the course of the party, [redacted] boasted that the members of his journalism class had been doing a research project on the SLA following the MARCUS FOSTER murder. [redacted] stated that one of his students had done an exceptionally good job on the project and had amassed a great deal of information, including the fact that members of the SLA have financed themselves to some extent through the sale of narcotics. [redacted] did not identify the student who had obtained this information. [redacted] thereafter, contacted almost the entire class before she found the particular student that [redacted] had been referring to as the outstanding student. [redacted] was unable to recall the name of this student but stated it was a "common name". No name was volunteered to [redacted] by the interviewing Agents. The student that [redacted] contacted did seem to have done a substantial amount of work concerning the SLA. During the course of [redacted] discussions with the student, and during the course of an in depth interview of [redacted], by [redacted], [redacted] name came up again. The journalism student that [redacted] talked to indicated that he had not heard [redacted] name before. [redacted] did not recall having given the student [redacted] telephone number. [redacted] did recall talking to the journalism student on a second occasion and requested him not to mention [redacted] name to anyone. [redacted] stated the reason that she did this was that the HEARST kidnapping had taken place in the intervening period following [redacted] telephone conversations with [redacted] as described above, and [redacted] had made [redacted] quite paranoid concerning the SLA who were obviously a dangerous group of people. [redacted] noted that she had given [redacted] her telephone number when she first talked to [redacted] in November, 1973, and was fearful that if [redacted] was in fact connected with the SLA [redacted] herself could be in some danger.

[redacted] stated that the above described instances were her only contacts with [redacted]. She stated she was never threatened with any bodily harm by [redacted] nor by anybody else who had any alleged connections with the SLA because of [redacted] contacts with [redacted].

[redacted] was extremely cooperative during the interview and stated that she would gladly furnish any information that came to her attention during the course of her work as a reporter. She noted that she was no longer working on any stories connected with the SLA however. She stated her main work regarding the SLA had been talking to people in the vicinity of 2603 Benvenue Street immediately following the HEARST kidnapping.

[redacted] suggested that Agents might like to talk to [redacted] who had done a great deal of background work on the SLA. [redacted] believed that [redacted] could cooperate fully with the FBI.

The FBI Laboratory furnished the following administrative information:

The similarities observed in comparing the COOPER signatures on Q207 and Q208 indicate these signatures could have been prepared by the same person.

Some handwriting similarities were observed in comparing the COOPER signatures on Q207 and Q208 with the limited comparable known writing available of CAMILLA HALL, K23 and K27. It will be necessary to have additional comparable writing by HALL before a more adequate comparison can be made.

Nothing of particular significance was observed in comparing the COOPER signatures with the known writing available and other subjects in these cases. However not enough comparable writing of suspects is available to be able to definitely eliminate other suspects as having been involved in the preparation of these signatures.

It is suggested that San Francisco may wish to obtain authentic writing of JANET MARGARET WEISS COOPER for comparison with the signatures on Q207 and Q208.

As with the COOPER signatures on Q207 and Q208, some similarities were observed in comparing the COOPER signature on Q216 with the available writing of CAMILLA HALL, K23, K26, K27, K33, K34 and Kc35. It will be necessary to have writing by HALL comparable to the COOPER signatures before a more adequate comparison can be made.

As with other COOPER signatures on items previously submitted, some similarities were observed in comparing the COOPER signature on Q983 with the available known writing of CAMILLA HALL.

As of 3/22/74, the FBI Laboratory stated that the field should be alert to obtain additional contemporary handwriting and hand printing of DONALD DAVID DE FREEZE for further comparison in this case. No hand printing of DE FREEZE has been submitted to the Laboratory and the submitted handwriting of DE FREEZE was prepared in 1968 and 1969.

CHW:chw

As of 3/15/74, the FBI Laboratory advised that again, attempts should be continued to obtain known upper-case hand printing of NANCY LING PERRY for further comparison with the hand printing on the manila envelopes Q45, Q48, and Q63 in this case.

Indented writing reading "Bill Rives" appears on the envelope of K23.

Nothing of particular significance was observed in comparing the limited comparable known writing of CHARLES MARTIN MONLEY (Kc25) with unidentified questioned writing in this case and the SLA cases.

As of 4/25/74, the FBI Laboratory advised that San Francisco should continue to be alert to obtain known upper case hand printing of NANCY LING PERRY for comparison with items submitted in this case.

As of 4/26/74, the FBI Laboratory advised that some similarities were observed in comparing the available writing of CAMILLA HALL with the "Janet Cooper" signatures on previously submitted car rental forms in this case. Also HALL cannot be eliminated as having been involved in the preparation of the questioned handwritten notation on the Q172 envelope, previously submitted. The available writing of HALL does not contain sufficient hand printing for adequate comparison with hand printing on items previously submitted in these cases. Nothing of particular significance was observed in comparing the available handwriting of HALL with other unidentified questioned writing on items submitted in this case and the SLA case and the ASGM case.

San Francisco, Chicago, Los Angeles, Minneapolis should continue to be alert to obtain additional handwriting and hand printing of HALL for submission to the Laboratory.

As of 5/1/76, the FBI Laboratory advised that San Francisco should refer to previous Laboratory comments concerning comparison of CAMILLA HALL's writing with questioned writing on items in this case.

As of 5/15/74, The FBI Laboratory advised that San Francisco should refer to previous Laboratory comments concerning the comparing of writing of EMILY HARRIS with the unidentified questioned writing in these cases and the obtaining of additional known handwriting and hand printing of HARRIS.

CHW:chw

Some resemblances were observed in comparing the written notation "Tania 1974" on the Q173 photograph with available writing of PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST which indicates that she cannot be eliminated as a possible suspect in the preparation of this notation. However, this questioned written notation is too limited for handwriting identification.

Title: HEARNAP

Character: KIDNAPING

Synopsis: Evidence from robbery of Hibernia Bank, 22nd and Noriega Streets, San Francisco, California, sent to FBI Laboratory for examination. Specimens Q213 and Q214 identified as having been fired in same weapon as Q15 through Q18 recovered at the abduction scene of victim. Q201 through Q204 and Q216A were identified as having been loaded into and extracted from weapon which fired Q15 through Q18, Q213 and Q214. Q210 was identified as having been fired from the same weapon as the Q9 bullet fragment. List of individuals whose fingerprints and purported latent prints are being compared set out. Similarities were observed in comparing written notation "April 74" on the Q986 cassette tape with purported writing of DONALD DAVID DE FREEZE which indicates this notation may have been prepared by DE FREEZE. The typewriting on Q20 through Q23, Q32 through Q39, Q163 through Q171, Q178 through Q181 and Q183 is a similar style to the typewriting on Q991, but a definite conclusion was not reached whether these items were prepared by the same typewriter. Conclusion reached that the blue ink questioned writing on Q100 in this case and Q32 in the SLA case were prepared by DE FREEZE. Conclusion reached that the majority of questioned written notations on Q55 were prepared by victim. ARMED AND DANGEROUS

 - Q200 Cartridge case from under bench seat (Item #9)
 - Q201 Cartridge found on street (Item #1)
 - Q202 Cartridge from rear seat of vehicle (Item #2)
 - Q203 Cartridge from rear floor of vehicle (Item #3)
 - Q204 Cartridge from floor near counter (Item #6)
 - Q205 Cartridge from floor near front door (Item #10)
 - Q206 Cartridge from floor near front door (Item #11)
 - Q207 Pacific Car Rental form #SFO 7063 signed "Janet Cooper"
- Also Submitted: Pink and yellow carbon copies of Q207

Specimens received 4-16-74, from SAC, San Francisco:

Q208 Continental Rent-A-Car System, Inc. rental agreement form #52054 signed ~~Janet Cooper~~

Also Submitted: Blue carbon copy of Q208

Result of examination:

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the ~~Janet Cooper~~ signatures on Q207 and Q208 were prepared by the same person due to the presence of unexplained variations. However, some handwriting similarities were observed in comparing these signatures.

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the ~~Janet Cooper~~ signatures on Q207 and Q208 were prepared by any of the writers of unidentified questioned writing, known writing and purported known writing on items submitted in this case, case captioned "SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY (SLA) EM" and case captioned "AUGUST SEVENTH GUERRILLA MOVEMENT (ASGM) EM," due to the presence of unexplained variations and the lack of sufficiently comparable writing.

The submitted evidence is being returned separately. Appropriate photographs were made.

Q211 Copper jacket removed from [REDACTED]
Q212 Two lead fragments found near front door of bank
Q213-Q214 Two cartridge cases found in front of bank

Result of examination:

The results of the requested latent fingerprint examinations are being reported separately. Further, the results of the document examination of the Q207 Excess Insurance Rental Contract and "Also Submitted" copies will be the subject of a separate report.

Specimens Q197 through Q200 are .30 Carbine caliber military cartridge cases which were identified as having been fired in one weapon. Specimens Q197 through Q199 bear "LC 52," "LC 68" and "LC 54" headstamps respectively, indicating manufacture by Lake City Ordnance Plant, Independence, Missouri. Specimen Q200 bears a "PC 42" headstamp indicating Peters Cartridge Company, Kings Mill, Ohio, manufacture. It is noted that the weapon which fired the Q197 through Q200 cartridge cases is not the same weapon which fired the four cartridge cases found on the ground in front of 2603 Benvenue, Apartment 4, where PATRICIA HEARST was abducted (specimens Q15 through Q18, Laboratory report, February 28, 1974).

Specimens Q213 and Q214 are .30 Carbine caliber cartridge cases which were identified as having been fired in the same weapon which fired the Q15 through Q18 cartridge cases recovered at the abduction scene. The Q213 cartridge case bears a "WCC 43" headstamp indicating it was manufactured for military use by the Western Cartridge Company. The "W-W 30 Carbine" headstamp on the Q214 cartridge case indicates it was commercially manufactured by Winchester-Western, East Alton, Illinois.

Specimens Q201 through Q204 are .30 Carbine caliber cartridges which were identified as having been loaded into and extracted from the weapon which fired the Q15 through Q18, Q213 and Q214 cartridge cases. Specimens Q201 and Q204 have been loaded with copper-jacketed, soft point bullets. The nose of the bullet portion of the Q204 cartridge has a shallow, hollowed-out indentation. No foreign material was noted in this hollowed-out area. Specimens Q201 and Q204 bear a "Frontier 30 Carbine" headstamp indicating commercial manufacture by the Frontier Cartridge Company, Grand Island, Nebraska. Specimen Q202 has been loaded with a copper-jacketed, soft point bullet. The nose of the bullet portion of the Q202 cartridge has also been hollowed out. Paraffin wax was found in the nose of this cartridge. No cyanide was identified beneath the wax. Specimen Q202 bears a "W-W 30 Carbine" headstamp indicating commercial manufacture by Winchester-Western, East Alton, Illinois. The Q203 cartridge has been loaded with a copper-jacketed bullet. The "LC 68" headstamp on specimen Q203 indicates it was originally manufactured for military use by the Lake City Ordnance Plant.

It is noted that the Frontier Cartridge Company is a division of Hornady Manufacturing Company. Frontier now uses new cartridge cases bearing their own headstamp. However, in the past, cartridges marketed in boxes bearing the Frontier label have consisted of refurbished once-fired government cartridge cases loaded with Hornady copper-jacketed, soft point bullets. Accordingly, cartridge cases originally manufactured for military use bearing LC, PC and WCC headstamps could be purchased in boxes bearing a Frontier label.

Specimens Q205 and Q206 are .30 Carbine caliber cartridges which have been loaded with copper-jacketed, soft point bullets. The "LC 54" and "LC 4" headstamps on these cartridges indicate they were originally manufactured by the Lake City Ordnance Plant. Due to a lack of sufficient corresponding microscopic markings, specimens Q205 and Q206 could not be associated with the weapons represented by the other cartridges and cartridge cases from the abduction and robbery scenes.

The Q7 cartridge case from Siegle's Gun Shop and the Q94 through Q99 cartridges found at 5329 Wentworth Street could not be associated with the cartridges and cartridge cases recovered at the robbery and abduction scenes.

Specimen Q210 is a .30 caliber copper jacket which was identified as having been fired from the same weapon as the Q9 bullet fragment embedded in wood from the window of 2607 Benvenue Street at the abduction scene. Specimens Q210 and Q9 were fired from a barrel rifled with four lands and grooves, right twist.

Specimen Q209 is a .30 caliber copper-jacketed bullet like that loaded into .30 Carbine caliber cartridges. Specimen Q196 is a .30 caliber copper jacket. Specimens Q209 and Q196 have been fired from a barrel(s) rifled with four lands and grooves, right twist, like that found on .30 caliber United States carbines. Although the rifling impressions in specimens Q209 and Q196 are like those present in the fired bullets and bullet fragments recovered at the abduction and robbery scenes, no identifications were effected.

The copper jacket fragment from the front door rug, specimen Q196, is minute and of no value for identification purposes.

The Q211 and Q212 lead fragments appear to be the cores of copper-jacketed bullets. These specimens are of no value for identification purposes.

No traces of potassium cyanide were found in the submitted bullet and bullet fragments, specimens Q195, Q196, Q209 and Q210 through Q212.

All of the above-listed specimens are being retained in the Laboratory for future comparison purposes.

Result of examination:

The results of the requested latent fingerprint examinations are being reported separately.

Specimen Q216A is a .30 Carbine caliber cartridge which was identified as having been loaded into and extracted from the same weapon which fired the four cartridge cases from the abduction scene, specimens Q15 through Q18, and the two cartridge cases found outside the bank, specimens Q213 and Q214. The Q201 through Q204 cartridges found in the bank were also loaded into and extracted from this same weapon.

Specimen Q216A has been loaded with a copper-jacketed bullet. The "LC 42" headstamp indicates it was originally manufactured by the Lake City Ordnance Plant.

The Q216B nickel-colored cartridge found in the vehicle contains no gunpowder and appears to be toy ammunition.

Specimens Q232 through Q982 consist of fifteen boxes containing 751 .30 Carbine caliber cartridges. All of these cartridges have been loaded with copper-jacketed bullets. They bear a "30 M1 59" headstamp which indicates they are of Dominican Republic manufacture. Cartridges of this type are imported by the Mars Equipment Corporation, Chicago, Illinois. Nothing was found to indicate that any of the Q232 through Q982 cartridges were loaded into or extracted from a weapon.

Specimen Q985 is a 6mm Remington caliber cartridge of Remington-Peters manufacture which has been loaded with a 100-grain copper-jacketed, "soft point" bullet. Nothing was found to indicate that this cartridge has been loaded into or extracted from a weapon. Further, nothing was found to associate this cartridge with previously submitted ammunition.

Specimens Q217, Q218, Q227 and Q228 are typical of automobile debris which accumulates during normal every day usage. The mineralogical debris in Q217, Q218 and Q227 is too mixed and contaminated to be of lead or comparison value.

Specimen Q228 contains numerous black silica slag particles and a few metal shavings. Therefore, it is likely that the person or persons using the 1974 Hornet were in a steel or iron manufacturing area inasmuch as black silica slag is a common byproduct of such areas. Also, it is noted that black silica slag is also commonly used in sand blasting operations such as those conducted at Naval shipyards.

Numerous blond and brown head hairs of Caucasian origin and a few black head hairs that exhibit Mongoloid characteristics were found in the Q217 and Q218 vacuum sweepings from the 1973 Ford. One blond Caucasian head hair was found on the Q220 paper tissue from the same car. Specimen Q223 includes a brown Caucasian pubic hair. The above hairs were mounted on glass microscope slides for possible future comparisons. No hairs were found on the Q219 paper tissue.

Fibers of various types and colors from specimens Q217 through Q220 were placed in pillboxes for possible future comparisons.

Several blond and brown Caucasian head hairs and a brown Caucasian pubic hair were found in the Q227 vacuum sweepings from the 1974 Hornet. Several blond, brown and black Caucasian head hairs were found in the Q228 vacuum sweepings from the same car. These hairs were mounted on glass microscope slides for possible future comparisons. The hair adhering to the Q229 dome light is a dog hair. No hairs were found on the Q225 paper tissue.

Fibers from specimens Q225, Q227 and Q228 were placed in pillboxes for possible future comparisons.

Specimen Q226 is a silk scarf with a floral design and which measures 10" x 58". No labels, visible laundry marks or invisible laundry marks are present on the scarf. No hairs were found on the scarf.

Foreign brown-black tarlike deposits noted on specimen Q221 lack sufficient identifying characteristics to specifically associate these tarlike deposits with a particular source or origin. These foreign tarlike deposits are suitable for comparison purposes.

All of the above-listed specimens are being retained in the Laboratory for future comparison purposes.

Result of examination:

Characteristics observed indicate that the Cooper signature on Q983 was prepared by the writer or writers of the Cooper signatures on Q207 and Q216, previously submitted. Similarities were also observed in comparing the Cooper signature on Q208 with the above mentioned Cooper signatures, although due to the presence of a few unexplained variations, a definite conclusion could not be reached whether these signatures were prepared by the same person.

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the Cooper signature on Q983 was prepared by the writers of remaining unidentified questioned writing, known writing or purported known writing on items submitted in this case or case captioned "SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY (SLA) EM", due to the presence of unexplained variations and the lack of sufficiently comparable writing.

The submitted evidence is being returned separately. Appropriate photographs were made.

Specimens received 4-29-74, from SAC, San Francisco:

- Q986 Scotch C-120 cassette tape bearing writing "April 74 SLA"
- Q987 Two pieces of torn poster bearing printed message beginning "CHANGE IS A LAW OF NATURE ..."
- Q988 Piece of gold foil wrapping paper
- Q989 Piece of envelope bearing hand printing "/AFAC"
- Q990 Brown paper tube bearing hand printed address "To: Western Addition Project Area Commit , 1358 Divisadero [redacted] Townsend, San Francisco, California"
- Q991 Two pieces of torn paper bearing typewriting beginning "WAPAC BROTHERS AND SISTERS: PLEASE HAND DELIVER ..."
- Q992 Portion of California Driver License #E380203 in the name "Patricia Campbell..."

Specimen received 4-29-74, from SAC, San Francisco:

- Q993 Pieces of gold foil wrapping paper

Result of examination:

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the questioned writing on the submitted items was prepared by the writers of the unidentified questioned writing, the known writing or the purported known writing on items previously submitted in this case, case captioned "SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY (SLA) EM" or in the case captioned "AUGUST SEVENTH GUERRILLA MOVEMENT (ASGM) EM", due to the presence of unexplained variations, the lack of sufficiently comparable writing and the limited amount of writing on some items. However, similarities were observed in comparing the written notation "April 74" on the Q986 cassette tape with the purported writing of DONALD DAVID DE FREEZE appearing on items K12, K21, K24 and K29, which indicates this notation may have been prepared by DE FREEZE.

The typewriting on Q991 is a similar style to the typewriting on items Q20 through Q23, Q32 through Q39, Q163 through Q171, Q178 through Q181 and Q183, previously submitted; however, due to the lack of a sufficient number of individual identifying characteristics and the limited amount of typewriting on Q991, a definite conclusion was not reached whether these items were prepared by the same typewriter.

The conclusion was reached that the large piece of foil paper in Q993 was torn from the large piece of foil paper Q986.

The writing and drawing on the Q987 poster bears characteristics of having been made with a fiber tip pen or marker. Q991 bears a watermark reading "KEENAH BOND 25% COTTON FIBER" which is registered to the Keenah Paper Company, Keenah, Wisconsin. Q990 was formed using a brown paper bag. This bag bears a printed symbol and the words "TIMBER-TUFF KRAFT SWS 66 PAK-SAK". This trade mark is registered to Murray Bag and Paper Corporation, 4530 Loma Vista Avenue, Vernon, California, as Merchant and Great Western Bag Corporation, 4530 Loma Vista Avenue, Vernon, California, as convertor. No other watermarks, indented writing of significance or other characteristics to aid in determining the source of the submitted items were found.

The submitted items are being returned separately. Appropriate photographs were made.

Result of examination:

Foreign pink stains noted on specimens Q993 and Q988 are too limited and contaminated for adequate comparison purposes with specimen Q987.

Microscopic, microchemical and instrumental examinations of the gold-colored foil wrapping paper determined that specimens Q988 and Q993 are similar in color, texture and type.

Result of examination:

Brown head hairs of Caucasian origin were recovered from the vacuum sweepings, specimens Q1056, Q1057, Q1065, Q1066 and Q1067. A dark brown head hair of Negroid origin was found in Q1056 and one was found in Q1065. Black head hairs which exhibit Mongoloid characteristics were found in Q1066 and Q1067. Black hairs and white hairs of dog origin were recovered from all the vacuum sweepings. Also, fibers of various types and colors are present in all the vacuum sweepings.

Specimen Q1071 is a brown Caucasian head hair.

Specimen Q1072 is a piece of blue sewing thread 3 1/2" long composed of blue synthetic filaments.

Specimen Q1068 consists of a stem and leaves, and specimens Q1069 and Q1075 consist of leaves all of the coast live oak. The coast live oak is found on valley floors, rocky hills and canyon walls of the Coast Ranges for most of the length of California. Specimen Q1074 consists of two pine needle fragments too limited for further identification.

Specimens Q1059 and Q1070 consist of insects and insect parts including flies, moths, wasps and bees. All of the insects represented by these two specimens are of widespread distribution.

Specimen Q1073 consists of two small white and green pebbles which have some asphalt covering their surfaces. It is likely that these pebbles came from an asphalt pavement. These pebbles are of limited comparison value.

Specimen Q1063 is a white tissue paper having some very small sized black particles adhering. These particles are too limited in size and quantity for an adequate soil analysis.

The Q1058 piece of black material was found to have the word "Ford" printed on one side of the specimen, indicating the specimen was probably a part of upholstery or decorative material common to the vehicle.

The Q1061 red material was found to be a red wax, such as candle wax; however, the wax could not be associated with a particular source.

The Q1062 material was found to be a silicone and aliphatic type wax which could not be associated with a particular source.

The Q1063 substance was found to be characteristic of an automotive undercoating material.

Handwriting of DONALD DAVID DE FREEZE, K21, K24

On March 2, 197 [REDACTED] Los Angeles County, California Probation Officer, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] stated that after DONALD DAVID DE FREEZE was confined to the Los Angeles Jail in 1968, he wrote a personal letter to [REDACTED] defending his conduct and requested assistance. [REDACTED] made this five-page letter available and also provided a Probation Department work form which was completed by DE FREEZE on July 15, 1968.

DE FREEZE indicated that he attended a New York Vocational Institute for painting and decorating which allegedly qualified him for supervision of all forms of residential and individual remodeling and decorating.

In 1960, DE FREEZE was incarcerated at the Coxsackie Correctional Facility, formerly known as the New York Vocational Institute, and it appears that this facility is identical to the allegation made by DE FREEZE which sets forth his qualifications in the decorating field.

The original of an inmate questionnaire and a copy of a Certificate of Release on Parole was obtained from the Coxsackie Correctional Facility, West Coxsackie, New York, which contains samples of DE FREEZE's handwriting.

Result of examination:

The conclusion was reached that the blue ink questioned writing on the unruled side of Q100 submitted in captioned kidnaping case and the questioned writing on item Q32 submitted by the Oakland, California, Police Department, in case captioned "SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY (SLA)" was prepared by DONALD DAVID DE FREEZE, K12, K21 and K24.

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the remaining unidentified questioned writing on items submitted in the captioned kidnaping case or in the Symbionese Liberation Army case was prepared by DE FREEZE, due to the presence of unexplained variations, the lack of sufficiently comparable writing and the limited amount of questioned writing on some of the items previously submitted. However, significant handwriting similarities were observed in comparing the available writing of DE FREEZE with the questioned writing on the cassette tapes designated Q113, Q126 and Q127 in the captioned kidnaping case, the questioned handwriting on the lower portion of Q42 submitted in the Symbionese Liberation Army case and the questioned handwriting on Q40 submitted in the Symbionese Liberation Army case, which indicates this questioned writing may also have been prepared by DE FREEZE.

K36 Four Great Western Savings And Loan Association cards for savings accounts #604433 2, 603037-2, 047112-7, and 042765-7 bearing purported signatures of CAMILLA HALL

Result of examination:

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the unidentified questioned writing on items submitted in this case, in case captioned "SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY (SLA) EM" or in case captioned "AUGUST SEVENTH GUERRILLA MOVEMENT (ASGM)EM" was prepared by CAMILLA HALL, purported writer of K23, K26, K27, and K33 through K36, due to the lack of sufficiently comparable writing and the presence of unexplained variations.

K36, which has been photographed, is attached.

The submitted evidence is being returned separately with the results of the latent fingerprint examination.

The extortion case referred to in the attached report has Bufile 9-57791 and Los Angeles file number 9-5357. Similar form and substance of the type writing on Ccl in the mentioned extortion case and Q98 and Ccl03 currently submitted indicates these matters may be connected. However, no consolidation is being made at the Bureau at this time.

Specimens received 6/17/74 from SAC, Los Angeles

- Q102 Envelope postmarked "TORRANCE, CA 905 PM 10 JUN 1974," bearing the typewritten address [REDACTED] Torrance, California 90505"
- Q103 Photocopy of typewritten message beginning "We, members of the SLA are sending an open letter..."

Result of examination:

As a result of a search of the Anonymous Letter File a previous letter submitted by the Los Angeles Division and described as Qc1 in case captioned "UNSUB; Threat of Retaliation for Killing Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA) Members in Los Angeles, California. 5/17/74; LOS ANGELES POLICE DEPARTMENT, LOS ANGELES SHERIFF'S OFFICE - FBI - VICTIMS: EXTORTION" was located. This letter is the same style and size of type as the typewriting on Q97, Q98 and Qc103; however, a definite conclusion was not reached whether these items were prepared by the same typewriter due to the lack of sufficient individual identifying characteristics. The typewriting on the submitted items was not associated with other items maintained in the Anonymous Letter File.

Qc103 is an electrostatic photocopy of Q98, made using a coated paper. The Qc103 photocopy corresponds to Laboratory standards for photocopies produced by Smith-Corona (SCM) office copy machines.

The typewriting on Q97 and Q98 corresponds to Laboratory standards for an IBM Selectric style of type, spaced ten characters per horizontal inch. No other typewriting on items previously submitted in this case or in the "HARNAP" case have been found to correspond to this style of type.

The typewriting on Q102 corresponds to Laboratory standards for an Underwood elite style of type, spaced twelve characters per horizontal inch. No typewriting on other items previously submitted in this case or in the "HARNAP" case were found to correspond to this style of type.

The submitted items contain no watermarks, indented writing of significance or other characteristics to aid in definitely determining their source. A ten-cent U.S. Postal Service stamp, torn from sheets of stamps, is affixed to each Q97 and Q102.

The submitted evidence, which has been photographed, is being returned separately.

RE PG TELETYPE, TO CI, DATED JULY 12, 1974.

DEFERRED TELETYPE ADVISED AS FOLLOWS:

[REDACTED] TELEPHONICALLY ADVISED

THAT SHE SAW A FEMALE SHE IDENTIFIED AS PATRICIA HEARST AT 3 AM ON JULY 11, 1974, AT THE CRAWFORD FARM AND GLASS A CAMPING GROUND AND FARM MARKET, LOCATED ONE MILE WEST OF SOUTH
VIENNA, OHIO, ON U.S. ROUTE 46.

SHE STATED SHE RECOGNIZED HEARST FROM NUMEROUS PHOTOGRAPHS
SHE HAD SEEN OF HEARST THROUGH THE NEWS MEDIA. 7-15-00 2636

SHE ADVISED THERE WERE TWO WHITE MALES AND A WHITE FEMALE WITH HEARST AND THEY WERE STAYING AT A CABIN AT THE CRAWFORD FARM CAMPGROUND. SHE DESCRIBED HEARST AS BEING DRESSED IN BLACK AND HAVING LONG DARK HAIR. SHE COULD FURNISH NO DESCRIPTIVE

DATA REGARDING THE OTHER INDIVIDUALS EXCEPT THAT THEY WERE ALL SOMEWHERE IN AGE BETWEEN 30 AND 40.

ON JULY 10, 1974 [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

ADVISED AT ABOUT ONE A.M., JULY 11, 1974, AN OLD MODEL GREY VAN, POSSIBLY FORD, ACCOMPANIED BY 3 WHITE MALES AND A WHITE FEMALE, ALL "HIPPIE TYPES", ARRIVED AT HIS CAMPGROUNDS AND PARKED ON CAMP PLAYGROUND AREA ADJACENT TO HIS CAMP SITES. HE DID NOT GET OUT OF BED AND DID NOT OBSERVE THIS VAN UNTIL 6 AM WHEN HE DE-PARTED CAMPGROUND TO RUN ERRANDS. HE RETURNED ABOUT 9 AM AND WAS TOLD BY HIS WIFE THE VAN HAD SLIDDED OUT WITHOUT PAYING CAMPING FEES. INASMUCH AS THIS GROUP DID NOT REGISTER AT THE CAMPGROUNDS, HE CANNOT IDENTIFY THEM OR FURNISH LICENSE NUMBER OF THE VAN.

[REDACTED] ADVISED HE DOES NOT HAVE ANY CAMPS AND ALL OTHER CAMPERE ON THE NIGHTS OF JULY 10-11, 1974, WERE CONVENTIONAL FAMILY GROUPS, WHICH DID NOT INCLUDE ANYONE RESEMBLING RATTY NEARST.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] HAS CAMPING NEAR THIS VAN, ADVISED THIS GROUP INCLUDED 3 FLOORS.

Re: HEARNAP

FBI File No. 7-15200

Lab. No. D-740624105 PF

Specimens received 6-24-74

Q1556 One dollar Federal Reserve Note, serial #J54015331A, bearing hand printed message "This is Patty Hearst- Tell my parents to come to the old park- they will know"

Result of examination:

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the questioned writing on Q1556 was prepared by any of the writers of the unidentified questioned writing, known writing or purported known writing on items previously submitted in this case or in case captioned "SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY (SLA) EM", due to the presence of unexplained variations and the lack of sufficiently comparable writing. However, nothing of particular significance was observed in comparing the questioned writing on Q1556 with the writing on items previously submitted in these cases.

Q1556, which has been photographed, is being returned separately.

SUBJECT: HEARNAP

Re Dallas teletype to Bureau, dated 6/21/74, regarding $1 bill recovered at Dallas, Texas, concerning PATTY HEARST.

Enclosed for the Bureau is $1 Federal Reserve Note, Serial # J54015331A, Series Year 1969D.

On 6/21/74 [redacted] advised that at noon, 6/20/74, she purchased a sandwich from a lunch wagon truck at her place of business, Horchow Collection, 4435 [redacted] Monton, Dallas, Texas. She stated she paid for the sandwich with a $5 bill and received four $1 bills and some change in return. She noted that on one of the $1 bills the following was written: "This is Patty Hearst -- Tell my parents to come to the old park -- They Will Know." She stated she considered this a joke and then put this $1 bill into a change machine at her place of business.

On 6/21/74, the above $1 bill was retrieved from the change machine at Horchow Cornoration. On 6/21/74, [redacted]

[redacted] advised he is employed as a lunch truck driver for Industrial Catering Service, and that he works out of the plant located at 4801 Easy Street, Garland, Texas. He stated he does not recall seeing a $1 bill with any writing on it on 6/20/74, and [redacted] noted when he begins his run in the morning, he only has five $1 bills for change. He stated he does not recall seeing any writing on any of these $1 bills. Prior to his stop around the noon hour ~~in~~ ~~at~~ ~~the~~ ~~collection~~, he makes 45 stops. He stated he has no idea at which of the stops he might have received the above described $1 bill.

REQUEST OF THE BUREAU

The FBI Laboratory is requested to determine if any latent fingerprints might appear on this Federal Reserve note for comparison against fingerprints of PATTY HEARST, if available, and also to conduct handwriting examination to determine if printing could possibly be printing of PATRICIA HEARST. Will also compare handwriting on this note with that contained on a $1 note submitted to the Bureau by San Antonio Division by communication dated 6/7/74.

1974 BY THE U.S. COURT OF APPEALS AT SAN FRANCISCO. HALVERSON AND

BROWNING RELATES THAT USUALLY THE MANDATE OF THE U.S. COURT OF APPEALS IS NOT FILED WITH THE DISTRICT COURT FOR SOME 21 DAYS AND THE APPELLANTS HAVE INDICATED THAT THEY INTEND TO APPEAL TO THE U.S. SUPREME COURT. BROWNING STATED THAT HIS OFFICE IS PRESENTLY CONTEMPLATING ASKING FOR AN IMMEDIATE MANDATE FROM THE U.S. COURT OF APPEALS OR SEEKING A DISMISSAL OF U.S. DISTRICT COURT JUDGE ALFONSO ZIRPOLI'S ORDER GRANTING THE APPELLANT'S RELEASE ON THEIR OWN RECOGNIZANCE.

BROWNING POINTS OUT THAT THE BUREAU MAY BE INTERESTED IN A FOOTNOTE TO THE COURT'S DECISION CONCERNING RESPONSES TO QUESTIONS OF ELECTRIC SURVEILLANCE. THE FOOTNOTE CONCERNS TESTIMONY OF MR. BRANDON ALVEY, SPECIAL ATTORNEY IN THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE WHO TESTIFIED THAT HE HAD MADE INQUIRY OF RESPONSIBLE OFFICIALS OF THE VARIOUS GOVERNMENT AGENCIES IN WASHINGTON, D.C. AND HAD LEARNED THAT THE APPELLANTS HAD NOT BEEN THE SUBJECT OF ANY ELECTRIC SURVEILLANCE. THE FOOTNOTE READS "BECAUSE MR. ALVEY WAS NOT INTIMATELY FAMILIAR WITH THE RECORD KEEPING AND PRACTICES OF OTHER AGENCIES, HIS TESTIMONY IN THESE RESPECTS WAS OF A HEARSAY NATURE. The purpose of this memorandum is to consider whether the court's suggestion concerning captioned matter as reported by 6/28/74 San Francisco "HEARNAP" teletype (a copy of which is attached) should be adopted.

The teletype notes that United States Attorney James L. Browning, Jr., San Francisco, California, pointed out that the Bureau may be interested in a footnote to a court decision involving the Patricia Hearst case, which footnote concerned the testimony of a Departmental attorney to the effect that he had made inquiries of responsible officials of the various Government agencies and had learned that the appellants in this case had not been the subject of any electronic surveillances. The footnote reads, "Because (the Departmental attorney) was not intimately familiar with the record keeping and practices of other agencies, his testimony in these respects was of a hearsay nature. As this court noted at oral argument and emphasizes here, much time, effort, and expense of parties, attorneys and courts might have been spared if the Department of Justice and other investigating agencies had worked out in affidavit form a certificate disclosing the several agencies' method of record keeping in surveillance matters, the method of examination of those records and that, based upon that examination, the affiant's statements were made."

The above-suggested procedure would be at variance with our current one in that we now furnish an affidavit stating simply that the records of the FBI do not contain any indication that the defendant has been party to a conversation electronically monitored by the FBI. We do not furnish information regarding the method of record keeping or examination which enables us to depose that the defendant has not been overheard.

Memorandum to Mr. W. R. Wannall
Re: Sample Affidavit Reflecting Negative Special Indices
Search

This matter has been thoroughly discussed by representatives of the Office of Legal Counsel, the Criminal Intelligence and Organized Crime Section of the Special Investigative Division and IS-3, and the unanimous conclusion has been reached that we should adhere to our existing policy.

It was the consensus that our method of storage and retrieval of elsur information is not the proper subject of an affidavit and that the more unsolicited information that is volunteered, (as opposed to answering specific questions tailored to the circumstances of each individual case), the greater the chance that this would open the door leading to further discovery motions. It is also noted that the procedure suggested in the attached teletype was merely dicta to the court's opinion in one case and that if the Department, which is undoubtedly cognizant of this matter, felt this procedure had more merit than the one presently utilized, we would be issued instructions to that effect.

TO CONTACTING INDIVIDUALS AFFILIATED WITH OTHER RADICAL ORGANIZATIONS SINCE NO INFORMATION HAS BEEN DEVELOPED TO DATE INDICATING THAT THE CIA HAS MEMBERS IN THE LOS ANGELES AREA.

INVESTIGATION HAS REVEALED THAT JOSEPH BENITO AND RUSSELL LITTLE, WHO ARE CURRENTLY INCARCERATED AWAITING PROSECUTION FOR THE KILLING OF OAKLAND SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT, MARCUS FOSTER, WERE AT ONE TIME AFFILIATED WITH THE WHAM/MSO. IN VIEW OF THIS, LOS ANGELES IS CONSIDERING THE POSSIBILITY THAT SOMEONE AFFILIATED WITH THE WHAM/MSO IN LOS ANGELES MAY BE ACQUAINTED WITH THE HARRIS' AND WOULD BE SYMPATHETIC TOWARD THEM.

A REVIEW OF THE INVESTIGATION CONDUCTED IN LOS ANGELES, REGARDING THE WHAM/MSO, LOS ANGELES FILE 166-77783, INDICATES THAT THE FOLLOWING INDIVIDUALS, WHO ARE ASSOCIATED WITH THAT GROUP, MIGHT BE CONSIDERED LOGICAL INDIVIDUALS WHO WOULD BE SYMPATHETIC TOWARD THE CIA:

ON JULY 1, 1974, [REDACTED] AND HER BOYFRIEND WERE DRIVING AGAINST THE TRAFFIC ON THE ONE WAY ST. WHEN THEY OBSERVED A BLACK AND WHITE LINCOLN AUTOMOBILE BACKING FROM THE DRIVEWAY AT [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] THEY HONKED THEIR HORN TO ALERT THE DRIVER OF THE LINCOLN THAT THEY WERE COMING THE WRONG WAY ON A ONE WAY STREET. THE LINCOLN STOPPED AND AT THIS TIME [REDACTED] OBSERVED A BLACK MALE AND A WHITE FEMALE, WHO WERE WALKING FROM [REDACTED] TOWARD THE LINCOLN. WHEN THEY HONKED THE HORN THE BLACK MALE AND WHITE FEMALE STOPPED ABRUPTLY AND HAD STARTLED LOOKS UPON THEIR FACES.

[REDACTED] OBSERVED THAT EACH WAS CARRYING WHAT APPEARED TO BE A RIFLE AND A "MACHINE GUN" IN THEIR HANDS. THE WHITE FEMALE HAD WHAT APPEARED TO BE A SINGLE AMMUNITION BELT OVER HER SHOULDER.

WHEN THE BLACK MALE AND WHITE FEMALE LOOKED AT [REDACTED] AND HER BOYFRIEND IN THEIR CAR, THEY SEEMED TO RELAX, SMILED, AND CONTINUED ON TOWARD THE LINCOLN. [REDACTED] RECEIVED THE IMPRESSION THEY WERE NO LONGER CONCERNED WHEN THEY SAW THAT [REDACTED] AND HER BOYFRIEND WERE BLACK. THE LINCOLN CONTINENTAL AUTOMOBILE WAS BLACK OVER WHITE AND ABOUT A 1970 YEAR MODEL. IT WAS BEING DRIVEN BY ANOTHER WHITE MALE.

[REDACTED] FURNISHED THE FOLLOWING DESCRIPTIONS [REDACTED] OF THE PERSONS SHE OBSERVED:

THE WHITE FEMALE CARRYING THE WEAPONS WAS DESCRIBED AS BEING IN HER EARLY 20'S, 5'7" - 5'8" TALL, APPROX. 120 POUNDS, BROWN HAIR, PARTED IN MIDDLE, AND WORN IN A BUN. SHE WAS WEARING A TAN FUZZY WAIST LENGTH JACKET. THE BLACK MALE WALKING WITH THE WEAPONS WAS DESCRIBED AS APPROX. 30 YEARS OF AGE, 5'7" TALL, 150 POUNDS, WITH A BLACK MEDIUM AFRO HAIR CUT. HE WAS WEARING A DARK SUIT, WHITE TIE, AND HAD A THICK MUSTACHE. THE DRIVER OF THE LINCOLN CONTINENTAL WAS DESCRIBED AS A WHITE MALE WITH BLOND HAIR.

[REDACTED] STATED THAT SHE HAS RESIDED IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD FOR APPROX. 2 MONTHS AND HAS NOTICED AN UNUSUAL AMOUNT OF ACTIVITY AT [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] SHE HAS OBSERVED A NUMBER OF WELL DRESSED BLACKS RANGING IN AGE FROM THEIR 20'S TO 50'S AT THE RESIDENCE. MOST OF THE PEOPLE VISITING THE RESIDENCE DRIVE EXPENSIVE CARS AND COME DURING ALL HOURS OF THE DAY OR NIGHT [REDACTED] COULD NOT RECALL OBSERVING ANY WHITES AT THE RESIDENCE.

IT IS NOTED THAT EMILY HARRIS HAS ALLEGEDLY BEEN ASSOCIATED WITH INDIVIDUALS CONNECTED WITH THE UNITED PRISONERS UNION IN SAN FRANCISCO AND THAT A GREAT MANY OF THE CONTACTS MADE BY THE VENCEREMOS ORGANIZATION WITH PRISON INMATES WERE INITIATED THROUGH THE UNITED PRISONERS UNION. REFERENCE IS MADE TO THE REPORT OF [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] INDICATED THAT [REDACTED] OF THE UNITED PRISONERS UNION WAS ASSOCIATED WITH THE VENCEREMOS ORGANIZATION AND WAS ALLEGEDLY IN CHARGE OF FINDING SAFE HOUSES FOR "HOT PEOPLE" IN THE BAY AREA.

IN CONNECTION WITH [REDACTED] WITH WHOM WILLIAM HARRIS WAS REPORTED TO HAVE MADE CONTACT IN APRIL, IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT SOURCES HAVE MADE AVAILABLE INFO INDICATING THAT SHE REGULARLY VISITS A PISTOL RANGE WHERE SHE PRACTICES SHOOTING WITH A .45 CALIBER AUTOMATIC AND A .357 MAGNUM PISTOL. SHE HAS ALSO INDICATED A DESIRE TO BE TAUGHT COMBAT TYPE SHOOTING. IT IS FURTHER NOTED THAT [REDACTED]

IN VIEW OF THE ABOVE, IT IS POSSIBLE THAT THE THREE SLA FUGITIVES MIGHT HAVE MADE CONTACT WITH MEMBERS OF THE CDC, OR VENCERENOS ORGANIZATION IN THE LOS ANGELES AREA AFTER THE SLA SHOOT OUT. Thereafter, the Handwriting Section is requested to examine the handwriting and compare it with the known handwriting of subjects in captioned matter.

For the information of the FBI Laboratory, Los Angeles, and San Francisco, the above enclosed card was furnished by an off-duty policeman while working on 7/1/74, as a security guard at the C & S Bank, Mableton, Georgia. This card was found on a counter in the bank and investigation reflects no one was observed in the area of the counter on which this card was found who resembled HEARST. No logical reason could be ascertained for this card bearing the name "PATRICIA HEARST" being located in the bank.

Re: HEARNAP

Specimens received 6-27-74

Q1566 Card postmarked "U. S. POSTAL SERVICE 242 PM J 1974," bearing the handwritten address "SAM the MA 1711 Weller San Francisco Calif." and written message beginning "hi Sam. still aint got my ..."

Result of examination:

Q1566 was not associated with material maintained in the Anonymous Letter File. Copies have been added thereto.

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the questioned writing on Q1566 was prepared by EMILY HARRIS, purported writer of K5, K6, K8, K9, K20 and K37, WILLIAM HARRIS, purported writer of K45 or PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST, K32, due to the presence of unexplained variations and the lack of sufficiently comparable writing. However, some handwriting differences were observed in this comparison which indicates that the questioned writing on Q1566 may not have been prepared by any of these persons.

The somewhat irregular size of Q1566 indicates that it may have been cut from a larger piece of paper.

Q1566 contains no watermarks, indented writing of significance or other characteristics to definitely determine its source. An eight cent U.S. Postal Service stamp, torn from a coil of stamps, is affixed to Q1566.

Q1566, which has been photographed, is being returned separately.

RE: ~~ALI S. BAZ~~ - THREATENING LETTER.

Enclosed for the FBI Laboratory and Identification Division find the original and three copies of a 3-1/2" by 6-1/2" orange card containing handwriting and handprinting which is addressed to "SAM the Man, 1711 Waller Street, San Francisco, Calif." postmarked (illegible) and no return address.

For information of the FBI Laboratory and Identification Division, ~~1711 Waller Street, San Francisco~~ is the address of ~~ALI S. BAZ~~, aka Ali S. Mey, Ali S. Baz, FBI Number 897-354 C. He has been identified as the individual who was involved in the purchase of three vans which were recovered in Los Angeles, California, in connection with the Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA) shoot-out.

~~ALI S. BAZ~~ interprets the contents of the enclosed communication to be a threat and he introduced the card at the time he testified before the Federal Grand Jury as being a threat against him in connection with his testifying; however, the Grand Jurors apparently did not read the contents of the card as being a particular threat.

Three of the witnesses, upon learning of the card and its contents, alleged through their left-wing attorney, ~~DAVID GREEN~~, that they were so distraught that they found it impossible to testify when they were scheduled on 6/13/74.

EXAMINATION DESIRED

It is requested that the enclosed card be examined for latent fingerprints and if any prints are developed for elimination purposes, they should be checked against prints for ~~WEBSTER~~.

The FBI Laboratory is requested to examine the card for any lead material as to its original source of manufacture and also as to whether the card was cut from a larger piece of paper.

It is also requested that it be examined for indented writing.

Further it is requested that comparison of handwriting, handprinting, and other scribbling on the card be made with any known handwriting and handprinting on file for EMILY and WILLIAM HARRIS as well as PATRICIA HEARST to preclude the obviously remote possibility that they were the senders of the communication.

The enclosed communication should be treated as evidence and after the examination is completed, the enclosure, along with the results of the examination, should be returned to San Francisco.

This confirms Butaical to WFO 7/3/74.

An anonymous letter postmarked 7/1/74, Maryland 207, was received at FBIHQ. The contents of this letter are as follows:

"A girl resembling Patricia Hearst was seen moving into a house on Calvert Street, N. W., on the left side of the street (heading towards Stoddart Elementary School from Wisconsin Avenue) a few doors before the corner of 39th Street and Calvert. This was on Thursday, June 27th.

"Also moving in (or helping) were two men, described to me as way-out looking.

"The girl's hair was bleached blond and cut short with dark roots growing out.

"In the truck which they used to move, were a few odd pieces of furniture and many many stacks of small boxes, far too small for dishes.

"The person who told this to me is afraid to be involved; and I am too.

"However, I did feel that it should be reported."

WFO conduct appropriate inquiry and advise recipients and FBIHQ of your results.

Re: HEARNAP

Date: July 17, 1974
FBI File No. 7-15200
Lab. No. D-740703067 PF

Specimens received 7-3-74, from Bureau

Q1568 Envelope postmarked "U.S. POSTAL SERVICE, MD 207 PM 1 JUL 1974," bearing handwritten address "Federal Bureau of Investig. Pa. Ave. at 9th St. N.W. Washington, D.C. 20015"

Q1569 Accompanying sheet of paper bearing handwritten message beginning "A girl ..."

Result of examination:

Q1568 and Q1569 were not associated with material maintained in the Anonymous Letter File. Copies have been added thereto.

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the questioned writing on Q1568 and Q1569 was prepared by any of the writers of the unidentified questioned writing, known writing or purported known writing on items previously submitted in this case and in case captioned "SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY (SLA) EM", due to the presence of unexplained variations and the lack of sufficiently comparable writing. However, nothing of particular significance was observed in this comparison.

Q1568 and Q1569 contain no watermarks, indented writing of significance or other characteristics to aid in definitely determining their source. A ten cent U.S. Postal Service stamp, torn from a booklet of stamps, is affixed to Q1568.

The submitted evidence, which has been photographed, is being retained.

BY TELETYPE JULY 13, 1974, SAC, HOUSTON ADVISED:

INSTANT CASE [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] CONTACTED HOUSTON DIVISION RE INSTANT CASE AND WAS INTERVIEWED. [REDACTED] STATED HE FLEW FROM HOUSTON TO GUATEMALA CITY, GUATEMALA ON JULY 6, 1974 AND ON JULY 7, 1974 HE WENT TO ANTIGUA, GUATEMALA, WHERE HE STAYED FOR ONE DAY AT THE HOTEL ANTIGUA. [REDACTED] ADVISED THAT ON THE AFTERNOON OF JULY 7, 1974, HE WAS IN THE BAR OF THE ANTIGUA HOTEL AND THERE MET TWO YOUNG AMERICAN GIRLS WHO INTRODUCED THEMSELVES TO HIM AS "PAT" AND "EMILY". [REDACTED] DESCRIBED "EMILY" AS A WHITE FEMALE, 25 TO 28 YEARS OF AGE, 5 FT. 3 IN. TO 5 FT. 5 IN., 100 TO 135 POUNDS, DARK EYES, AND BLACK HAIR MADE UP INTO PIGTAILS, WEARING A SHORT SKIRT AND A LIGHT COLORED BLOUSE. THAT [REDACTED] WITH VERY THIN LIPS, SHOULDER LENGTH LIGHT BROWN HAIR, [REDACTED] EYES, WEARING SHORT SLEEVES AND A LIGHT COLORED BLOUSE.

[REDACTED] STATED THAT DURING THE NIGHT AND A MALE HE CONVERSED WITH THEM IN THE HOTEL BAR, THEY TOLD HIM THAT THEY HAD COME FROM FLORIDA WITH A TOUR AND WERE STAYING IN A COTTAGE AT THE HOTEL ANTIGUA. [REDACTED] STATED ON ONE OCCASION THEY COMPLAINED TO THE ASSISTANT MANAGER OF THE HOTEL RELATIVE TO NOT HAVING A FIREPLACE IN THEIR COTTAGE. HE STATED THE GIRL KNOWN AS "EMILY" DID MOST OF THE TALKING AND THE GIRL KNOWN AS "PAT" WAS VERY QUIET AND DID NOT SAY VERY MUCH. "EMILY" TOLD [REDACTED] THAT SHE WAS A COMPUTER OPERATOR AND "PAT" STATED SHE WAS A BOOKKEEPER FROM THE UNITED STATES.

[REDACTED] ADVISED THAT ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS HE ASKED "EMILY" AND "PAT" QUESTIONS RELATIVE TO THEIR BACKGROUND AND THEY SEEMED VERY HESITANT TO DISCUSS THESE MATTERS WITH HIM.

Title: HEARNAP

Character: KIDNAPING

Synopsis:

Evidence obtained from Apartment 6, 1327 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, examined by FBI Laboratory. Conclusion reached that written notation on Q1007 was prepared by NANCY LING PERRY. Q1007 through Q1010 envelopes are similar in observable characteristics to the manila envelopes Q45, Q48, Q63 and Q172. Questioned typewriting on Q20 through Q23, Q32 through Q39, Q163 through Q171, Q178 through Q181, Q183 and Q291 in this case and Q29 in SLA case are the same style of type and bear characteristics in common with samples made from Q1054 typewriter, which indicates that Q1054 typewriter may have been used in the preparation of this questioned writing, but a definite conclusion was not reached. Marks on the primer of Q1045 cartridge case were identified as having been produced by the same source which produced marks on primers of Q197 and Q192 cartridge cases and the Q206 cartridge recovered inside the Alibornia Bank. The specific source could not be determined. Handwriting similarities were observed in comparing written notations on Q1086 with purported writing of PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST and DONALD DAVID DE FREEZE which indicates these notations may have been prepared by HEARST and DE FREEZE (deceased). Conclusion reached that questioned ink writing on Q1094h, Q1094o and majority of questioned writing on Q1094y were prepared by CAMILLA HALL (deceased); writing on Q1094n was prepared by NANCY LING PERRY (deceased); writing on sides of Q1096 pieces of paper was prepared by PATRICIA MICHELLE SOLTYSIK (deceased); writing on Q1096 pieces of paper was prepared by DONALD DAVID DE FREEZE (deceased) and questioned writing on both sides of the two Q1101 pieces of paper listing items numbered one through twenty one under caption "Pad" was prepared by EMILY HARRIS.

Latent fingerprint of JOEL GARRETT WEBSTER also known as Ali Charles Baz, Ali S. Bey, identified on Q1513 and Q1518. Latent fingerprints from evidence obtained identified as prints of WILLIAM LAWTON WOLFE (deceased) and ARMA ALWOOD (deceased). ARMED AND DANGEROUS.

DETAILS:

- P -

SF 7-855
CHW:chw

This report does not include the results of the FBI Laboratory Specimens Q1382 - Q1512 submitted by Los Angeles.

Enlargements were made from selected frames of the Q994 and Q995 rolls of bank surveillance film and as of 6/18/74 these were being furnished to San Francisco under separate cover. The requested examination will be conducted on Q994 and Q995 and a separate report submitted.

The Q1054 typewriter and the typewriting on Q20 through Q23, Q32 through Q39, Q163 through Q171, Q178 through Q181, Q183, and Q991, previously submitted in this case, and the typewriting on Q29, previously submitted in the SLA case, does not contain sufficient individual identifying characteristics to permit identifications (as previously pointed out by the Laboratory concerning the questioned typewriting on these items). However, no characteristics were observed which would indicate any typewriter other than Q1054 was used in the preparation of this questioned typewriting.

Specimens Q1011 and Q1012 (pieces of rope) are being retained in the Laboratory for possible future comparisons. Debris from the Q1054 typewriter is also being retained.

For your assistance, significant similarities were observed in comparing the ~~Q1055~~ signature on Q1055 with the available purported known writing of EMILY HARRIS, K5, K6, K8, K9, and K20, which indicates this signature may have been prepared by her. It will be necessary to have additional voluminous writing by HARRIS before a more adequate comparison can be made. Also it should be noted that the available writing of HARRIS does not contain hand printing for comparison with questioned hand printing on Q1055 and on other items submitted in these cases.

Nothing of particular significance was observed in comparing the questioned writing on Q1055 with comparable known or purported known writing of other individuals submitted in these cases.

Although the test of the Q1076 tape is extremely short, spectrographic (voiceprint) and aural examination of the unknown voice revealed a lack of similarity with voices of SLA members on previous tapes.

CHW:chw

The use of the name "Patricia Hearst" rather than "Tania" and the lack of revolutionary rhetoric or personal identification common in other SLA tapes, tend to substantiate the conclusion that the Q1076 tape has no direct connection with earlier SLA tapes.

Viewing of the submitted material which included Q1088-Q1104 using ultraviolet and infrared light sources did not enhance their legibility.

The submitted books, Q1088, Q1089 and Q1090, were not found to contain any writing of significance. The limited notations in these books pertain to comments concerning cooking and were too limited for identification purposes.

No laboratory report is being made concerning Q1513 through Q1517.

Some similarity was observed in comparing the ~~RAY~~ signatures on Q1518 with the ~~DELGADO~~ signatures on Q1513 through Q1516, previously submitted. It will be necessary to have writing by ~~RAY~~ comparable to the questioned writing, before a more adequate comparison can be made.

Although a definite conclusion was not reached whether any of the previously submitted questioned writing was prepared by ANGELA ATWOOD, K41, significant similarities observed indicate that the "Angela Atwood" signatures on Q146 through Q149 (previously submitted material pertaining to ATWOOD's employment at Dave's Great Electric Underground) was probably written by ATWOOD, K41.

As of 5/30/74, San Francisco was requested to continue its efforts to obtain additional handwriting and hand printing of all suspects and subjects in this case for comparison with unidentified questioned writing.

- Q996 Envelope postmarked "BROOKLYN, NY 112 PM 22 APR 1974," bearing handwritten address "Randolph Hearst Foundation 959-8th Ave New York City," accompanying envelope bearing handwritten message beginning "This is a ...," and accompanying two-page handwritten message beginning "As one human ...," and ending on last page "see too well!"
- Q997 Envelope postmarked "U.S. POSTAL SERVICE GA 300 AM APR 11 1974," bearing typewritten address "The Hearst Foundation 959 8th Avenue New York, New York 10019," and accompanying two-page typewritten letter beginning "It is very difficult ...," second page beginning "around propositioning ...," signed [REDACTED]

Result of examination:

Q996 and Q997 were not associated with material maintained in the Anonymous Letter File. Copies have been added thereto.

The typewriter used to prepare Q997 was not used to prepare the typewriting on other items previously submitted in this case or in case captioned "SYMBLONESE LIBERATION ARMY (SLA) EM".

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the questioned writing on Q996 and Q997 was prepared by any of the writers of unidentified questioned writing, the known writing or purported known writing on items previously submitted in this case and in the SLA case, due to the lack of sufficiently comparable writing and the presence of unexplained variations. However, nothing of significance was observed in comparing the questioned writing on Q996 and Q997 with comparable writing on other items previously submitted in this case and in the SLA case.

The typewriting on Q997 corresponds to Laboratory standards for an IBM pica style of type, spaced ten characters per horizontal inch. Each sheet of the two-page typewritten letter included in Q997 bears the watermark "ERASABLE BOND 25% COTTON FIBER". This watermark is registered to Kimberly-Clark Corporation, Neenah, Wisconsin. The other submitted items contain no watermarks. The submitted items contain no indented writing of significance or other characteristics to aid in definitely determining the sources of the submitted items. A ten cent U.S. Postal Service stamp, torn from a roll of stamps, is affixed to the envelope portion of Q996. Two ten cent U.S. Postal Service stamps, torn from a roll of stamps, are affixed to the envelope portion of Q997.

The submitted evidence, which has been photographed, is attached for New York.

by [REDACTED] MR 7 Date dictated 5/1/74

My Dear [REDACTED]

The time has come to speak of realities instead of the banal futilities put forth by [REDACTED] Mr. Weed.

[REDACTED] Tania, is not only a truly great revolutionary, but indeed a brave woman who is struggling to free us all in the common bond that is subject to all who toil under the martial powers of the Nixon junta.

For too long America has shoved down the throat of the Third World her powerful mandates thus injuring forever any trust within the Third World.

In effect this government must be overthrown by the actions of brave free spirits such as Tania.

Why you refuse to aide her is understandable.

[REDACTED] and all the majesty it covers with it. But it is exactly that mansion which must fall first in the line of succession.

And the Heuret Family, by realizing its potential for maneuvering events could very easily bring about social change in California.

But the trouble is that your family understands the power vested in itself all too well and that power is to re-dedicate the proposition of the status quo.

Hence it became imperative that a wing of the Greater World Socialist Alliance via a vis the SLA to enlist in its quarters a genuine heiress who, galvanized with a death wish, could, in fact, effect a coup.

That in effect is what Tania did!

Now we must wait out the final steps which unfortunately could prove extremely tragic. The possible assassination of Steven Weed. Executions of various leftist leaders who led their followers down the path of deceit and disillusion.

Tania wants nothing less than a vanguard unit to cleanse the New Left movement and then to smash the state.

Queen Tania has placed upon our shoulders the responsibility of carrying out the resurgence of rebellious past — the Ben Bella Revolution, the Acheh Revolution, the Torres Revolt, and the combined efforts of our dear departed comrades Camilo Cienfuegos and Patrice Lumumba.

Queen Tania has ordered us to fall behind the honor and dignity of men like Abdel Hakim Amer and the brave soldiers of the Palestinian Underground Movement.

It is her hope — and ours — that those who fight under the flag of Revolution will live to ~~see~~^{see} the day when our love and the love of our children will transcend the institutional monarchies which inhabit our Earth.

For those units shall belong to the people and the people will no longer be compelled to accept the silly rhetoric of hack politicians owned by the money lords.

To Queen Tania — our leader and guiding spirit, we dedicate our lives to her cause.

When something runs amiss to the point of mere embarrassment a revolution should not falter. It falters only because of a weak link in the chain of command.

To our brothers and sisters in American concentration centers, we say:

— Vive la Tania —
— Together in Victory —

And lastly, [redacted], to you [redacted] we say that if ever [redacted] needed you [redacted] needs you now.

The dangerous waters which will engulf her engulf all of us — for as Yasser Arafat said: "A true revolution touches all!"

~ Long live the Memory of Presidente Allende ~

Ave. (Item #F5K)

Q1054 Sears Electric 10 Typewriter serial #S6SB103992 in carrying case (Item #F8)

Result of examination:

Q1003

The carbon paper in Q1003 bears a price tag reading 4 HX Longs .37".

Observed in five of the sheets of carbon paper was typewriting corresponding to the text of the typewriting on Q163 through Q171, Q178 and Q183. previously submitted in this case; however, due to overtyping on these sheets of carbon paper, the entire text of the typewriting thereon could not be determined.

Two of the sheets of carbon paper in Q1003 contain typewriting consisting of apparent poetry and were not associated with the text of any items previously submitted in this case, case captioned "SYLIONESE LIBERATION ARMY (SLA) EXTREMIST MATTERS" or case captioned "AUGUST SEVENTH GUERRILLA MOVEMENT (ASGM) EXTREMIST MATTERS".

Photographs of the submitted sheets of carbon paper are enclosed for the assistance of the San Francisco Office.

Q1004

One piece of the Q1004 papers bears indented writing which appears to read "99" with the notation "Three 151" under it. A side lighting photograph of this indented writing is enclosed for the San Francisco Office. One of the sheets of the Q1004 papers bears a partial watermark corresponding to the watermark "NEENAH BOND 25% COTTON FIBER," which is registered to the Neenah Paper Company, Neenah, Wisconsin.
The remaining piece of the Q1004 paper bears indistinguishable apparent carbon impressions.

Q1005

The Q1005 piece of paper bears indented typewriting. This indented typewriting is similar in text, but not exactly the same as the typewriting on Q163, previously submitted in this case. A photograph of this indented typewriting, clearly readable, is also attached for the San Francisco Office.

Q1006

The Q1006 piece of paper bears apparent indistinguishable carbon impressions.

Q1007 - Q1010

The conclusion was reached that the written notation on Q1009 was prepared by NANCY LING PERRY, purported writer of Kc4, K10, K13, K22 and K31, previously submitted in this case, and K4, K7 and Kell in the SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY case.

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the remaining questioned writing on the items submitted was prepared by any of the writers of the unidentified questioned writing, the known writing or purported known writing on items previously submitted in this case, the SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY case or the AUGUST SEVENTH GUERRILLA MOVEMENT case. However, similarities were observed in comparing the written notation on Q1007 with available writing of NANCY LING PERRY, mentioned above.

The Q1007 through Q1010 envelopes are similar in observable characteristics to the manila envelopes Q45, Q48, Q63 and Q172, previously submitted in this case.

Some indented written notations were observed on the Q1007 through Q1010 envelopes. However, this indented writing is too indistinct to read. Photographs of this indented writing are enclosed for the assistance of the San Francisco Office.

Q1054

The questioned typewriting on Q20 through Q23, Q32 through Q39, Q163 through Q171, Q178 through Q181, Q183 and Q991, previously submitted in this case, and the questioned typewriting on Q29, previously submitted by the Acting Chief of Police, Oakland, California, in the SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY case are the same style of type and bear characteristics in common with samples made from the Q1054 typewriter, which indicates that the Q1054 typewriter may have been used in the preparation of this questioned typewriting; although, due to the lack of a sufficient number of individual identifying characteristics, a definite conclusion was not reached.

The questioned typewriting on Q147, previously submitted in this case, on Q28, previously submitted in the SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY case, and on Q16 and Q17, previously submitted in the AUGUST SEVENTH GUERRILLA MOVEMENT case, is a similar style of type to the typewriting samples made from Q1054,; however, due to the indistinct nature of the previously submitted copies and the lack of a sufficient number of individual indentifying characteristics, a definite conclusion was not reached whether this questioned typewriting was prepared by the Q1054 typewriter.

The typewriter ribbon on Q1054 contains too much overstriking of characters to determine the text of the typewriting thereon.

A white sheet of paper was found in the typewriter case to Q1054. This sheet of paper bears the watermark: "NEENAH BOND-25% COTTON FIBER," registered to the Neenah Paper Company, Neenah, Wisconsin.

Debris was recovered from the Q1054 typewriter and typewriter case. This debris is being examined and will be reported on separately.

The submitted evidence is being returned separately with results of the firearms, microscopic analysis and fingerprint examinations. Appropriate photographs were made.

Result of examination:

The Q1011 and Q1012 pieces of rope are different in composition, construction and diameter from the previously submitted pieces of rope (specimens Q3 and Q4, PC-K5225 PV J. 100). One end of each piece of rope in Q1011 and Q1012 has a loop formed with a single bowline. The loops in Q3 and Q4 were formed by bending the end of the rope back and lashing it in place. The ends of three pieces of rope in Q1011 and the three pieces in Q1012 have been lashed with white cord. Specimen Q4 and one piece of rope in Q3 were lashed with brown cord. The other piece of cord in Q3 was lashed with black cord. The lengths of the pieces of rope in Q1011 and Q1012 range from about 6' to 10' and all are about 1/4" in diameter. The purpose for which Q1011 and Q1012 was intended is not known.

Deposits of black spray enamel noted on specimens Q1011 and Q1012 lack sufficient identifying characteristics to specifically associate this enamel with a particular source or origin. The black spray enamel deposits on the rubber bands of one piece of rope in Q1011 and of two pieces of rope in Q1012 are suitable for limited comparison purposes should a suspect source be located.

Debris from the Q1054 typewriter and from the typewriter case included blond and brown Caucasian head hairs, a dark brown Negroid head hair, black hairs and white hairs of cat origin and fibers of various types and colors.

The space bar of the typewriter has been replaced with a piece of softwood which measures 1/4" x 3/4" x 7 3/16". Several shavings of similar wood were found in the typewriter and in the typewriter case.

Date of transcription 4/23/741

At approximately 6:45 p.m., while SA [REDACTED] was interviewing [REDACTED] in the office of the Park Predigio Sporting Goods Store, 152 Clement, [REDACTED] JOYCE MARIE HALVERSON entered the store carrying a paper bag which contained .30 caliber carbine ammunition. She indicated to [REDACTED] that she wished to exchange the ammunition for 30-06. [REDACTED] proceeded to figure the price of the original purchase and the amount of 30-06 ammunition HALVERSON would receive. He then gave HALVERSON nine boxes of Winchester Western 30-06 ammunition in exchange for 270 rounds of .30 caliber carbine ammunition, which HALVERSON had previously purchased in the store.

The above incident was heard by SA [REDACTED] from the office of the store and immediately upon HALVERSON's departure, [REDACTED] advised the individual was identical with the person he had previously seen that day and identified as JOYCE HALVERSON.

[REDACTED] then provided the 270 rounds of .30 caliber carbine ammunition which HALVERSON purchased April 4, 1974, and returned April 18, 1974. This consists of the following:

100 rounds of Winchester
(two boxes, 50 rounds each)

120 rounds of Norma ammunition
(six boxes, 20 rounds each)

50 rounds of Browning
(one box)

CARTRIDGES FROM PARK PRESIDIO SPORTING GOODS STORE:

Q1107-Q1206 100 cartridges in two "Winchester" boxes
Q1207-Q1256 50 cartridges from "Browning" box
Q1257-Q1376 120 cartridges in six "Norma" boxes

Result of examination:

The results of the requested latent fingerprint, document and rope examinations are being reported separately.

Specimens Q1013 through Q1038 are .38 Special caliber cartridge cases. Specimens Q1013 through Q1029 and Q1031 through Q1037 were identified as having been fired in a single weapon.
The firing pin impressions present in the primers of the Q1030 and Q1038 cartridge cases differ from those present in the other cartridge cases. Therefore, the Q1030 and Q1038 cartridge cases could not be associated with each other or the weapon represented by the other cartridge cases. Specimens Q1013 through Q1038 appear to have been reloaded.

Specimens Q1039 through Q1045 are .30 Carbine caliber cartridge cases. The primers of the Q1042, Q1043 and Q1045 cartridge cases have not been fired and bear no distinct firing pin impressions. Microscopic markings present on these three cartridge cases (Q1042, Q1043 and Q1045) were identified as having been produced by a single source. Although the specific source cannot be determined, these markings could have been produced by a reloading tool or the mechanism of a weapon.
Specimens Q1039 and Q1044 were identified as having been fired in a single weapon. Due to a lack of corresponding microscopic marks, no conclusion could be reached as to whether the Q1040 and Q1041 cartridge cases were fired in the same weapon.

Nothing was found to indicate that the Q1039 through Q1045 cartridge cases were fired by or loaded into and extracted from the same weapon as any of the .30 Carbine caliber cartridges and cartridge cases previously submitted in this case. However, marks on the primer of the Q1045 cartridge case were identified as having been produced by the same source which produced marks on the primers of the Q197 and Q199 cartridge cases and the Q206 cartridge recovered inside the Hibernia Bank. Although the specific source cannot be determined, these markings are typical of reloading marks produced during the seating of a primer.

The headstamp "LC 52" present on specimens Q1041, Q1043 and Q1045, as well as the "LC 5" and "LC 53" headstamps present on the Q1042 and Q1044 cartridge cases indicate these cartridge cases were originally manufactured for military use by the Lake City Ordnance Plant, Independence, Missouri. Specimen Q1039 bears a "PC 42" headstamp which indicates Peters Cartridge Company, Kings Mill, Ohio, manufacture. The Q1040 cartridge case bears a "Frontier 30 Carbine" headstamp which indicates commercial manufacture by the Frontier Cartridge Company, Grand Island, Nebraska.

Specimen Q1046 is a 9mm Luger (9mm Parabellum) cartridge case of Remington-Peters manufacture. Specimens Q1047 and Q1048 are .380 Auto caliber cartridge cases of Super Vel manufacture. Marks on the rims of specimens Q1047 and Q1048 were identified as having been produced by a single unknown source. Although specimens Q1046 through Q1048 do not appear to have been fired, the centers of the primers appear to have been punched out by something other than the firing pin of a weapon.

Specimens Q1049 through Q1052 are unfired .22 Long or .22 Long Rifle caliber cartridge cases. Specimens Q1053 is an unfired .22 Long Rifle caliber brass-coated lead bullet. Specimens Q1049 through Q1053 bear no marks of value for identification with a weapon.

Specimens Q1107 through Q1376 consist of nine boxes containing 270 .30 Carbine caliber cartridges. Nothing was found to indicate that any of these cartridges were loaded into or extracted from a weapon.

Specimens Q1107 through Q1206 bear a "W-W 30 Carbine" headstamp indicating Winchester-Western manufacture. These cartridges have been loaded with 110-grain copper-jacketed "hollow soft point" bullets. Specimens Q1207 through Q1256 bear a "Browning 30 Carbine" headstamp indicating Browning Arms Company manufacture. These cartridges have been loaded with 110-grain, copper-jacketed, soft point bullets. Specimens Q1257 through Q1376 bear a "Norma U. S. 30" headstamp indicating Norma Projektilfabrik, Amotfors, Sweden, manufacture. These cartridges have been loaded with 110-grain, steel-jacketed, soft point bullets.

All of the above-listed specimens are being retained in the Laboratory for future comparison purposes.

Qc1077 Photocopy of postcard postmarked "SHEPHERDSTOWN, WV 26443 MAY 6 AM 1974," bearing handwritten message beginning "Hi: It is ..."

Result of examination:

Qc1077 was not associated with material maintained in the Anonymous Letter File. Copies have been added thereto.

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the questioned writing on Qc1077 was prepared by PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST, purported writer of K32, due to the presence of unexplained handwriting characteristics, the indistinct nature of the submitted photocopy and the lack of sufficiently comparable writing. However, handwriting differences were observed in this comparison which indicates that the questioned handwriting on Qc1077 was probably not prepared by PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST.

Qc1077 is retained.

- Qc1087 Two photographs of hand printed message on wall of apartment beginning "There are a ..."

Result of examination:

The conclusion was reached that the majority of the questioned writing on Q1078 was prepared by NANCY LING PERRY, purported writer of Kc4, K10, K13, K22 and K31.

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the questioned writing on Q1079 through Qc1087 was prepared by any of the writers of known or purported known writing on items submitted in this case and in case captioned "SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY (SLA) EM" due to the lack of distinctive writing characteristics, the lack of sufficiently comparable writing and the presence of unexplained variations, however, some handwriting similarities were observed in comparing the written notation "Patria D Muerte Vinceremos Tania" on Qc1086 with the purported writing of PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST on K32 which indicates this notation may have been written by HEARST. Also, handwriting similarities were observed in comparing the written notation "Freedom is the will of life Cin" on Qc1086 with purported writing of DONALD DAVID DE FREEZE, K12, K21, K24 and K29, previously submitted in this case, which indicates this notation may have been prepared by DE FREEZE.

A definite conclusion was not reached as to the number of writers involved in the preparation of the questioned writing on the submitted items due to the lack of sufficiently comparable writing, the presence of unexplained variations and the lack of significant writing characteristics.

Some indented writing was observed on Q1079, however, this indented writing was not legible.

Q1078 is being returned under separate cover. Q1079 is being temporarily retained. Qc1080 through Qc1087 are retained. Appropriate photographs were made.

Date 5/3/74

During a search of the bathroom at Apartment 6, 1827 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, it was observed that the bathtub was nearly filled with a dark colored, watery fluid with small pieces of vegetation floating on top.

A specimen of this fluid and floating matter was obtained from the surface and identified as H-1.

The bathtub was then emptied by carefully dipping of the top with a container.

A second specimen of the fluid was then obtained from the sediment remaining in the bathtub and identified as H-2.

In addition, nine keys were found on the bottom of the tub. They were enclosed in a plastic envelope and identified as H-28.

Finally, the bottom of the tub was found to contain approximately one-half gallon of small pieces of torn and cut scraps of paper and plastic cards. Included in this material were:

- (1) small cut pieces of orange-colored plastic card appearing to be from a J. C. Penny credit card
- (2) small cut pieces of red, blue, and white colored plastic card appearing to be from a Macy's credit card
- (3) small cut pieces of gray, blue, and white colored plastic card appearing to be from an Arco credit card
- (4) small cut pieces of white and blue colored plastic card appearing to be from a Kaiser Hospital card

- (5) small cut pieces from what appears to be a standard colored California drivers license
- (6) numerous other small pieces of paper with printing, penciled lines, and drawings

All of the above pieces of torn and cut paper and plastic cards were recovered and retained and removed to the San Francisco Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and turned over to Special Agent [REDACTED]

Date of transcription 5/9/74

Pursuant to investigation at 1827 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, based on information that an abandoned residence of the Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA) had been discovered at that address, SA [REDACTED] proceeded to that location where he contacted [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] that he had removed a large quantity of thoroughly soaked material from the bathtub in Apartment 6, and had placed it in a garbage can, which garbage can was located on the west side of the apartment building in the closed alley-way.

[REDACTED] directed [REDACTED] to the alley-way and pointed out the garbage can containing the soaked material which he had previously discussed, and he advised that it was in the same condition as that in which he had earlier placed it.

SA [REDACTED], assisted by SA [REDACTED] removed this wet material from the garbage can and transported it to FBI, San Francisco Office space, where the material (below listed) was spread out piece by piece to dry in a secured portion of FBI, San Francisco Office space. This recovery and spreading of the material occurred starting at approximately 3:00 PM on May 2, 1974.

On May 3, 1974, [REDACTED] brought to the secured space in FBI, San Francisco Office, a smaller quantity of material which he had obtained from the bathtub in the same apartment. The material furnished by SA [REDACTED] having come from the same bathtub and being of the same material, was taken into the custody of SA [REDACTED] and handled in exactly the same manner as the material previously obtained from the garbage can.

The following items were recovered:

- Q1100 Three pieces of newspaper each bearing written notation "2/21" (Item #115)
- Q1101 Numerous pieces of paper apparently from a small notebook or notebooks bearing writing and numerals (Items #116, 117, 124)
- Q1102 Pieces of cut up California driver's license of ~~COOPER~~ ~~COOPER~~ (Item #137)
- Q1103 Torn pieces of Denny's Restaurant paper placemat bearing writing and hand drawn map (Item #128)
- Q1104 Light brown cap (Item #140)

Result of examination:

The small torn and/or cut pieces of paper contained in Q1094, Q1096 and Q1101 were either pieced back together or placed with common pieces of paper, where possible, and were photographed. In Q1094 and Q1096, the common pieces were placed together and subnumbered by small alphabetical designations such as Q1094a, Q1094b, etc. Photographs of these items so designated are attached.

The conclusion was reached that the questioned ink writing on Q1094h, Q1094o and the majority of the questioned writing on Q1094y, were prepared by CAMILLA HALL, purported writer of items K23, K26, K27 and K33 through K36, previously submitted.

The conclusion was reached that the questioned writing on Q1094n was prepared by NANCY LING PERRY, purported writer of Kc4, K10, K13, K22 and K31, previously submitted.

The conclusion was reached that the questioned writing on the sides of the Q1096 pieces of paper beginning "cars pick up ..." and "bags ropes ..." was prepared by PATRICIA MICHELLE SOLTYSIK, purported writer of K7, K28 and Kc30, previously submitted.

The conclusion was reached that the majority of the questioned writing on the Q1096 pieces of paper beginning "Hospital parking ..." and "defend killing ..." was prepared by DONALD DAVID DE FREEZE, purported writer of K12, K21, K24 and K29, previously submitted.

The conclusion was reached that the questioned writing on both sides of the two Q1101 pieces of paper listing items numbered one through twenty-one under the caption "Pad", was prepared by EMILY HARRIS, purported writer of K5, K6, K8, K9, K20 and K37, previously submitted.

No conclusion was reached whether any of the remaining questioned writing on items submitted was prepared by any of the writers of known writing or purported known writing submitted in this case or in case captioned "SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY (SLA) EM", due to the presence of unexplained handwriting characteristics, unexplained variations, the lack of sufficiently comparable writing and the limited nature of some of the questioned writing. However, some writing similarities were observed in comparing the following items which indicates the person named may have prepared the questioned writing mentioned:

Similarities were observed in comparing the questioned small ink writing on Q1094i, portions of the questioned writing of Q1094j and Q1094k, with available purported writing of CAMILLA HALL. Also, similarities were observed in comparing the available purported writing of CAMILLA HALL with the "Janet Cooper" signatures on Q207, Q208, Q216 and Q983, previously submitted, although, due to the presence of a few unexplained variations, a definite conclusion was not reached in this regard.

Similarities were observed in comparing portions of the questioned writing on Q1094t with the purported writing of NANCY LING PERRY.

Similarities were observed in comparing portions of the questioned writing on Q1094l, Q1094m, Q1094o, Q1094p, Q1094q, Q1094r, Q1094t, Q1094x, the notation on one piece of the Q1096c paper reading "Serving rehem purple skirt repair velvet quilt" and the notation on the piece of paper beginning "14th & Market ..." with purported writing of PATRICIA MICHELLE SOLTYSIK.

Similarities were observed in comparing the questioned writing on Q1096b and portions of the questioned writing on Q1096c with purported writing of DONALD DAVID DE FREEZE.

Similarities were observed in portions of the questioned writing on Q1094d with purported writing of EMILY HARRIS. Also, handwriting similarities were observed in comparing the purported writing of EMILY HARRIS with the "Hamilton" signature on Q1055, previously submitted, although, due to the presence of unexplained variations, a definite conclusion was not reached in this regard.

Portions of the typewriting on Q1094ee and Q1094gg is a similar style and size as samples made from the Q1054 typewriter, although, due to the poor nature of the submitted typewriting and the lack of a sufficient number of individual identifying characteristics, a definite conclusion was not reached whether the Q1094ee and Q1094gg typewriting was prepared by the Q1054 typewriter.

Specimen Q1095 consists of a small quantity of oily plant material with the odor of olive oil. The plant material appears to be a seasoning similar to oregano. Oily particles of similar plant material were recovered from the Q1104 cap.

Specimen Q1104 is a tan knitted cap composed of woolen fibers, synthetic fibers and rabbit hair. The cap has a label which reads "Made in Italy for Joseph Magnin". One dark brown filament similar to filaments used as synthetic hair in wigs was found in the cap. No human hairs were found.

Specimen Q1099 is a black hair pin three inches long. Nothing of apparent significance was noted about the hair pin.

The submitted evidence is being returned separately. Photographs were made. Appropriate photographs of the submitted evidence are enclosed.

Photographs of Hand Printing on Apartment Wall
Qc1377 - Qc1379

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

In connection with the search of Apartment 6 at 1827 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, photographs were made of the premises in the period shortly after the discovery was made that the apartment was formerly a Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA) "safe house".

A check of the apartment, which is an efficiency type consisting of a front room, originally constructed so that a hide-a-bed could be folded into an adjoining closet, additionally consists of a bathroom and a kitchen-dining area, the latter being separated by some built-in cabinets. The apartment has one entry way which exits onto the hallway on the second floor of the building. There is a fire escape off the front window.

The front door, in addition to having two key locks, additionally had two chain locks on the inside. Keys were obtained for Apartment 6 as well as for the front door apartment building and copies of these keys were made and were thereafter checked and found to open these doors.

The following writings appeared on the various walls in Apartment 6 at 1827 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco:

Hand printed with a felt pen, green-blue in color, on the north area of the east wall of the front room was:

"Our Bruised Knuckles
Reflect the Hand-Me down Commitment of War"

Hand printed in the middle of the east wall front room:

Motor Vehicle Documents from Golden Gate Avenue Garage, 64 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, Q1513-Q1516

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date May 16, 1974

[REDACTED] San Francisco, telephone number [REDACTED] of Golden Gate Avenue Garage, 64 Golden Gate Avenue, was advised of the identities of the interviewing agents, and that he was being interviewed concerning his knowledge of a 1970 red and white Volkswagen Bus bearing California Temporary Sticker Number 5303850, which, this date, had apparently been used in an armed robbery in Southern California.

[REDACTED] stated that on May 6, 1974, he had sold this vehicle to a Negro male who identified himself as WICKY DELGADO. He stated that he had had this vehicle for approximately four months prior to the sale to DELGADO and had originally purchased it from Household Finance Corporation in Canada who had obtained the car as a repossession.

[REDACTED] stated that he had advertised the sale of this vehicle in the San Francisco flea market newspaper by the name of "Progress" and had listed both his home and garage telephone numbers in the advertisement. He stated that on approximately May 5, 1974, he received a telephone call from a male who indicated he was interested in purchasing the vehicle and subsequently made an appointment with the caller to meet him at his place of business at 12:30 p.m. on May 6, 1974. [REDACTED] stated that by 12:30 p.m. on May 6, 1974, the caller had not arrived so he left for lunch. When he returned with his wife approximately one hour later, the individual, later identified to him as DELGADO, was waiting there and, according to his employer, [REDACTED] DELGADO had been waiting approximately one hour for him to return.

[REDACTED] stated that DELGADO was accompanied by a Negro female and a female child approximately three years of age.

[REDACTED] stated that he then took DELGADO, the Negro female, and the child for a test drive, and both he and DELGADO drove the vehicle. Following the test drive, he and DELGADO argued about the price of the vehicle and finally settled on a a figure of $1000. Cost of the license for the vehicle was $32.00, and sales tax amounted to $65.00. Total price, therefore, was $1,097.00.

[REDACTED] stated that DELGADO paid for the vehicle in cash of small denominations, the largest being a $20 bill. When paying, he produced a stack of bills in a rubber band which had a small piece of paper on top which indicated an amount of $1,100. [REDACTED] further indicated that DELGADO had in his possession a dark, vinyl-type briefcase, approximately 14" by 16" in size. The briefcase had a handle and a lock, and DELGADO always carried this briefcase everywhere he went, including the time he went to the restroom.

[REDACTED] described the Volkswagen Bus as having a white top, red bottom, and lavender curtains which were not put up on the windows but were laying inside the vehicle. [REDACTED] indicated that his records reflect that the mileage on the Volkswagen Bus at the time of sale was 51,700 miles. He also indicated that one of the seats of the vehicle was not attached, and he made an appointment with DELGADO for the following day to have this seat attached. He stated that he could not attach it on the date of purchase because he did not have the proper brackets.

Following the purchase of the vehicle, the appropriate Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) registration papers were filled out.

[REDACTED] furnished the following documents which are being retained as evidence:

Report of Sale, Used Vehicle, No. 5303850 which contains a signature of RICKY DELGADO;

Application for Registration of Non-Resident Vehicle which contains a signature of RICKY DELGADO;

DELGADO.

SF 7-855
GBD:smg/tlp

Motor Vehicle Purchase Order and Federal Disclosure Statement which contains the signature of KEY GELGADO.

A carbon copy of Golden Gate Avenue Garage receipt which contains the following printing of RECAP OF:

"5/6/74

"San Francisco, California 94117."

The remaining items were either filled out by his office or the Department of Motor Vehicles in Sacramento, California, and pertain to the sales record of the vehicle:

Dealer Notice, Used Vehicle, No. 5303850;

Suspense Receipt No. ST051419 (blue copy and pink copy);

Bill of Sale with the seller being Household Finance Corporation;

Certificate of Compliance - Motor Vehicle Pollution Control dated "2/14/74";

"Certificat D'immatriculation, Quebec, 1973" for license number 8K-7843.

Report of Deposit Fees dated May 15, 1974;

Temporary Operating Permit dated May 14, 1974.

██████████ stated that DELGADO was waiting in a faded light blue 1964 to 1966 four-door Buick with last year's temporary plates (green colored) on the rear window when he arrived at his garage on May 6, 1974.

Following the purchase of the red and white Volkswagen, DELGADO indicated he would return the next day to get the seat attached, however, the next day, he telephoned [REDACTED] and indicated he could not make it that day but would come the next day. [REDACTED] stated that DELGADO never did return to have the seat attached in the red Volkswagen.

GDD:smg/tlp

[REDACTED] further indicated that DELGADO furnished his address as [REDACTED] San Francisco, but when he learned that he would have to wait for DMV to mail the "pink slip", he requested that the plates and pink slip be mailed to the Golden Gate Garage and he would pick them up there. [REDACTED] stated that DELGADO wanted the plates mailed to the Golden Gate Garage because he was moving to San Jose the following day and would no longer be living at the Fillmore Street address.

[REDACTED] recalled that while haggling for the price of the vehicle, DELGADO stated he would be driving the vehicle to the World's Fair in Spokane, Washington. DELGADO also made the comment that he had once been in Germany and knew that German cars were well made.

[REDACTED] described DELGADO as follows:

Sex	Male
Race	Negro
Height	5'10" to 6'
Build	Slender - medium
Weight	175
Age	35
Facial hair	None
Hair	Black, close cut, kinky
Complexion	Medium chocolate
Voice	Spoke with some sort of "garbled accent"
Clothing	Dark slacks, tweed brown sportcoat, brown shirt, brown tie

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 5/17/74

[REDACTED] Ben Loyd's World Motors, 677 Valencia, [REDACTED] Prior to any questioning, [REDACTED] was apprised of the official identities of the interviewing Agents and was advised that this inquiry concerned the sale of a vehicle that had been assigned a temporary California license, 5306393. [REDACTED] voluntarily furnished the following information:

On May 7, 1974, at World Motors, 677 Valencia, [REDACTED] was approached by a Negro male desiring to purchase a Volkswagen van with cash. [REDACTED] identified this Negro male as ALI BAY (also BAZ) whom [REDACTED] has known for approximately four years. BAY had frequented World Motors sporadically during that period and was considered by [REDACTED] constant visitor and a general nuisance. BAY seldom was serious in his inquiries regarding car prices and always appeared to be "shopping around." BAY was generally ignored by the employees of World Motors as he was not considered a serious buyer.

[REDACTED] believed that BAY was self-employed. At all times, BAY carried with him a brown, leather zippered briefcase in which BAY carried promotion samples of various cosmetics. In this sense, [REDACTED] inferred that BAY was in sales work.

On this date, however, BAY approached [REDACTED] and without the slightest hesitation, stated that he desired to pay cash for an ivory over coral red 1964 Volkswagen van. This van had scotch-plaid curtains. Initially, [REDACTED] gave little credence to this offer. BAY, however, proceeded to open his brown, leather briefcase and removed a "large wad" of $20 bills bound with a rubberband. [REDACTED] observed a large quantity of $20 bills in this briefcase and estimated their total value at $3,000. This money was wedged between a folded newspaper inside of BAY's briefcase. At this precise moment, [REDACTED] entered the office and finalized the details of the sale. [REDACTED] expressed surprise at BAY's sudden acquisition of wealth and asked BAY if he had robbed a bank. To this comment, BAY, smiled, but made no answer. As [redacted] prepared the necessary papers, BAY commented that this vehicle was intended as a present for a cousin and was to be registered in his cousin's name, "ROBERTO BAY, 911 Fillmore, San Francisco." The notice of sale or transfer and the motor vehicle purchase order were then drawn up by [redacted] and executed by ALI BAY in the name "ROBERTO BAY, 911 Fillmore, San Francisco."

[redacted] stated that at that time he was somewhat suspicious of BAY's conduct as BAY repeatedly glanced out the window of the office and in general acted nervously. Additionally, BAY refused to take a credit on a $50 deposit that BAY had placed on one of his prior visits.

Upon completion of this transaction, [redacted] suggested that [redacted] drive BAY's personal vehicle to his residence as BAY indicated a desire to drive the Volkswagen from the lot. BAY declined this offer and left the lot driving the Volkswagen van. BAY returned approximately one-half hour later, allegedly after he had driven this vehicle to his cousin's home. BAY was then advised by [redacted] that an additional charge of approximately $5 was owed due to a miscomputation on the taxes of the vehicle. BAY met this request with difficulty as he was no longer carrying the briefcase and extracted this amount from his wallet.

BAY then drove off in a four-door Buick LaSabre faded light blue, possibly a 1962 model, and was not heard from again by [redacted] until May 16, 1974. At that time BAY telephonically contacted [redacted] to inquire about purchasing an older model white Dodge Dart that was at that time displayed in the lot of World Motors. During the course of this conversation, [redacted] advised BAY that the license plate on this vehicle, California [redacted], would have to be returned and relinquished as this vehicle required commercial plates by law. BAY stated that he could not immediately rectify this situation as this vehicle was presently "in Oakland." BAY stated that he would rectify the situation at a later, undisclosed date.

Coincidentally, on the same date [redacted] received a letter which [redacted] had originally addressed to ROBERTO BAY, 911 Fillmore, in regard to the required change of plates. This letter was returned to [REDACTED] marked by post office employees "fictitious address."

[REDACTED] furnished the following description of BAY, from personal recollection. [REDACTED] then produced a receipt dated May 22, 1973, which was partial payment for a white, 1964 Ford wagon that BAY had purchased from [REDACTED] about a year prior to this time. [REDACTED] stated that this wagon was the only vehicle that BAY had purchased from [REDACTED] prior to this referenced transaction. [REDACTED] stated that this record was somewhat incomplete, but that he would make an effort to locate more specific records regarding BAY. [REDACTED] then furnished a description of BAY from recollection and the aforementioned receipt.

Name:	ALI BAY (also BAZ)
Address:	636 Gough Street, San Francisco
Telephone:	921-9702
Height:	6 feet 2 inches
Weight:	80 pounds
Hair:	Dark, black
Facial hair:	Small, brushed-type mustache
Clothing:	Frequently wore all black, possibly a Moslem, but does not always wear necktie

[REDACTED] pledged cooperation with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in this matter and advised that in the event that this individual returned, he would immediately contact the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

AGREEMENT

is further understood and agreed:

the order on the reverse side hereof is subject to the following terms and conditions which have been mutually agreed upon:

(1) Upon signature by authorized representative of the Seller, this order shall be conditionally accepted by Seller subject to Seller's approval of Purchaser's credit. In the event Purchaser's credit is not approved by Seller, Purchaser shall return any vehicle delivered by Seller pursuant to this agreement to Seller's place of business within 24 hours after receipt of Seller's notice of disapproval of Purchaser's credit and demand that said vehicle be returned. Purchaser agrees to reimburse Seller for all costs of repair of any damage sustained by said vehicle while in Purchaser's possession or control, excepting therefrom ordinary wear and normal usage. Upon return of said vehicle to Seller, Seller shall refund to Purchaser the amount of any cash deposit paid to Seller by Purchaser, deducting therefrom the cost of repair of damages to vehicle delivered by Seller as set forth above. Seller shall also return to Purchaser any vehicle which may have been traded-in on the order by Purchaser provided that such vehicle has not been previously disposed of by Seller. In the event that such vehicle has been disposed of, Seller shall refund to Purchaser the wholesale cash value of the traded-in vehicle as approved herein by Seller or as listed in the most recently published Kelley Blue Book, or N.A.D.A. Book, whichever shall be the lesser amount.

(2) Verbal promises by the salesman are not valid. The premium or understanding not herein specified in writing are hereby expressly waived.

(3) In the case of a new vehicle or chassis, the printed new vehicle warranty delivered to purchaser with such vehicle or chassis shall apply. If the vehicle sold is for commercial purposes there are no warranties, expressed or implied respecting the merchantability or fitness for purpose unless the same is endorsed herein in writing or is contained in a separate written instrument. If the vehicle sold is to be used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, purchaser has not designated any particular use and has not relied on the Seller to select a vehicle suitable for a particular purpose. In the case of a used vehicle or chassis, the applicability of an existing manufacturer's or dealer's warranty in respect shall be determined solely by the terms of such warranty. All used cars or trucks sold "AS-IS" and without guarantee as to condition, year or model, unless specified in writing.

(4) Dealer does not warrant the correctness of the year of manufacture, or model of said vehicle, in the sale of a used car. Purchaser hereby agrees that he has verified the description of the vehicle to his own satisfaction, and there is no warranty as to the correctness of the description used.

(5) This agreement is not transferable without the consent of the dealer. It is expressly agreed that title in the automobile shall not pass to the purchaser until payment in full shall have been made either in cash, check, or draft given by purchaser, or payment agent to dealer by disbursement, in whole or in part dealer may immediately release possession of the automobile without prior notice or demand and purchaser agrees to pay dealer all costs and damages arising from the use of the automobile or incurred in recovering its possession.

(6) The Purchaser hereby agrees that the dealer will not be held responsible for delay in delivery, or non-compliance with the terms of this order, caused by strikes, riot, war, shutdown at the factories, inability to obtain the car ordered, or any other condition beyond his control. The Purchaser hereby agrees that the price quoted in this order is for immediate delivery, but if the price of the car or accessories or the tax imposed by authorities should be changed by the manufacturer or the government before the car has been delivered to the dealer, this order shall be construed as if the changed price was originally inserted here.

(7a) The Purchaser hereby agrees that the dealer shall in no way be held responsible for any changes in designs or models even though they do not meet the approval of the Purchaser. The Purchaser hereby agrees to take the car as produced by the manufacturer. Purchaser agrees to take delivery (and pay balance due) within 24 hours after being notified that the car is ready for delivery.

(8) In the event that the transaction referred to in this order is not a cash transaction, the Purchaser herein before, at the time of delivery of car and in accordance with the terms and conditions of payment indicated on this order, will execute a Security Agreement.

(9) The Purchaser hereby authorizes placing of the insurance shown on the back of this order. The dealer is authorized to inform the insurance company to issue a Loss Payable Clause to the Seller or his assigns.

(10) The Purchaser hereby guarantees that all statements made by him and set forth in this order and in the reference statement concerning credit information signed at the time of signing this order are true and correct, and that the dealer may accept them as being true representations of existing facts.

(11) The Purchaser does hereby agree to pay all attorney fees and court costs in the event any legal action is necessary to enforce the terms of this agreement.

(12) In the event a used car is to be traded in as part payment of the car purchased, the following trade-in agreement shall govern the transaction:

(a) The Purchaser agrees to deliver to the dealer the car described as "Trade-In" as a trade-in. Trade-in, when received by dealer must be in the same condition including all equipment and accessories as when appraised; if not in same condition, trade-in shall be reappraised.

(b) The Purchaser warrants that he is the lawful owner of same, and that the car is free and clear of all encumbrances except the "payoff" mentioned here, and the Purchaser does further agree to deliver upon demand title papers and ownership certificate properly signed and further guarantees the correctness of the payoff as stated.

(c) In the event that the payoff amount by the Purchaser is not correct and greater than the amount shown on this order, the Purchaser hereby agrees to pay this excess on demand. If the Purchaser is unable to pay this excess on demand, the dealer is hereby permitted to add the excess amount to the Security Agreement, in event the car is financed.

(d) The trade-in allowance shown in this order is the amount that the dealer agrees to allow providing the Purchaser accepts delivery and completes the order at the time agreed upon in accordance with the stipulated terms. In the event of any disagreement over the value of the car traded in, the dealer will not hold for any more than the wholesale market value, as determined by the wholesale figure as shown in the Kelley Blue Book or N.A.D.A. Book, less estimated cost of reconditioning same.

(e) If the used car traded in is not to be delivered to the dealer until delivery of the new car purchased, the used car traded in shall be subject to reappraisal at that time, and such reappraisal value shall determine the allowance made for such car, but if such reappraisal value is lower than the allowance shown on reverse side hereof the Purchaser may, if dissatisfied with such reappraisal value, cancel this order. Such right to cancel, however, is exercised prior to the delivery of the new car to the Purchaser, and surrender the used car to the dealer.

It is noted that the primer and gunpowder portions of this cartridge are missing. The lead core of the bullet is also missing and the nose of the bullet appears to have been hollowed out.

No residues of cyanide were found in the Q1522 cartridge.

Re: HEARNAP

Specimens received 5-31-74

Q1524 Napkin bearing writing

Result of examination:

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the questioned writing on Q1524 was prepared by any of the writers of the unidentified questioned writing, known writing or purported known writing on items previously submitted in this case and in case captioned "SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY (SLA) EM", due to the lack of sufficiently comparable writing and the presence of unexplained variations.

Q1524 is retained.

Re: HEARNAP

Date: June 21, 1974
FBI File No. 7-15200
Lab. No. D-740603060 PF

Specimens received 6-3-74

Q1525 Envelope postmarked "SAN RAFAEL, CA 1B PM 24 MAY 1974," bearing handwritten address [REDACTED] and accompanying typewritten message beginning "I will ..."

Result of examination:

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the questioned writing on Q1525 was prepared by any of the writers of the unidentified questioned writing, the known writing or purported known writing on items previously submitted in this case and in case captioned "SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY (SLA) EM", due to the lack of sufficiently comparable writing and the presence of unexplained variations. However, nothing of particular significance was observed in this comparison.

The typewriting on Q1525 is too limited to classify; however, this typewriting most closely corresponds to Laboratory standards for a Smith-Corona pica style of type, spaced ten characters per horizontal inch. The typewriting on Q63 through Q65, previously submitted in the SLA case, is a similar type style to the typewriting on Q1525; however, a definite conclusion was not reached whether these items were prepared by the same typewriter, due to the lack of a sufficient number of individual identifying characteristics. However, typewriting differences were observed in this comparison. No other items previously submitted in these cases were found to correspond to this style of type.

Q1525, which has been photographed, is attached.

Result of examination:

The conclusion was reached that the questioned writing on Q1557 and the majority of the questioned writing on Q1558 was prepared by CAMILLA HALL, purported writer of K23, K26, K27 and K33 through K36. Also, significant similarities were observed in comparing the word "Industrialists" on Q1563 with the purported writing of HALL which indicates this word was also probably prepared by HALL.

Handwriting similarities were observed in comparing portions of the questioned writing on Q1560, Q1561, Q1562 and the questioned writing on Q1563 except the word "Industrialists" with purported writing of NANCY LING PERRY, Kc4, K10, K13, K22 and K31, which indicates this questioned writing may have been prepared by PERRY; although due to the lack of sufficiently comparable writing and the presence of unexplained variations, a definite conclusion was not reached.

A definite conclusion was not reached whether the remaining questioned writing on items submitted was prepared by any of the writers of the known or purported known writing on items previously submitted in this case and in case captioned "SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY (SLA) EM", due to the lack of sufficiently comparable writing and the presence of unexplained variations.

The typewriting on Q1559 is the same style and bears characteristics in common with samples from the Q1054 typewriter, which indicates the Q1054 typewriter may have been used to prepare the questioned typewriting on Q1559; although, due to the lack of a sufficient number of individual identifying characteristics, a definite conclusion was not reached.

Q1557 and Q1559 contain indented typewriting. Photographs of this indented typewriting are being enclosed for Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The submitted evidence, which has been photographed, is being returned separately.

 Note, Serial # J54015331A, Series Year 1969D.

On 6/21/74, [redacted] advised that at noon, 6/20/74, she purchased a sandwich from a lunch wagon truck at her place of business, [redacted] [redacted], 4435 Simonton, Dallas, Texas. She stated she paid for the sandwich with a $5 bill and received four $1 bills and some change in return. She noted that on one of the $1 bills the following was written: "This is Patty Hearst -- Tell my parents to come to the old park -- They Will Know." She stated she considered this a joke and then put this $1 bill into a change machine at her place of business.

On 6/21/74, the above $1 bill was retrieved from the change machine at [redacted]. On
 6/21/74, [redacted]
 Mesquite, Texas, advised he is employed as a [redacted] truck driver for Industrial Catering Service, and that he works out of the plant located at 801 Easy Street, Garland, Texas. He stated he does not recall seeing a $1 bill with any writing on it on 6/20/74, and

Specimens received 5/3/74

Q1485 One Sony C-60 cassette tape marked "4/4/74 - KTRH, HO, TEX."

Results of Examination:

It was not possible to identify the voice of the unknown male on Q1485 with male voices submitted previously in the Hearnap case.

Considerable low level background noise was noted in those portions of the Q1485 tape containing the unknown male voice. The background noise included a intermittent source consisting of tones at approximately 390, 540, 780 and 1160 hertz, plus additional tones covering wide bands of frequencies. The tones have duration of approximately .35 seconds spaced at .5 second intervals. The specific source of these tones could not be identified.

The Q1485 tape is being returned to your office under separate cover via registered mail.

Hon. Clarence Kelley, Director,
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Kelley:

I would like to take this opportunity to let you know what a fine job your Office and Department has done in the Patricia Hearst kidnapping investigation. You and your entire Department deserve a "well done!"

Even though Miss Hearst has not been found, I know that a lot of man-hours have put into the case and I am also sure that with the continuing investigation going forward that your Office will be successful.

Best regards.

Sincerely yours,

SLA LETTERS SIGNED "SPLASH"

Enclosed for the Bureau are the originals and one xeroxed copy each of letters received in Los Angeles signed "Splash".

One copy of each of these letters is enclosed for Newark and San Francisco.

[REDACTED] Panasonic Television and Radio, 17605 Fabrice Way, San Ramon, California, provided a letter received by the Panasonic office at 1320 West Olympic, Los Angeles, California. The envelope containing this letter is postmarked Lyons, New Jersey, 7/6/74, and is addressed to Panasonic at 1320 West Olympic Boulevard, Los Angeles. Return address on the envelope is "S.L.A." Contained in the envelope was a letter handwritten in red ink addressed to "The Great Gatsby, A Dark E." The letter consists of a nonsensical rhyme which states that PATTY HEARST is not the worst. The letter is signed "SPLASH, V.A.H. Building 53, Lyons, New Jersey 07939."

[REDACTED] Pasadena, California, Police Department, has provided a similar letter received by MORTIMER MATHEWS, Mayor of the city of Pasadena. The envelope containing this letter is postmarked 7/11/74, Lyons, New Jersey. It is written in red ink also and contains approximately the same message. It also is signed "SPLASH" and sets forth the same return address.

Neither [REDACTED] were able to provide any information regarding the sender of these letters. [REDACTED] stated that Pasadena Mayor MATHEWS can never recall having received any correspondence of this type before. [REDACTED] was unable to locate any similar type correspondence in the records of Panasonic Television and Radio, Los Angeles.

The FBI Laboratory is requested to compare these letters with any items previously submitted regarding the HEARNAP investigation which would appear logical. No latent fingerprint examination is being requested nor inclusion in the anonymous letter file since these letters do not contain a threat.

RE CIRCULARIZATION WANTED FLYER #475:

Proposed circularization in line with recommendations by Special Investigative Division upon file review 7/3/74, suggesting notification of all gun and ammunition dealers in the western United States in this case.

Preliminary inquiries with R. L. Polk representative, Detroit, Michigan, concerning captioned circularization to various gun and firearm dealers discovered that available service was on a nationwide basis only with a maximum distribution of 21,863 circulars at a cost of $713.89 plus a $250.00 fee for chessire labeling; total cost $963.89.

Subsequently, [REDACTED], Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF) was contacted and provided valuable assistance in this regard. Through [REDACTED] chessire labels made available to the FBI for all registered firearms dealers in the United States. The ATF listing has the additional capacity of discerning by areas of the country which is most useful. By selecting two of the AFT regions, we will be able to circularize the entire western United States, which includes 17 states.

The matter of affixing chessire labels to the wanted flyer was discussed with [REDACTED] Advertising Distributors of Washington, 10700 Hanna Street, Beltsville, Maryland 20705, who stated the job could be handled promptly for a fee of $4.00 per 1,000, and that he could pick up the flyers as early as Tuesday, 7/23/74. These rates are considerably more favorable than those of R. L. Polk and provide the desired coverage.

RECOMMENDATION:

This memorandum be referred to the Administrative Division for approval of the expenditure of $196.00 for affixing a chessire label to Wanter Flyer #475.

"THE LIBERATION ARMY THAT SAT BY THE DOOR"

A REPORT OF THE CITIZENS RESEARCH AND INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE

Copyright 1974

Citizens Research and Investigation Committee (CRIC)

Based on a book - Cinque the Slave - by Donald Freed and Lake Headley

INFORMATION SUBMITTED IN DEMAND OF AN INDEPENDENT PROSECUTORIAL OR CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRY, WITH FULL POWER OF SUBPOENA, INTO SUPPRESSED MATERIAL EVIDENCE CONCERNING THE "SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY" AND ITS CONNECTIONS WITH:

- 1) THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
- 2) CALIFORNIA ATTORNEY GENERAL EVELLE J. YOUNGER AND CALIFORNIA LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES INCLUDING LAPD, CII, THE ADULT AUTHORITY AND THE DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS.

Further, the obstruction of justice and suppression of evidence by these agencies demands an immediate accounting. The people of California have a constitutional right to know how the Central Intelligence Agency and California law enforcement officers and agencies and prison system have shaped the desperately deranged man who was in their custody, the man known as "Cinque," and his "army," into an instrument of mayhem and violence; and how individual pathology was structured by elements of the State into a scenario of terror.

INVESTIGATIVE STAFF

Citizens Research and Investigation Committee (CRIC) Editor in Charge: Donald Freed, author and researcher, (Executive Action, Agony in New Haven, Inquest, Ed., Glasshouse Tapes).

CRIC representative: Barboura Morris Freed, author and actress. (Oral history, Glasshouse Tapes, "Flight 553: The Watergate Murder?")

Independent Investigative Staff: Lake Headley, former Las Vegas Sherriffs

Department detective (Chief investigator in the Billy Dean Smith Case and the Wounded Knee cases) and his assistants Elizabeth Schmidt and Jeanne Davies.

Contributing Independent Research Groups and Individuals:

- Alexander Hoffman, Elsa Knight Thompson, Mae Brussell, Art Goldberg
- Fifth Estate and CARIC (Washington, D.C.)
- Black Panther Intercommunal News Service (Oakland, California)
- Citizens Committee to Clean Up the Courts (Chicago, Illinois)
- Zodiak News Service (San Francisco, California)
- The Grapevine (Palo Alto, California)

And individual reporters from the New York Times, New York Post, Philadelphia Inquirer, Philadelphia Drummer, and individuals from police and intelligence agencies as well as attorneys who must remain anonymous.

SLA — CIA

- 1) In 1969, the Black Cultural Association (BCA) was organized at Vacaville Medical Facility by Professor Colston Westbrook of the University of California and, covertly, the Central Intelligence Agency.
- 2) The Black Cultural Association was an extension of the psychological experimentation projects at Vacaville and elsewhere in the California prison system. The overall name for this experimentation is "Behaviour Modification." The locations known as "Categories E and C" at Vacaville house a behaviour modification unit, this unit provided candidates for the Black Cultural Association. Behaviour modification experimentation at Vacaville, and elsewhere in the California prison system, receives illegal funding and direction from the Central Intelligence Agency through its chief West Coast base of operations; the Stanford Research Institute (SRI) of Menlo Park, California, ~~located at the Vacaville Medical Facility~~. The specialty of this BM program is to cultivate -- in Black prisoners who formerly were associated with the Black Panther Party -- the most intense hatred toward the Black Panther Party ~~and its leaders~~. ~~and other revolutionary~~ groups and their leaders. One of the most severe current cases is that of former Black Panther member Lloyd Lamar Mimms.

The cover for the project is a rhetoric of "Black Pride" and Black separation. (pgs. A, B, C of data)

- 3) The Stanford Research Institutes' experimentation is an extension of the work now underway at Langley, Va. (by the CIA). At both Langley and Menlo Park the Research and Development departments are concerned with the uses of drugs such as Librium as well as organic drugs purchased by SRI agents in Latin America. Librium experimentation at Vacavilles' Categories E and C was directed illegally by the CIA through the SRI, and was administered to certain members of the Black Cultural Association.
- 4) Professor Colston Westbrook is an operative of the Central Intelligence Agency. And the Black Cultural Association was, itself, a Central Intelligence Agency Behaviour Modification program run from SRI. (The BCA concept was devised by Westbrook's "Control," a board member of the SRI. This man, evidence suggests, is the deep cover chief, West Coast, for the psychological warfare division of the Central Intelligence Agency. His name and the evidence is in CRIC's possession and available at this time only to an independent investigation.) (But we can say that Westbrook's CIA spymaster can be linked to another counter insurgency expert, William Herrman, an adviser to Governor Ronald Reagan. Herrman was in contact with both SRI, the Hoover Center on Violence, and the Rand Corporation in his development, for Reagan, of a plan to "win the hearts and minds of the people of California." (5/17/70 London Observer.)

- 5) Colston Westbrook's role in the Black Cultural Association Behaviour Modification program was to recruit and handle contract agents for a special and completely illegal CIA domestic program. (The nature of this race oriented program will be described to any official independent investigative body, as well as the project's possible relationship to the so-called "Zebra" killings.)
- 6) Colston Westbrook's training and service with the CIA was: agent handling, training and indoctrination.
 - A. Colston Westbrook was a CIA adviser to the South Korean Central Intelligence Agency until 1962. His covers in Korea and elsewhere were both U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force. His linguistic training took place during this period.
 - B. After 1962, Westbrook was enrolled in Inter-Christian University, Tokyo for special training in new psychological warfare techniques. Westbrook, during this clandestine training and afterwards, operated illegally under the cover of the Agency for International Development (AID). He has publically claimed to have had a "personal line of communication with the Premier of Cambodia."
 - C. Upon completion of training, Westbrook undertook agent handling assignments in: Cambodia, Thailand, India, Japan, Hong Kong, the Philippines, Okinawa and the Soviet Union. His actions became so notorious that the CIA was forced to change his cover to:

- D. From February 5, 1966 to September 19, 1969, Westbrook was listed as an "Administrator" for a civilian firm, Pacific Architects and Engineers, Inc. of Los Angeles, California, a multi-national consortium.
- E. One of the covert tasks of the huge Pacific Architects and Engineers firm in South East Asia was to provide logistical support to the CIA Phoenix program. In this, Pacific Architects and Engineers was joined by such other multi-national corporations as Philco-Ford, Alaska Barge & Transport, and Sea-Land Corporation, RMK - BRJ.
- F. Westbrook's job, under Pacific Architects and Engineers cover, in the Phoenix program was indoctrination of assassination and terrorist cadre.
- G. "Control," of SRI, sent Westbrook to Vacaville to head the special Behaviour Modification BCA project. At Vacaville, Westbrook recruited an agent to lead the Black Cultural Association. The man he chose had worked, off and on, since 1967 as an informer and agent provocateur for the LAPD, and since 1968 for the most elite unit of California political intelligence: the LAPD's Criminal Conspiracy Section (CCS). The agent that Westbrook recruited at Vacaville was Donald David DeFreeze, to be known later to the public as "Cinque", Field Marshall of the Symbionese Liberation Army.

THE SLA AND CALIFORNIA LAW ENFORCEMENT

The man, Cinque, Donald David DeFreeze is both a victim and an executioner produced by the California Department of Corrections and the counter-insurgency war conducted by law enforcement and intelligence agencies, in the 1960s, against the Black Liberation movement in general and the Black Panther Party in particular.

From being simply a police informant, DeFreeze, after the rise of the Black Panther Party (BPP), became an agent provocateur for one of the most feared, most powerful political-intelligence police units in the nation: the LAPD's Criminal Conspiracy Section (CCS).

3/31/65: West Covina, California
836.3 P.C., 211 P.C., 459 P.C., 12020 P.C.
De Freeze arrested with bomb, knife and sawed off shot gun.
Probation: 6/7/65

De Freeze continued as an occasional informant to the LAPD in the sales of contraband and stolen arms.

6/9/67: Los Angeles, California
211 APC — Robbery, charged 12020 P.C.
Two counts possession of explosives, one count possession of a concealed weapon. Two bombs and a gun.
Probation: to expire on Sept. 14, 1970 #X379-741.

De Freeze already on probation now received three more years probation, despite his violation.

On December 2, 1967, De Freeze was arrested for the fifth time on an arms charge. He robbed and beat a prostitute. He was taken to 77th Street Detectives by arresting officers Toles and Farwell. En route, De Freeze escaped and was recaptured but was not charged.

On December 6, 1967, De Freeze set up his partner, Ronald Coleman, by telephoning and then leading police to Coleman's apartment. There a cache of 200 weapons was discovered. These weapons had come from a surplus store, one among several that had been robbed to supply guns to the Black Cultural Nationalist U. S.

12/2/67: Robbery
A154500
12/7/67: Escape
4532 P.C.

De Freeze, though he had now violated two probations was, in an extraordinary decision, given five more years probation. Each of the above arrests would, in the normal practice, have "violated" De Freeze and remanded him to the penitentiary.

It is then, in December of 1967, that De Freeze became Detective Farwell's Informant in Black Liberation politics. De Freeze joined a stable of Black agents, including Louis E. Tackwood, recruited after the Watts uprising, that worked out of the "Black Desk" of LAPD Intelligence. De Freeze's main activity was to report on Black militant activity in South Central Los Angeles. Only months before -- De Freeze was discovered to have a supply of 200 guns including automatic weapons -- on May 2, 1967, California law enforcement was thrown into an official uproar when a delegation from the Black Panther Party legally demonstrated at the Sacramento State House by carrying unloaded guns in order to protest a piece of pending legislation.

De Freeze, an "ex-con" with 200 guns, was given very low bail and, later, probation. In 1968, De Freeze was arrested, armed, for the sixth time. But --

4/10/68: Inglewood, California
Burglary: 836.3 -- 459 P.C.
Released no charge.

Farwell was running De Freeze in the ever mounting campaign against the fast growing Southern California Chapter of the Black Panther Party. At the same time De Freeze was allowed to ply his arms trade for profit.

De Freeze was arrested again in August of 1968.

487.3 P.C.: Grand Larceny.

Nine days later De Freeze's wife wrote to the authorities reminding them of her husband's occasional work for them and the protection that they had been promised by the police. (pg. 26 and 100 of data.)

During the early fall of 1968, Farwell and his agents including De Freeze, Louis Tackwood and the Black Panther penetration agent Melvin "Cotton" Smith -- moved to the new subversive super secret unit — the Criminal Conspiracy Section (CCS). Of Farwell's agents, at the "Black Desk," Tockwood and De Freeze, to our knowledge, moved large numbers of guns and grenades to the U. S. organization to use in their attacks on the Black Panther Party.

De Freeze who was becoming increasingly uncontrollable to the police was assigned for psychiatric examination.

11/21/68: Los Angeles

Pursuant to section 730 of the evidence code Re:
Defendant's possible danger to person or property.
Psychiatrist assigned: Frederick J. Hacker, M.D.

Despite every indication of his need for help and his record of violent instability, De Freeze, on 12/13/68, was given five years probation on the 200 gun charge. The staff opinion from De Freeze's psychiatric report (not Dr. Hacker's) was that his constant involvement with "fire arms and explosives" made him "dangerous." Disregarding every indication of danger, Criminal Conspiracy Section drags De Freeze back to the street and the ~~extreme~~ extremely volatile political situation developing in Los Angeles. In December of 1968, the Black Panther Party leaders Jon Huggins and Alprentice "Bunchy" Carter were gunned down on the campus of UCLA by the U. S. organization with guns that may have come from De Freeze. The two men eventually convicted for the murders were brothers named Stiner, and they are to be linked with De Freeze in 1974, unknown to the public.

4/20/69: Los Angeles

12031 APC

Unlawful possession of a dangerous weapon —
"military type semi-automatic M-68 nine MM rifle, which was fully loaded; and attached clip contained 32 bullets. This gun was described as specifically designed for military or police work."

Again De Freeze is arrested for the seventh time for an armed offense that carried both state and federal charges. But De Freeze tells the Judge that he had "registered" the gun with the police under his own name and that the gun was actually intended for a police officer friend! De Freeze was charged with burglary at this same time in April of 1969. Again, despite consistent and massive violation of his probation, despite the demands from New Jersey to hold him, De Freeze was taken from incarceration or medical help by Criminal Conspiracy Section ~~with exposure~~. During this period, CRIC has learned, De Freeze threatened CCS with exposure unless they came to his aid. That De Freeze remained at large is unprecedented, according to law enforcement experts.

CRIC has learned that with the help of agents of CCS De Freeze was given aid to flee California in violation of his probation (a bench warrant was issued for his arrest) to the state of New Jersey. (pg. 141 and 145 of the data)

5/9/69: Newark, New Jersey
De Freeze and another man, posing as Black Panthers, were accused of assaulting an employee of a Jewish synagogue with a shot-gun, demanding $5,000, and information and aid in a scheme to kidnap a well-known Newark Jewish rights leader. Upon completion of the kidnapping, De Freeze's plan was to submit a ransom communique purporting to be from the B.P.P.

In the event, De Freeze escaped authorities in Newark, crossed state lines in violation, once again, of federal law and in October of 1969 surfaced in Cleveland, Ohio.

10/11/69: Cleveland, Ohio.

De Freeze appeared on the roof of the Cleveland Trust Company Branch Bank with a .38 revolver, .25 caliber pistol, an eight inch dagger, a tool kit, and, in violation of federal law, a hand grenade.

Cleveland police had, in this period, been on extreme alert because of the Ahmed Evans affair (Black militants involved in ambush and shootout with police). Yet, De Freeze was released on very low bail ($5,000) and charges were later dropped. De Freeze was wanted, at this time, on a capital charge in New Jersey as well as probation violation in California, but despite these facts De Freeze was not held in Cleveland though Sgt. John McMahon of the Cleveland subversive squad was monitoring the De Freeze case.

De Freeze now fled back to California and only days later while "high" on pills (his own admission) he robbed a woman at gunpoint of a $1,000 check and, using false identification, tried to cash the check at a Bank of America.

11/25/69: Los Angeles

A252519: De Freeze exchanged gun shots with a bank guard and was wounded. The gun used in the shoot-out was a .32 caliber Beretta automatic pistol. This gun (A63944) was still another gun left over from the earlier '67 200 gun robbery. De Freeze had obviously been allowed to keep a number of guns from this cache.

(Pg. 179 of data)

While De Freeze was incarcerated for trial he was visited by an attorney from New York, Milton Friedman. CRIC has learned, from police sources, that De Freeze at this same period was cooperating with LAPD - Hollywood Detectives on the Charles Manson case, concerning an arms burglary then being planned. (Affidavit)

On 12/3/69, De Freeze was ordered imprisoned at the Vacaville, California medical facility. Over a period of eighteen months De Freeze wrote long letters to the sentencing judge in his case detailing his problems and his fanatical Christian religious convictions. (In the data.)

In 1970, De Freeze was recruited by CIA operative Colston Westbrook to lead the Behaviour Modification experimental unit entitled the Black Cultural Association. At this time, on orders from Westbrook, De Freeze publically espoused a militant anti-white cultural nationalist ideology (his private letters, during the same period, were saturated with Christian theology.).

The Black Cultural Association attracted outside prison reform support during this period and, CRIC has learned, De Freeze began operating as a double agent: 1) for Westbrook and CIA, and 2) for the California Department of Corrections and the Bureau of Criminal Intelligence and Investigation (CII) responsible to the Attorney General of California.

Informants at Vacaville report that De Freeze seemingly broke with Westbrook and the Black Cultural Association over matters of policy. De Freeze then went to Department of Corrections authorities to complain against the BCA. The other inmates of the Black Cultural Association charged that De Freeze was unacceptable to them because of his extremely provocative and ultra militant positions. The authorities at Vacaville, however, did not find him unacceptable and proceeded to set him up with his own outside project. This project, named "Uniformity" ^{right} was supposedly concerned with problems of the families of Black prisoners.

In reality "Uniformity" ^{right} was meant all along to be an organizing magnet for white radicals in the prison movement.

CRIC has learned that De Freeze acted as an informer for the Department of Corrections, the Adult Authority and CII while heading up the prison sponsored "Uniformity" ^{right} group (soon to be known to its outside white members as "The Symbionese Liberation Army").

CRIC has learned that in December, 1972 De Freeze was transferred to the maximum security prison of Soledad in order to inform and entrap Black militants incarcerated in that facility. Another Black inmate of Soledad has stated:

While Donald DeFreeze was here, I had a few conversations with him. I have always questioned his departure as being a simple walk-away. I didn't come in contact with him personally until his last couple of weeks here. There weren't many who would associate with him. He tried to give the impression of being super-cool, and he came across as cold. When I met him, he was working in the maintenance shop. I asked him if he was happy on his job, because if not, I might be able to find him something else. He replied that within a few days, he was going to be assigned to work in the boiler room at the South Facility.

I questioned that, because he didn't have enough time here to be given that trust. I know cons that have been turned down for that position. He wouldn't comment; he only gave me a big smile. I should explain that no prisoners were kept at the South Facility at that time, because it had no security. No gun towers were in operation, and there were no guards posted.

A few prisoners with proven records of trust were taken from Central Facility to the South Facility to perform certain duties; then they would be returned to Central after their shift. A few days later, Defreeze did get that job: midnight to eight a.m. shift, in the boiler room of South Facility.

On his first night, he was dropped off at midnight, and given a few instructions. His job was automatic; it only required an overseer. Then he was left to himself, and when an officer returned an hour later to check on him, he was gone."

The South Facility of Soledad, only for trusted inmates, is a holding section for informers (the "Soledad Brothers" case, involving George Jackson).

De Freeze "escaped" from Soledad on 3/5/73. After being rejected by several Black ~~pepxx~~ people in the Bay Area, De Freeze moved, underground, in white circles among people whose names the authorities were familiar with from the visitation records at ~~thx~~ both Vacaville and Soledad. None of these potential suspects were followed up by authorities. New Left and prison support groups rejected De Freeze's offers of violent "help" as provocative and intelligence inspired.

Law
~~On April 11~~ 1973, De Freeze was involved in the assassination of Oakland School Superintendent Dr. Marcus Foster. This killing came just after Dr. Foster had acceded to reform demands made by the Oakland Black Community and the Black Panther Party.

CRIC has learned that one of the men being held for the Foster murder, Russell Little, was questioned by police in the Philadelphia area when Dr. Foster was leading an anti-drug campaign in that city before coming to Oakland.

* CRIC has also learned that in August of 1973, money and weapons began to be supplied to the SLA on a regular basis; that the supplier attempted to involve Chicano, American Indian, and Black prison reformers with the SLA; that the supplier promised $1,000,000 to the group (from an Arch nation) if they would blow up domestic oil facilities.

CRIC has learned, further, that De Freeze and the SLA had as one of their primary goals the destruction of the Black Panther Party and the assassination of Panther Leader Huey P. Newton. And further that Bay area police and CII, before the kidnapping of Patricia Hearst, were in possession of a diagram of Huey P. Newton's apartment and other information concerning a conspiracy to murder Mr. Newton. This material is still being suppressed as is material proving that the authorities were in possession, in January of 1974, of a detailed kidnap plan whose target was Patricia Hearst.

EVELLE J. YOUNGER AND CINQUE

After the assassination of Robert F. Kennedy in June of 1968, Los Angeles District Attorney Evelle J. Younger set up an elite police apparatus known as "Special Unit Senator" (SUS). Later, elements of this group and LAPD intelligence were reorganized into the powerful CCS of the LAPD. This unit, with secret funding, was organized along lines of the CIA and was under the aegis of District Attorney Younger. That Younger knew of De Freeze while De Freeze was being run by CCS is almost without question and, indeed, De Freeze subpoenaed District Attorney Younger to testify in his behalf in 1969. De Freeze claimed during this appeal for Younger that he could "embarrass" the District Attorney's office - (Pg. 2 of data)

From the time of the Hearst kidnapping, at the very latest, in February of 1974, now Attorney General Younger must have been vividly aware of the exploits of his former CCS agent De Freeze. It is well known in official circles that Younger maintained his close relationship with CCS after becoming Attorney General and indeed there is proof that CCS operated far outside of its Los Angeles jurisdiction and was involved in the Berkeley councilmanic race of D'Army Bailey; the Jonathan Jackson affair in Merin County; the George Jackson prison movement; the Angela Davis case, to name a few. Thus through the conduit of both CCS and CII, A.G. Younger has known for months the identity of "Field Marshall Cinque". (Tackwood lie detector test results)

On May 18, 1970, one of Younger's assistants had stated:

It is the opinion of the undersigned that this person is a high risk danger to society and that as soon as he is released from prison, he will return to his same violent career. It is my opinion, further, that this defendant will eventually kill someone. The latter opinion is based upon his actions in this case wherein he initiated a gun battle with police officers and a security guard in order to avoid capture. This indicates a total lack of regard for human life.

Signed Daniel Johnson, District Atty.

Case No. A 252519 - May 18, 1970.

Despite this long held official opinion and despite repeated requests from New Jersey to hold De Freeze (Page 50 of data), Younger's CCS continued to run De Freeze in 1968 and 1969. So that De Freeze would later boast in court —

THE DEFENDANT: Kidnapping attempted extortion and assault with a deadly weapon. This is also untrue, too, but, you see, you don't know that, but I know it and they know it. But to make sure that this Court tries to send me as far in prison as they can, they have been trying to get me back there for a probation violation since '65 and California refuses and they didn't refuse in a nice way. They had to do it nasty, and California doesn't like that.

Superior Court of the State of Calif.
Monday, May 18, 1970
(Motion for a New Trial).

The shrill denunciations against the FBI by Attorney General Younger for being soft on kidnapping ring hollow when the record is studied.

Equally hypocritical, if not criminal, are the words and actions of the Department of Corrections and CII in demanding a general prison lock down based primarily on the "militance" of Black revolutionaries, when the ultra militant rhetoric of Donald De Freeze earned for him the free run of two prisons and, indeed, so trusted was this "revolutionary" by the authorities that he was put in a position where "escape" was inevitable.

22 A.

CONCLUSION:

THE NEED FOR AN INDEPENDENT INVESTIGATION

Conclusion

We demand that a congressional or independent prosecutor's committee be set up to investigate these matters.

That this independent body have its own independent investigative personnel, with no connection whatsoever with the Attorney General of California.

That this investigative force include Lake Headley whose work for CRIC has brought some suppressed information at last to the public. It goes without saying that Attorney General Younger and CII are unfit to proceed further in this matter, and in fact, we demand that their conduct be, itself, a primary subject for the investigating committee.

The following questions must be faced in any honest inquiry:

- 1) What is the relationship between CIA fronts located in California and the Department of Corrections on the one hand, and Attorney General Younger and the CCS and CII on the other? Should no official body ask for CRIC's information on illegal CIA activity in California, then CRIC, together with the Washington, D. C. based "Fifth Estate" and other legal groups, will initiate a suit against the SRI under the ~~XXXX~~ Freedom of Information Act, naming ~~person~~ names of highly placed CIA deep cover operatives at SRI ~~and~~ and throughout the California University System.
- 2) The discovery of CIA psychological warfare operatives and fronts in the SLA affair will make clear that the issue is not confined to California. Now CRIC has learned that six members of the SLA have been involved with narcotics intelligence units in the states of Indiana and Pennsylvania as well as California. Thus, an independent investigation must have the power to subpoena official representatives from other states as well as from the Central Intelligence Agency.

- 3) To what end did the CIA have agents in the field investigating, after the ~~last~~^{heart} kidnapping? And did the CIA not withhold timely information from the FBI?
- 4) Why did District Attorney ~~Younger~~ and later Attorney General Younger, the LAPD and others refuse to hold, extradite or incarcerate^a desperately ill man after repeated probation violations and numerous warnings and demands from the state of New Jersey and, indeed, from within D.A. Younger's office itself, as well as various official psychiatric agencies? How could the Department of Corrections ~~affix~~ place so obviously disturbed a man as De Freeze in Soledad South at midnight, unattended and not know he would escape? Is not the answer the same in both cases? both in Los Angeles and at Soledad the authorities did not shrink or shame from the most cynical manipulation of a dangerously sick and extremely unhappy man (see prison letters in data) in order to wage war against a movement for change with which they violently disagreed? There are scores of witnesses and other victims ready to testify to this ongoing outrage before an independent official body.
- 5) Why did Attorney General Younger and California law enforcement, including the Department of Corrections and the prison guards association, attempt to frustrate and undermine the efforts of the FBI in the Hearst kidnapping?

- 6) Why did Attorney General Younger conduct an unremitting propaganda ~~xxxx~~ campaign whose aim it was to force the FBI into a shoot-out with De Freeze and the SLA?
- 7) Is it not true, the committee should determine, that while the FBI was trying to retrieve Ms. Hearst, Attorney General Younger and California law enforcement were trying to kill their former agent De Freeze, now uncontrollable, before he could talk about Mr. Younger and CCS in this election year?
- 8) Why did law enforcement agencies suppress the information that a second man calling himself Donald De Freeze appeared on the East Coast in March of 1974? This "second" De Freeze was, according to sources, in possession of a wealth of information concerning the biography of Donald De Freeze.
- 9) CRIC has learned that vital documents from De Freeze's dossier have been removed from the public files (affidavit), and that these documents as well as documents relating to the recently escaped Stiner brothers (convicted of the UCLA Panther murders) were, as of April 15, locked in the desk of the watch commander of LAPD intelligence, according to police sources. This obstruction ~~xxxx~~ of Justice must be investigated by an independent committee. The watch commander involved is one R. Forwell, De Freeze's former agent handler at CCS and now a ranking offica in the new Public Disorder Intelligence Unit, on elite sub-unit of CCS monitoring Black political activity in the state of California, regardless of geographic jurisdiction. Hundreds of potential "Cinques" are thus being cultivated even now by police Intelligence. This must be exposed and stopped.

- 10) What role has Dr. Frederick J. Hoher played in the Hearst affair? How was he chosen for his role of family counselor? What did he really know about De Freeze?
- 11) Why was Clifford "Death Row Jeff" Jefferson silenced at various times during this affair?
- 12) Why was the visitors' list at Vacaville and Soledad not checked out after De Freeze's escape? And why was crucial information discovered in January 1974 in the burned out SLA house suppressed from the FBI, the public, and potential SLA victims?
- 13) Why were the Stiner brothers in a weekend cottage and able to escape during a period when extreme ~~controls~~ controls were being exercised against Black militants? Further, what is the connection of former U. S. members like the Stiners with the SLA whose cobra symbol was made synonomous in the 1960s with the U. S. organization? Why ~~was~~ has the FBI been questioning former members of the U S, whose Black separatist ideology contradicts the SLA rhetoric and its virtually exclusively white membership? In ~~not~~ short, what residual wars of the 1960s against the Black Panther Party and the Black Liberation movement have come back to haunt California law enforcement and the people of the state of California?

14) From where did the money, printing and weapons for the SLA come?
(See data for early SLA memorandum.)

15) Have authorities, under cover of the SLA hysteria, opened a new attack against the B.P.P., including the use of Agent provocateur?

These and other questions demand investigation by an independent body, free of taint in the SLA affair, armed with ^{subpoena} ~~process~~ and investigative powers. CRIC and other independent investigators will cooperate only with such an independent unit that is free from the coercion of the Younger machine in all of its far flung ramifications.

Re McDermott to Jenkins memorandum of 6/6/74 (attached).

An undated anonymous letter postmarked in St. Louis, Missouri (attached), was received at the Bureau July 16th. The letter refers to a quote attributed to SAC Charles Bates of the San Francisco Office which appeared in the June 8-14, 1974, issue of TV Guide magazine.

The quote, "I wish to God we had that broad's connections," allegedly was made in reference to Marilyn Baker, investigative reporter for television station KQED-TV, San Francisco. The Director noted on the incoming letter: "What is he talking about?"

By airtel of 5/31/74 (attached), SAC Bates furnished background on this article and Marilyn Baker. Bates denied ever having made such a statement regarding Baker as attributed to him by TV Guide.

TV GUIDE
JUNE 8-14, 1974
ARTICLE ON MARILYN BAKER
KQED-TV, SAN FRANCISCO

"TV Guide" for June 8-14, 1974, carries a story by Bill Davidson about Marilyn Baker (copy attached) in which the lead states that Baker named Patricia Hearst's kidnappers and pointed the way for police and other reporters on the story.

In addition to the above, he quotes SAC Charles Bates as stating, "I wish to God we had that broad's connections."

The above story reveals how Baker claims she identified the members of the SLA and named the kidnappers of Patricia Hearst. She also reveals that due to her investigation a number of threats were made to her life. The story gives her credit for all significant developments in the Hearst kidnapping investigation and the identities of the members of the SLA.

While the story on its face is patently false, for record purposes SAC Bates categorically denies making the above statement attributed to him. He advised that he would never refer to a female in such a manner as to label her a "broad." He also stated he would never in any way admit that someone of some organization could do a job better than the FBI.

[REDACTED] He advised that KQED-TV is a public service operated station which caters to sensation journalism [REDACTED]

On 5/29/74, MARILYN BAKER, Newscaster for KQED-TV, Channel 9 (public subscription station), was talking to Supervisor [REDACTED] of the San Francisco Office. At that time she advised him that she was going to be on the cover of TV Guide for 6/8-14/74. She told [REDACTED] that she was a little concerned that SAC BATES might be upset by the article about her. She told [REDACTED] that the article was written by TV Guide newsmen and that she did not see the finished product until after it was printed. [REDACTED] inquired as to why she was concerned and she gave him a copy of the TV Guide and the article about her. The headline quote on the article is "I Wish We Had That Broad's Connections," CHARLES BATES, FBI Agent. At the end of the article it says in a newspaper interview SAC BATES paid MARILYN BAKER the ultimate tribute, "I wish to God we had that broad's connections." BAKER told [REDACTED] that she had never heard these quotes from me. She said she was going to be out of town but did leave the copy of the article.

This article is mainly fiction about how BAKER solved the entire HEARST case ahead of law enforcement. Because of the references in the article to the San Francisco Police Department, this matter was checked with [REDACTED]. He confirmed that a bomb report had been received on 2/18/74, that the bomb squad searched KQED and BAKER's car but found no bomb. [REDACTED]

The article relates that the San Francisco Police Department guarded her for more than six days. [REDACTED] said this was absolutely not true. He did relate that on 5/1/74, between 6:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. the police were at her home as she had called claiming someone was going to harm her.

SAC talked with [REDACTED] on the evening of 5/30/74. [REDACTED]

As far as the quotes attributed to SAC, I can assure the Bureau that never in my life have I referred to a woman in such language. Not only that but I would never admit under any circumstances that anyone could be better at investigating a matter than the FBI.

I am calling this to the Bureau's attention merely for information and on the possibility that press inquiries might be received.

The article is enclosed.

'I Wish We Had That Broad's Connections'

—Charles Bates, FBI agent

The amazing story of a 44-year-old TV newswoman who stayed two weeks ahead of the police in her revelations about the Hearst kidnaping case

By Bill Davidson

The phone rang suddenly during the 7 P.M. news hour on KQED, San Francisco's public-television station, which operates out of a decrepit, formerly abandoned warehouse in the city's industrial slums. It was exactly 7:12 on Feb. 18. At the time of the call, KQED's 44-year-old, deceptively-housewifely-looking No. 1 reporter, Marilyn Baker, was on the air with her latest findings in the Patricia Hearst kidnaping case.

News director Joe Russin took the call, and heard a muffled voice say, "This is the Symbionese Liberation Army. There's a plastic bomb—meant for Marilyn Baker. It will go off at 8:17." Then, just the hum of the dial tone.

In a matter of minutes—while the 7 P.M. news continued—cops swarmed all over the rally KQED news room—even springing onto the set. Bomb-squad men in armored clothing ripped apart Marilyn's desk in search of hidden explosives. When Marilyn finished her broadcast at 8:00, one of the cops said, "Think very hard. Where would you normally be at 8:17?"

She said, "I don't have to think very hard. I'd be in my car—on my way home." The bomb-squad men rushed out into the empty street, where the hood of Marilyn's car gaped open. Inside, they found an ignition wire ripped out—seemingly ready to be attached to a bomb. The cops, apparently, had poured out of the building soon enough to interrupt the bomb installer in mid-task.

The police guard on Mrs. Baker, put into effect six days earlier, was increased. And that night, her 26-year-old son Jeff, an ex-marine, stood watch in her living room with a loaded rifle.

It had all begun across the Bay in Oakland last Nov. 6, with the assassination of Marcus Foster, Oakland's black superintendent of schools. The Symbionese Liberation Army surfaced then to claim responsibility for the murder, and established its claim by mentioning the cyanide-tipped bullets that had been used in the attack on Foster and his assistant Robert Blackburn (who was wounded). "I was busy elsewhere," Marilyn said, "but that cyanide ~~was~~ ~~sense~~ interested me. I checked it out with the coroner and found out it would have taken at least 35 such bullets to deliver enough cyanide to kill Foster. That's why Blackburn, who was hit by the same cyanide, recovered from his wounds. I went on our Newsroom show with the story, but everyone else kept making a big thing out of the 'deadly' cyanide-bullet thing."

Marilyn became totally involved with the SLA after police inefficiency dropped up in the arrest on Jan. 10 of SLA members Joseph Remiro and Russell Little, who have been charged with Foster's murder. "It was 1:30 in the morning," Marilyn says, "and a deputy sheriff's car made a routine stop of a van driven by two guys. It was in the suburban residential town of Concord across the Bay, and a van in that area at that time of night seemed suspicious. The driver of the van said he was looking for the DeVolo house on Sutherland Drive. Then when the cop began to check his driver's license, which was a fake, he pulled a gun. There was a shoot-out, and eventually both Remiro and Little were captured. There was a lot of SLA literature in the van, but no one thought to check the DeVolo house, just two blocks away. If they had, they would have caught at least three members of the SLA—and maybe there wouldn't have even been a Hearst kidnaping.

"As it was, as soon as the news of the arrest was broadcast, 'Mrs. DeVolo' was seen fleeing the house after setting it on fire. The fire department got there in a hurry and put out the fire, and then the cheriffs got there and found weapons and all kinds of SLA stuff."

The next day, Marilyn got there. Incredibly, the house was unsealed and unguarded—neighborhood kids carting off such souvenirs as bayonets and a target pistol. Entering the unlocked back door, Marilyn found a store of evidence not even touched by the police—drugs, professional make-up equipment, clothes, sets full of nonhippie, middle-class clothing, maps and a manuscript about the SLA's aims in which, each time the words "men and women" were used, someone had crossed them out and written in "women and men."

"From all this," Marilyn said, "I deduced that whoever these people were, they used middle-class disguises and were living among us, not as hippies. The make-up, all dark, indicated that they wanted their whites to appear to be blacks, and the manuscript changes told me this outfit was run by women—heavy-women's-lib-type wom-Marilyn turned the evidence over to the Oakland police, went on the air with her hypotheses, and then set out to identify the "Mrs. DeVolo" who had rented the house. From references given to the real-estate agent, she tracked down an authentic Mrs. DeVolo in the East; when Marilyn described to her the 4-foot-11-inch, dark-haired woman who had fled the burning house, she said, "That sounds like Nancy Ling. I went to school with her. She must have used my name."

From her street-people contacts in near-by Berkeley, Marilyn then learned that a Nancy Ling, a former ultraconservative, Barry Goldwater supporter in 1964, had been living with a black musician named Gilbert Perry. She found Perry, learned that he and Miss Ling had been married, taped an interview with him about her background, and went on the air with it.

Marilyn thus identified the first of the strange women within the SLA. A few days later, on Jan. 17, Nancy Ling Perry admitted her SLA involvement in a lengthy "Letter to the People" delivered to radio station KPFA. The communique set forth the SLA's "death to the fascist insect" philosophy and also directly answered two points made by Marilyn in her news broadcasts. As a sardonic joke, the envelope in which the communique was delivered bore Marilyn's name and Station KOED as the return address.

Then, on Feb. 4, Patty Hearst was abducted from her Berkeley apartment. Three days later, a communique from the SLA, accompanied by one of Patty's credit cards, announced that she had been taken as a "prisoner of war." Marilyn spent the weekend contacting all of her hundreds of sources in the San Francisco slums, in the streets around the University of California in Berkeley, and in all the area's law-enforcement agencies—asking for any information about the kidnaping.

On Monday, Feb. 11, the information came to her. Her phone rang at 6:10 A.M. and an unidentified voice said, "There are two black escaped convicts in the SLA." The caller mentioned two names—Wheeler, and what sounded like "Diffuse"—and then hung up.

All that day, Marilyn checked California's prisons. Finally, at Soledad, the warden told her that the preceding March a black man named Donald DeFreeze had been taken outside the main compound of Soledad to repair a boiler—and had simply walked away. She asked him if DeFreeze had had a nickname in prison. The warden said, "Yes. He called himself Cinque." At Vacaville Prison Marilyn learned of the similar escape of a convict there named Thero Wheeler in August 1973. In Berkeley she learned from her street-people about "a black dude, calls himself Cinque (Sin-cue) and brags about being an escaped convict, trying to hook up with radical groups, but he was talking about such violence that we thought he was an agent of the police trying to stir things up."

In the next SLA communique, the voice of "General Field Marshal Cinque" was heard for the first time. Marilyn already knew that he was DeFreeze, and that Wheeler had probably aided him in the kidnaping. She phoned Randolph Hearst and told him that she was going to identify DeFreeze and Wheeler on the air. He begged her not to, and asked her instead to tell what she knew to an FBI agent stationed with him. She did; Hearst then gave her a special unlisted number so she could keep in touch—the only reporter to be so favored during the entire ordeal.

Two days later, Hearst phoned her and told her to go ahead with her story. "You've got it straight," he said. She broadcast her findings on KOED's evening news of Feb. 14, and "before I finished," she says, "our switchboard was swamped with calls. The story → was picked up all over the United States—~~all over the world.~~"

Then came a series of threats on Marilyn's life—and the Feb. 18 bombing attempt. Guarded by the police, son Jeff and her younger son Chris, 23, Marilyn resumed her digging. Another anonymous phone tip and a check of voter-registration lists enabled her to identify Patricia Soltysik, the female brain of the SLA, known as "Midmoon" as she was called in a love poem written to her by her lesbian lover, Cecilia Hall, daughter of a Lutheran minister and also a member of the SLA.

Marilyn next found a man who had been a cell mate of DeFreeze and Wheeler. He told her—on the air—his theory of how the entire SLA plan had been concocted in prison by DeFreeze, Wheeler and radical visitors from the outside. (Among the visitors Marilyn later identified one white youth named Willie Wolfe.) Not only had they discussed the Marcus Foster murder and the Hearst kidnaping, but possible kidnappings of other victims as well—such as Vice President Gerald Ford's daughter—and a massive jail break at Vacaville.

In the meantime, Marilyn's son Jeff—who is long-haired, looks like a radical, and works undercover for her—came up with a witness who tied Willie Wolfe to with gun classes held every Sunday morning by Joseph Remiro, one of the two SLA men already arrested in the Marcus Foster murder. Remiro is a Vietnam veteran known as "GI Joe," and a firearms expert. Jeff's source also mentioned several of Remiro's students at the gun classes; Marilyn soon identified them through her street contacts as Angela Alwood, Emily and Bill Harris, and, of course, Patricia Solitsik—all of whom had disappeared, as had Nancy Ling Perry and Camilla Hall, as SLA activity became public.

Marilyn now knew the entire core of the SLA membership, and she broke the story well ahead of everybody else on March 22. Those she identified have now been named officially as having participated in the kidnapping and also in the April 15 Hibernia Bank robbery in which Patricia Hearst took part.

For weeks, nearly every substantial clue you read or heard about the Hearst case or the SLA came directly or indirectly from Marilyn Baker. CRS used parts of her SLA revelations in its evening newscasts. On the day of the bank robbery, ABC in New York wouldn't report that Patty Hearst was involved until someone phoned Marilyn in San Francisco for confirmation. TV and newspaper reporters from all over the world followed her around—and interviewed her to find out what was going on in the case, even after the bloody May 17 shootout in Los Angeles.

In being the first to identify "General Field Marshal O'Quinn" and the Irish posterhood that dominates the SLA, Marilyn was usually a week ahead of the Haight local FBI office—and two weeks ahead of the San Francisco police, whose ineptitude has inspired comparison with the Keystone Kops.

While other San Francisco TV reporters were joshing each other on their "happy talk" newscasts, or playing cards in comfortable press trailers while waiting for press conferences at the Hearst mansion, Marilyn Baker was pushing through the back alleys to find evidence. She glitters—like the Emmy and Peabody awards she will probably win next year—amid the dull and shameful paper that seemed to grip all journalism in the case. There were some mitigating circumstances, not the least of which was Randolph Hearst's idea that journalists not "do anything to endanger Patty's life." This led to the SLA's manipulation of the media, which gave full play to the SLA's rambling and incoherent propaganda messages. Marilyn admits that she and KOED were also manipulated for a while, but she was the first to see that the media were being used by, as she put it on the air, "common hoodlums." She said bluntly, "This has been muddled into a political story when it's nothing but a basic murder-kidnaping-robbery story."

Marilyn has had many firsts in the bizarre case (including exclusive interviews with ex-SLA associate Christopher Thompson, who was "sentenced" to death by the SLA and later hidden for several days by Jeff Baker), but she is the first to admit that, like any investigative reporter, she has made her share of mistakes.

"I wasted days," she said, "having Jeff check mountain caves marked on the SLA maps I found in the DeVolo house. My news director Joe Russin and I lost $300 at a midnight drop in an Oakland parking lot: we were supposed to get an SLA tape telling us where Patty was. Instead, the tape was just a recording of a rock song—'My Baby's Daddy Is a Millionaire.'"

"I have also had changing views of Patty Hearst. At first I thought she had been forced into the bank robbery, but it may be that she is like Silly Putty, someone who can be molded into anything anyone wants her to be. My sources at Berkeley have told me that at various times she was thought to be a conservative, a liberal, a drug abstainer, a drug user—all according to her associations at a given time. There's a lot of sex in the SLA, both heterosexual and homosexual; perhaps in a cloud of confusion she has mistaken that for the kind of true love that she thinks may have been missing in her family life and in her relationship with Steve Weed, her fiancé. I'll never forget my conversation with Randolph Hearst after the first SLA tape with Patty's voice on it. I said, 'I've got two sons, and if either of them got into this kind of trouble, he'd say some secret thing that only I could understand.' Mr. Hearst mumbled, 'I wouldn't know of anything. We never had that kind of close relationship with Patty.'"

On the other hand, it should be noted that Patty, in her taped messages, seemed clearly to be reading from a script prepared in advance, and if she was being forced to read them, it is not likely that the SLA would permit her to add any "secret things" of her own. And if she had, the SLA could easily have erased them. Also, such a signal, if subtle enough not to be noticed by the SLA, might also be so small as to elude her family. And further, if the Hearsts had noticed some small signal from Patty, they might very well be risking her life if they made it public. Speculation of this sort, although attractive and almost unavoidable, is also inconclusive.

As an investigative reporter of some years' experience, I joined Marilyn on her beat for four days. More than anything else, she is apparently fearless: after finding a neighborhood where merchants had said the SLA's Mizmoon and Camilla Hall had made food and gasoline purchases, Marilyn went charging into hostile, commune-type houses. We had a clandestine meeting with Christopher Thompson, who is still hiding out and still under the SLA's death sentence. Later we had a secret meeting with one of Marilyn's law-enforcement contacts. She told him of Thompson's predictions of the SLA's next possible actions; he said, "For God's sake, Marilyn, be careful!"

The next day, in a newspaper interview, Charles Bates, the FBI agent in charge of the case, paid Marilyn the ultimate tribute: "I wish to God we had that broad's connections."

Marilyn's only reaction to the grudging compliment came that night before her KOED Newsroom telecast. She said, "This is the fifth show in a row where this underpaid, middle-aged broad hasn't had the time to put on her false eyelashes." END

Marilyn Baker pauses a moment in San Francisco's South of Market District, a less than affluent area where she has many 'street-people' contacts.

Office, relating to the bodies removed from 1466 East 54th Street, Los Angeles, California.

Enclosed for San Francisco are one set each of the volumes described above.

ADMINISTRATIVE:

Six (6) copies of this report are being furnished to the Bureau for appropriate dissemination; fifteen (15) copies are being furnished to San Francisco, as per request; and five (5) copies are being retained by Los Angeles for possible future dissemination. Further, Los Angeles is retaining one copy each of enclosures noted above for future reference.

In accordance with Bureau authorization, a copy of this report is being furnished to the Los Angeles Police Department and to the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office after being reviewed by the United States Attorney, Los Angeles, California.

On May 28, 1974, [REDACTED] Criminal Conspiracy Section, Los Angeles Police Department, Los Angeles, California, made available copies of 540 color photographs taken by police photographers regarding the police action against the Symbionese Liberation Army at 1466 East 54th Street, Los Angeles, California, May 17, 1974, and subsequent investigation on May 18, 1974. Copies of these photographs are being disseminated to interested offices and pertinent United States Attorneys as an enclosure to this report.

On May 24, 1974, [REDACTED] Helicopter Observer, Los Angeles Police Department, made available twentyeight (28) aerial photographs taken by him from a Los Angeles Police Department Helicopter on May 17 - 18, 1974, of the residence at 1466 East 54th Street, Los Angeles, California, and surrounding areas. Copies of these photographs are being disseminated to interested offices as an enclosure to this report.

The Office of County Coroner, Los Angeles, California, has made available 95 color photographs depicting medical examination of the six (6) bodies recovered from the debris at 1466 East 54th Street, Los Angeles, California. Copies of these photographs are being disseminated to interested offices and appropriate United States Attorneys as an enclosure to this report.

The copies received from the Police Department are being retained in the exhibit section of the Los Angeles file.

Duplicate copies of less pertinent photographs obtained from the Los Angeles Police Department are being retained in the exhibit section of the Los Angeles file.

Los Angeles has received numerous reports of alleged sightings of WILLIAM TAYLOR HARRIS, EMILY MONTAGUE HARRIS, and PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST. Each of these has been promptly investigated. In addition, extensive negative investigation has been conducted in conjunction with the events reported herein. In the interest of brevity and economy, all such negative investigation has been omitted from this report and is being maintained in the Los Angeles file.

The following individuals have been afforded polygraph examinations regarding captioned matter, with Bureau approval granted May 18, 1974:

[REDACTED]
THOMAS DEAN MATTHEWS
[REDACTED]

It is noted [REDACTED] was examined concerning a possible sighting of DONALD DAVID DEFREEZE prior to May 17, 1974. Examination revealed [REDACTED] was unsure of information he had furnished. After examination [REDACTED] advised he was not positive of his identification and thus would be reluctant to testify in a court of law under oath.

Because of the pertinent information furnished by THOMAS DEAN MATTHEWS, he was afforded a polygraph examination which indicated his truthfulness.

It was revealed through polygraph examination that [REDACTED] was withholding information concerning his association with Symbionese Liberation Army members while they were in the Los Angeles area. After examination, [REDACTED] provided further pertinent information.

Los Angeles has claimed credit for four (4) fugitive apprehensions by teletype to the Bureau.

On May 20, 1974, [REDACTED] Investigative Support Division, Los Angeles Police Department, advised that their investigation of the actual police action taken at 1466 East 54th Street, May 17, 18, and 19, 1974, is being investigated as "Officer Involved in a Shooting" Matter by [REDACTED] of the Robbery-Homicide Section, Los Angeles Police Department. [REDACTED] further stated under existing departmental rules and regulations the "Officer Involved in a Shooting" report is confidential and copies are only furnished to the Chief of Police and the Los Angeles City Attorney for use in possible civil or criminal litigation.

A synopsis of the action taken by the Los Angeles Police Department is included in the details of this report.

In addition to the Special Agents named in the details of this report, the following Agents were in the area of 1466 East 54th Street, Los Angeles, California, during the shooting incident on May 17, 1974:

Synopsis:

PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST was abducted from her residence, Berkeley, California, February 4, 1974, by individuals subsequently claiming to be members of the Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA). During late afternoon May 16, 1974, information was received from the Inglewood, California, Police Department regarding an altercation at Mel's Sporting Goods Store, Inglewood, California, during which an automatic weapon was fired. A white male, later determined to be WILLIAM TAYLOR HARRIS, was suspected of shoplifting and an attempt was made by store employees to detain him. HARRIS produced a two inch Colt .38 revolver, Serial Number C59256, and was disarmed by a store employee. That weapon determined to be registered to EMILY MONTAGUE HARRIS, who was later identified as having accompanied WILLIAM TAYLOR HARRIS to Mel's Sporting Goods Store. During the struggle between the store employee and the HARRISES, a third individual, believed to be PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST, fired an automatic weapon in the direction of the store, at which time the HARRISES escaped. The HARRISES and HEARST fled the area in a 1970 Volkswagen van bearing California temporary license 5303850. A short time later the trio commandeered, at gunpoint, a 1970 Pontiac Le Mans, California license 032 AND, in Los Angeles, California, and abandoned the van. They subsequently abandoned the Pontiac in Hawthorne, California, and commandeered, again at gunpoint, a 1963 Chevrolet Nova Station Wagon, California license GOE 575, effecting their escape. A search of the 1970 Volkswagen van revealed a parking ticket, indicating the van had been cited by the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) on May 13, 1974, in the area of 835 West 84th Street, Los Angeles, California. That van determined to be-registered to RICKEY DELGADO, 911 Fillmore, San Francisco,

LA 7-1627

California, date of purchase May 6, 1974. During the late evening of May 16, 1974, several vehicles observed in the vicinity of the 800 block of West 84th Street, including a 1966 Chevrolet van, California license 84650V, and a 1964 Volkswagen van, California license 463 GMO and temporary license 5306393. Investigation during early morning hours of May 17, 1974, in the 800 block of West 84th Street, Los Angeles, California, disclosed that residents of the neighborhood had observed several white females residing at 833 West 84th Street, and that a witness had observed a Volkswagen van, driven by those females, receiving a parking ticket recently. At approximately 9:00 a.m., May 17, 1974, FBI Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) Team, accompanied by LAPD SWAT Team, surrounded 833 West 84th Street, and announced their presence. When no response came from within, an LAPD Officer fired seven tear gas projectiles through the front windows of the residence. Moments later members of FBI SWAT Team entered the residence and determined it to be empty. Search of residence determined admitted SLA members had occupied it and from all indications had recently left. On the morning of May 17, 1974, Lynwood, California, Police Department advised THOMAS DEAN MATTHEWS was a possible kidnap victim and that a 1963 Chevrolet Nova Station Wagon, California license GOE 575, had been recovered near MATTHEWS' residence. Shortly thereafter MATTHEWS returned to his residence and advised he had been held captive in his 1969 Ford van by individuals subsequently identified as WILLIAM TAYLOR HARRIS, EMILY MONTAGUE HARRIS, and PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST. MATTHEWS furnished a signed statement indicating HEARST had handled and loaded weapons and stated to him she had joined the SLA, had taken part in a bank robbery in the San Francisco, California, area, and had fired the shots at Mel's Sporting Goods Store, Inglewood, California, during the afternoon of May 16, 1974. MATTHEWS stated he was released at approximately 7:00 a.m., and pointed out location of his release on Outpost Drive in the Hollywood, California, area. During early afternoon, May 17, 1974, FRANK RICHARD SUTTER advised he had been kidnapped by three individuals who identified themselves as members of the SLA, who he believed to be WILLIAM TAYLOR HARRIS, EMILY MONTAGUE HARRIS, and PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST. He stated abduction occurred in the vicinity of 2600 Outpost Drive at approximately 6:45 a.m., May 17, 1974. Further, that the trio displayed weapons, placed him in the rear of his 1973 Lincoln Continental Mark IV, and drove around the Los Angeles, California, area, releasing him in Griffith Park, Los Angeles, California, at approximately 1:15 p.m., same date.

Prior to his release WILLIAM TAYLOR HARRIS removed approximately $250 from SUTTER's wallet. On May 17, 1974, information received from the San Francisco Office, FBI, that a 1964 Volkswagen van, California license 463 GMO, and temporary license 5306393, was sold on May 7, 1974, and registered to ROBERTO BEY, 911 Fillmore, San Francisco, California. Further that a 1966 Chevrolet van, California license 84650V was sold May 1, 1974, to Mrs. MARY LOPEZ, address unknown. At approximately 2:00 p.m., May 17, 1974, the LAPD advised that two vans had been located at 1451 East 53rd Street, Los Angeles, one bearing California license 84650V. Subsequent investigation revealed that four white females, one white male, and one black male, all heavily armed, were currently inside a residence located at 1466 East 54th Street, Los Angeles, California. Further, these individuals had stated to various residents of the area that they were members of the SLA. Shortly before 6:00 p.m., May 17, 1974, LAPD SWAT Teams ordered the occupants of 1466 East 54th Street to surrender at which time a male Negro exited the residence. When no response was received from subsequent calls to surrender, tear gas was fired into the residence by the LAPD. This action was met by heavy gunfire from the residence, which was returned by law enforcement officers, including an FBI SWAT Team which had moved in to support the LAPD. Heavy gunfire continued and at approximately 6:30 p.m., evidence of a fire in the residence was observed. At approximately 6:45 p.m., a black female, later identified as CHRISTINE JOHNSON, ran from the residence. At approximately 6:55 p.m., gunfire ceased. At approximately 7:00 p.m., Los Angeles Fire Department units moved in to control the fire. After the fire was extinguished the Los Angeles County Coroner determined that bodies located in 1466 East 54th Street were those of three white females, one white male, and one Negro male. Due to the condition of the bodies, no identification could be made at that time. On May 19, 1974, an additional body was located in the ruins and determined to be that of a white female. The deceased were identified by the Los Angeles County Coroner's Office as DONALD DAVID DEFREEZE, WILLIAM LAWTON WOLFE, NANCY LING PERRY, ANGELA ATWOOD, PATRICIA MONIQUE SOLTYSIK, and CAMILLA C. HALL. On May 20, 1974, authorized complaint filed before United States Magistrate, Los Angeles, charging WILLIAM TAYLOR HARRIS, EMILY MONTAGUE HARRIS, and PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST with violation of National Firearms Act, Title 26, Section 5861 (d), United States Code. $500,000 Corporate Surety bond recommended for each individual named in complaint. Federal warrants issued same date. ARMED AND DANGEROUS.

DETAILS:

At approximately 9:30 p.m., on February 4, 1974, PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST, daughter of RANDOLPH HEARST, Publisher of the "San Francisco Examiner" newspaper, was abducted from Apartment #4, 2603 Benvenue, Berkeley, California, where she resided with her fiancé, STEVEN WEED. HEARST was called to the door of the apartment by a white female who stated she was having car trouble and wished to use HEARST's telephone. When HEARST opened the door two Negro males, armed with rifles, and the white female forced their way into the residence. STEVEN WEED and a neighbor, STEPHEN SUENAGA, were beaten and tied up. HEARST was subsequently placed in the trunk of a 1963 white Chevrolet convertible later determined to be owned by PETER BENENSON, 1304 Josephine Street, Berkeley, California. During the abduction, shots were fired and a white 1963 or 1964 Chevrolet Station Wagon was also observed in the area.

A short time prior to the abduction of HEARST, BENENSON had been approached at his residence by two white females who, at gunpoint, forced him onto the rear floor of his vehicle, bound, blindfolded, and gagged him, and drove away. Later the vehicle stopped and he heard a female screaming for help and several shots fired. The vehicle moved a short distance, parked, and the occupants left.

A letter was later received by Radio Station KPFA, Berkeley, California, in which credit for the kidnaping of PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST was claimed by the Symbionese Liberation Army.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription May 21, 19741

At approximately 5:15 p.m., May 16, 1974, [redacted] Inglewood, California, Police Department, telephonically advised SA [redacted] at Los Angeles that two unknown individuals had entered Mel's Sporting Goods, 11425 Crenshaw, Inglewood, California, at approximately 4:30 p.m., and attempted to shoplift. He stated reports were sketchy but the two individuals were believed to be white, one male and one female. A clerk at the store had attempted to apprehend the couple and a third individual had fired approximately 50 shots from an automatic weapon. All three individuals had escaped in a red and white Volkswagen van and reports were coming into the police station that two other vehicles had been commandeered at gunpoint by the occupants of that van. Officers were searching for the individuals and were securing vehicles thus far abandoned.

[redacted] requested that SA [redacted] report immediately to the Inglewood Police Department for conference with Detective [redacted] who believed the individuals in Inglewood might be associated with the Symbionese Liberation Army.

1 [redacted] Inglewood Police Department, was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and Calif that the purpose of the interview was to obtain from him any information he might have concerning the shoplifting and shooting incident at Mel's Sporting Goods Store, 11425 South Crenshaw Boulevard, Inglewood, California, during the afternoon of May 16, 1974.

Calif
[redacted] advised that at approximately 4:15 p.m., during the afternoon of May 16, 1974, a white male and white female entered Mel's Sporting Goods and selected various items for purchase. During their visit in the store one of the employees, ANTHONY G. SHEPARD, observed the white male conceal what he believed to be a pair of socks under his jacket. As a result of this act on the part of the unknown white male, SHEPARD and several other employees attempted to detain this individual as he was leaving the store. A scuffle ensued which involved three employees, one passerby, the unknown white male, and white female. During the scuffle the unknown white male produced a two inch Colt .38 revolver, Serial Number C58256. He was disarmed and this revolver was retained by the store employees.

[redacted] advised that a third individual, identity unknown, fired several volleys in the direction of the employees from what appears to have been an automatic weapon. The shots came from a 1970 Volkswagen van which was parked across the street from Mel's Sporting Goods. The store employees holding the couple, released them during the gunfire. Both of the individuals fled, leaving the scene in the Volkswagen bus. During their flight from the scene they abandoned this Volkswagen bus, commandeering a 1970 Pontiac, abandoning it, and a short time later commandeered a 1963 Chevrolet Nova station wagon. [redacted] advised that the following individuals witnessed the above described incident and should be contacted for their details:

ANTHONY SHEPARD, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was contacted by SA [REDACTED] Los Angeles, California, and [REDACTED] Inglewood, California, Police Department, at which time he provided the following information:

SHEPARD stated he has been employed at Mel's Sporting Goods Store, 11425 South Crenshaw Boulevard, Inglewood, California, for approximately two and one half years, where he is employed as a clerk. SHEPARD stated he also acts as a "security officer" and is usually the individual who detains shoplifters attempting to leave the store.

At approximately 4:15 p.m., on May 16, 1974, while working, he noticed a male and female enter the store. He described the individuals as follows:

Number One:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	Approximately 25 to 27 years
Weight	150 to 160 pounds
Height	5 feet 8 inches to 5 feet 9 inches
Hair	Dark (possibly brown), worn medium length
Clothing	Three quarter length hunting type jacket, red plaid, collapsible light colored hat, dark trousers
Characteristics	Wore metal-rimmed sunglasses, approximately two weeks growth of beard

Number Two:

Race	White
Sex	Female
Age	Approximately 25 years
Weight	120 to 130 pounds
Height	5 feet 4 inches to 5 feet 5 inches
Hair	Dark, windblown
Clothing	Three quarter length coat, trousers, light-colored bulky-knit scarf, worn around neck, light colored cap
Characteristics	Facially unattractive

The two individuals roamed throughout the store, making several purchases, including the following:

Two pairs white socks

Five pairs heavy boot socks

One pair sweatpants

One bullet pouch

One navy blue "watch" cap

Further, the couple engaged SHEPARD in conversation about purchase of an air horn. SHEPARD stated he had none in stock.

During the period the pair was in the store, SHEPARD noticed that the male occasionally reached into the front of his jacket and appeared to be stuffing articles into the front shoulder and sleeve area. SHEPARD stated he heard what sounded like the rustle of plastic or cellophane and suspected that pairs of socks were being shoplifted. At that time he alerted other store employees that he was going to confront the individuals when they tried to leave the store.

SHEPARD went to the rear of the store and obtained a pair of Peerless nickel-plated handcuffs, serial number 568605, and a .38 caliber pistol, and returned to the front of the store and made the appearance of being involved in his work while maintaining sight of the pair.

The couple finally brought their purchases to the counter and their bill was totaled. SHEPARD recalled the total amounted to $31 and change. SHEPARD believes the white male paid for the articles, using a $20 bill, a $10 bill, and two $1 bills.

When the white male exited the store SHEPARD confronted him and requested that he return into the store, advising the man that he suspected him of shoplifting. A struggle ensued and SHEPARD wrestled the man to the sidewalk in front of the store. The white female then attempted to assist her associate. She was restrained by other individuals present.

During the struggle the suspected shoplifter pulled a revolver from his waistband and SHEPARD and BILL HUETT, the store owner, struggled to free the weapon from his hand. Finally, HUETT wrenched the gun free and it sounded to SHEPARD as though some bones in the man's hand snapped. SHEPARD had managed to place a handcuff on the man's left wrist and clamped it down as tight as possible.

SHEPARD stated that shortly after HUETT had managed to free the revolver he heard what sounded like a "string of firecrackers" go off across the street from the store. Further, he felt small stones falling around him and realized that someone was firing what seemed to be an automatic weapon and persons on the street around him ran for cover. He released his hold on the white male and then flattened himself on the pavement and was aware that another burst of gunfire was fired at him. He then crawled to a lamp post and crouched behind it. He felt another burst of gunfire hit the base of the post and whistle around him. He drew the revolver he obtained from the back of the store and fired two shots at a red and white Volkswagen van from which the gunfire was emanating. He could not describe the individual doing the firing.

SHEPARD stated he saw the male with whom he struggled getting into the van. The van then sped off and SHEPARD ran to his personally owned Mazda automobile and followed in the same direction. He stated he went down Crenshaw Boulevard and although he did not have the van in sight, decided to turn left (east) on Imperial Boulevard since traffic flows smoothly and quickly on Imperial and seemed a logical escape route.

He spotted the van and followed it as it continued east on Imperial, south on Wilton Place, east on 115th, and south on Ruthelen. The van stopped on Ruthelen, address unknown to SHEPARD, and three individuals exited, approached a black over yellow automobile, and forced two occupants out of the automobile at gunpoint.

A white male, described as over six feet in height, wearing blue denim trousers and cowboy boots and a light shirt, came toward SHEPARD's vehicle with what appeared to be a "machine gun". SHEPARD threw his car into reverse and backed away from the individual. He stated he backed into a parking space some distance away and could not observe further activities of the three individuals.

After a few minutes, SHEPARD drove back into a position where he could observe the red and white van, however, the yellow and black vehicle was gone. SHEPARD attempted to locate that vehicle by driving around in the vicinity and finally stopped at a private residence, address unrecalled by SHEPARD, and telephonically contacted the Inglewood Police Department and reported the events to an officer.

Later, he left that residence and went back to the location of the red and white van which was now apparently in the custody of either police or sheriff's office personnel. He spoke briefly with officers and proceeded in the direction of Mel's Sporting Goods Store on 115th Street. Near 115th Street and Cimarron he spotted the yellow and black vehicle he had seen on Ruthelen Street. He noted that at this time police officers had surrounded that vehicle. He stopped and spoke briefly to officers and proceeded back to Mel's Sporting Goods Store.

CARROLL WILLIAM HUETT, [REDACTED]
telephone number [REDACTED] owner of Mel's Sporting Goods, TORRANCE, 11425 South Crenshaw Boulevard, was interviewed at his [REDACTED] residence by SA [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Inglewood Police Department, concerning the altercation and shooting at his place of employment during the afternoon of May 16, 1974.

HUETT stated that shortly after 4:00 p.m., a white male and female entered his store and began selecting items to purchase. During their browsing about the store one of his employees, ANTHONY SHEPARD, reported to him that the white male had concealed an item from the store on his person. SHEPARD advised HUETT he was going to detain the white male if he attempted to leave the store without paying for the item. HUETT advised SHEPARD obtained a pair of handcuffs and a revolver and returned to assist the white male in purchases. HUETT stated he alerted GARY MASON, another employee, to assist SHEPARD if he went outside with the male shopper.

HUETT stated that the male shopper purchased one ammunition pouch, several pairs of sweat socks, several pairs of heavy duty boot socks, one navy blue knit watch cap, one pair of large navy blue sweat pants, all totaling approximately $31.

SHEPARD followed the white male to the front entrance of the store and as he exited, SHEPARD grabbed the white male, asking him to step back into the store. The white male resisted and a scuffle ensued, SHEPARD and the male fell to the ground, SHEPARD on top. The female attacked SHEPARD from the back at the moment MASON and HUETT arrived at the scuffle. MASON took the female from SHEPARD's back and restrained her. HUETT went to the aid of SHEPARD. As HUETT assisted, the male pulled a small revolver from his waistband and pointed it at SHEPARD. HUETT kept the male's head down and began grappling for the revolver. The male then pointed the revolver at HUETT and HUETT grabbed the gun hand, believed to be the white male's right hand. HUETT wrenched the gun out of the male's hand and stated he heard the arm pop, indicating a possible injury.

HUETT stated that SHEPARD placed handcuffs on the male's other arm, believed to be his left arm. HUETT stated that he then heard a series of muffled "pops". HUETT equated the sound with a sound made by "ladyfinger" firecrackers. HUETT stated this was followed by another series of "pops" and he and the other employees noticed chips of cement from bullets striking the sidewalk. HUETT told the employees to let go of the male and female and get back into the store. HUETT stated that he, MASON, and a passerby jumped back into the store and SHEPARD hid behind a lamp post. Two more volleys were fired.

HUETT stated that he could not see who was firing at the store, but noticed that the person firing was in a Volkswagen van, east of the store across Crenshaw Boulevard, in a parking lot.

HUETT stated that he is a former Los Angeles Police Department officer and has had experience with firearms as a police officer, military man, and owner of a sporting goods store, selling firearms. HUETT stated that it was his opinion that the person firing was inexperienced in firing an automatic weapon. HUETT stated that in his opinion the weapon was automatic and may have had a silencing device.

HUETT stated that he did not notice the male and female get into this van as he was hiding from the incoming bullets.

HUETT described the male as follows:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	25 - 28 years
Height	5 feet 7 inches to 5 feet 9 inches
Weight	155 - 165 pounds
Hair	Dark (medium length, cut over ears)
Build	Athletic
Characteristics	Moustache, approximately two weeks growth beard, wire frame sunglasses, roll-up hat, red plaid hunting jacket, three quarter length dark pants

HUETT described the female as follows:

Race	White
Sex	Female
Age	25 to 30 years
Height	5 feet 4 inches to 5 feet 5 inches
Build	Thin
Hair	Dark
Characteristics	Hair: kinky, curly, and windblown with some type of head band
Attire	Black or dark green pants knee length coat, black or navy blue in color

HUETT was shown the following photographs:

PATRICIA C. HEARST ANGELA ATWOOD
CAMILLA C. HALL
NANCY LING PERRY
PATRICIA M. SOLTYSIK
DONALD D. DEFREEZE
WILLIAM T. HARRIS
EMILY M. HARRIS

After viewing photographs of the above individuals, HUETT stated he tentatively identified the individual in the store and involved in the altercation as WILLIAM TAYLOR HARRIS. HUETT did not identify the female.

MECUM stated that during the late afternoon on May 16, 1974, he was waiting on a customer, [REDACTED] at the gun case at which time they were rudely interrupted by an unknown white male who asked about the location of cartridge cases for .30-06 caliber ammunition. MECUM stated he directed this person to the cartridge cases and then continued waiting on [REDACTED]

MECUM stated that he did not notice any unusual activity in the store after that as he was busy with [REDACTED] MECUM qualified this by stating that he also is hard of hearing so any commotion would have to be loud for him to notice.

MECUM stated that after [REDACTED] had completed selecting his purchases he and [REDACTED] moved from the back of the store to the front register and began totaling up the purchases. It was at this time MECUM noticed an altercation in front of the store between TONY SHEPARD, GARY MASON, BILL HUETT, and the unknown male. MECUM did not concern himself about this scuffle as it appeared as though the employees had control of the situation.

MECUM continued waiting on [REDACTED] when suddenly some object grazed his shirt pocket, denting his pen and tearing the pocket. MECUM realized then that something was wrong and that someone was shooting into the store and he saw the employees rush back into the store. MECUM ducked down behind the counter until the danger had passed.

[REDACTED], Los Angeles, California, advised that at approximately 5:00 p.m., on May 16, 1974, he was at Mel's Sporting Goods, 11425 South Crenshaw Boulevard, Inglewood, California. [REDACTED] advised he was seeking equipment for his ammunition reloading business and was asking questions of the proprietor of the above store.

[REDACTED] advised a white male entered the store and asked the same proprietor about ammunition pouches. He said this individual was directed to a certain area of the store and he did not see him any further. He stated a short time later he observed a disturbance and saw the proprietor of the store on the sidewalk with the above mentioned white male. He stated they were struggling on the sidewalk and the proprietor had the above mentioned white male down. He stated at this time a white female jumped on the back of the proprietor and attempted to pull him off the above-mentioned white male.

He said about this time he observed a white female in a red and white Volkswagen camper parked across the street from Mel's Sporting Goods begin firing with an automatic weapon into the air. He stated at this point all the employees ran back into the store and laid on the floor. The two suspects ran to the van which they entered. While the suspects were running toward the van the second white female put a second clip in the automatic weapon and fired this clip through the window of Mel's Sporting Goods. [REDACTED] advised the Volkswagen then fled the scene.

[REDACTED] advised he resides at the above-mentioned address, however, has no telephone. He advised he can be reached at telephone number [REDACTED] and the subscriber of this number is [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] also advised he is employed by [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] California, telephone number 556-0300, advised as follows:

During the late afternoon hours of May 16, 1974, exact time unrecalled, he had just left Doctor BETTERMAN's Office, 11445 South Crenshaw Boulevard, Inglewood, California, and was on the sidewalk in front of the office, several buildings south of Mel's Sporting Goods Store, 11425 South Crenshaw Boulevard, when he heard one gunshot followed by two more quick shots being fired from a Volkswagen van parked directly across the street from Mel's Sporting Goods Store. [REDACTED] advised this van was parked in the parking lot on the east side of Crenshaw Boulevard. He then heard approximately fifteen to twenty more shots being fired from what appeared to be an automatic weapon, perhaps an M2 carbine.

When he observed the van he noticed that it was parked in a southwesterly direction and the passenger's window was rolled down and the automatic weapon fire was coming from that window. The van was positioned so that the passenger's window was in direct line with the front door of Mel's Sporting Goods Store. He described the van as being an older model Volkswagen van with curved body, bright red in color, with a temporary license plate affixed to the right rear window. It also had lilac or lavender curtains in the windows.

The individual who was firing the automatic weapon from the van had a medium Afro hairstyle and was wearing a light colored T-shirt or tank shirt. This individual appeared to be firing at a male Negro who was lying on the sidewalk behind a lamp post in front of Mel's Sporting Goods Store. He, [REDACTED] later learned that the male Negro lying on the sidewalk was an employee of the store. The employee fired two or three shots from a handgun at the van across the street.

As the shots were being fired from the van he noticed that there was a female Caucasian wearing a white T-shirt behind the driver's wheel of the van. Sometime during the shooting she climbed into the back of the van and as she did so he observed she was wearing dark colored slacks and that her place was taken by a male Caucasian who was wearing casual clothing. He did not notice whether the male Caucasian came from somewhere outside the van or from the rear part of the van itself.

As the shots were being fired from the van he also noticed a male Caucasian and female Caucasian approach and enter a 1970 two door white Cadillac which was parked approximately five parking spaces south of Mel's Sporting Goods Store. His attention was drawn to them because he heard the female laugh as the shooting was occurring and they went directly to the car while other people in the area were heading for cover in various doorways adjacent to the sporting goods store. The male Caucasian drove the Cadillac away and [REDACTED] described him as follows:

Sex	Male
Race	White
Height	6 feet
Weight	190 - 195 pounds
Hair	Partially receding, small moustache
Clothing	Light colored shirt and tie

The female Caucasian who entered the passenger's seat of the car was wearing light blue slacks, and a white blouse.

[REDACTED] was shown a photograph spread of suspected Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA) members and after viewing these he stated the female in the Cadillac bore a resemblance to a photograph of PATRICIA MONIQUE SOLTYSIK, except that she had a fuller face and longer hair.

When the shooting subsided, the van backed up from its parking position, then proceeded eastbound through the large shopping center parking lot at the southeast corner of Crenshaw Boulevard and Imperial Highway, then proceeded north through the parking lot and turned eastbound on Imperial at a rapid rate of speed. As soon as the van departed the employee from Mel's Sporting Goods Store ran across the street and entered a dark brown Mazda which had a white stripe on the side and a mobile telephone antenna on the trunk lid. This individual then followed the van in the general direction that the van had just taken. Meanwhile, the white Cadillac headed southbound on Crenshaw Boulevard, then made a U-turn and when it reached the intersection of Crenshaw and Imperial it also headed eastbound in the general direction of the van and the Mazda. He does not know whether the individuals in the Cadillac were associated with the individuals from the van.

[REDACTED] was shown a photograph spread of suspected SLA members and he stated that the photograph of WILLIAM LAWTON WOLFE is possibly identical to the individual he saw drive the Volkswagen van away, but this person could also have been WILLIAM TAYLOR HARRIS with long hair and a moustache.

At approximately 4:30 p.m., on May 16, 1974, [REDACTED] was driving her personally owned vehicle southbound on Crenshaw Boulevard at the intersection of Imperial Highway. She came upon a group of men having a fight in the street. She stopped her car to avoid running over the men and they continued their fight right by her right front wheel. She noted that all three men were Caucasian and two of them were fighting with the third. She noticed a white female standing on the sidewalk and another white male holding her. The white female was struggling to get away but the male was holding her securely.

[REDACTED] sat in her car observing the three men roll around on the street in front of her for what seemed like several minutes. One man had a pair of handcuffs and was attempting to put them on one of the other men. During the course of the fight one of the men produced a weapon and the other men took it away from him. The man with the handcuffs succeeded in getting a cuff on one wrist of the man who had produced the gun. After the gun was taken away from the man things quieted down a little and the two men struggled to get the cuff on the third man's other wrist.

At this point [REDACTED] felt it was safe to pass the trio struggling in the street. She pulled around them and started to leave the scene. Just as her car passed the men she heard a string of shots being fired which sounded to her like a machine gun. She looked in the direction of the shots and saw a Volkswagen van, which had a white top and red bottom, parked in the parking lot across from Mel's Sporting Goods Store. The van was on the east side of Crenshaw, facing west. [REDACTED] realized that the shots had come from the van. She saw a weapon sticking out the window of the driver's door of the van. She noticed there was a curtain over the other windows and she could not see inside the van. She noticed that the weapon was quite long and black in color. As she looked, she noticed that whoever was holding the weapon withdrew it inside the van. She saw the men that had been struggling in the street get up and run in different directions.

[REDACTED] was very frightened for herself and her children who were in the back seat of her car and she immediately drove rapidly south on Crenshaw Boulevard for two or three blocks. Then she stopped the car and just sat there for a period of time. When she had regained her composure she drove home. She spoke to her friend, [REDACTED] who works for [REDACTED] California, telephone number [REDACTED] about the incident. Then she telephoned authorities and advised them what she had seen.

[REDACTED] described the man that was struggling in the street and had the gun as follows:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Hair	Dark with blond streaks or splotches in it, worn approximately collar length
Clothing	Blue jeans and jacket, brown color Wellington type low heel boots [REDACTED] said she only saw the back of this individual and could provide no further description.

She described the girl who was struggling on the sidewalk as being a white female, curly brown hair, 24 to 25 years, 5 feet 4 inches to 5 feet 5 inches, slim build, and wearing brown jacket and pants.

CARROLL WILLIAM HUETT, Co-owner of Mel's Sporting Goods, 11425 South Crenshaw Boulevard, Inglewood, California, home address [REDACTED] home telephone number [REDACTED] furnished the following information:

HUETT advised that on May 16, 1974, at about 4:30 in the afternoon, he was rearranging fishing rods and fishing equipment with one of his employees, GARY MASON, when a Caucasian male and female came into his store. He said he noticed them because they were running around his store more than normal shoppers usually do. A few minutes later TONY SHEPARD, one of his employees, came up and told him, "Bill, I've got a guy I'm watching. I think he may be shoplifting". HUETT said he told TONY, "Yell if you follow him out", and then sent MASON over to help TONY.

HUETT advised that he continued to work and that a few minutes later someone yelled at him and he saw TONY and MASON run out the front door. He said that he immediately ran out the front after them and when he got outside TONY and GARY were wrestling with the man on the ground and the girl was on TONY's back. He said that he told GARY to take the girl and he helped TONY wrestle with the man on the ground. He said that TONY got the man's arm stretched out and put a handcuff on one arm. HUETT said at this point he heard TONY yell, "The man has a gun". HUETT said he grabbed hold of the man's arms, slammed him on the ground, gripped the gun, and jerked it toward him. HUETT said he realized he was in a poor position so he twisted the gun out of the man's grip. HUETT said that when he took the gun away from the man he heard the man's arm pop and feels he may have broken his arm.

HUETT said that at this time he heard the first volley of shots from across the street and the guy on the ground said, "You better get out of here, they are shooting at you". HUETT said that by the time he had gotten the gun completely away from the man there was another volley of shots and he yelled at TONY and GARY to get inside the store. HUETT said that he and GARY ran inside but TONY ran after the two subjects. HUETT stated that no one got hurt by bullets during the firing but he got nicked by a piece of concrete. HUETT furnished the following descriptions of the individuals:

Sex	Male
Race	Caucasian
Height	5 feet 7 inches to 5 feet 8 inches
Hair	Rusty brown, short beard
Clothing	Rolled up tan hat, plaid jacket or heavy shirt
Sex	Female
Race	Caucasian
Height	5 feet 7 inches
Hair	Long and dark, windblown, parted in the center, may possibly have been dyed
Complexion	Ruddy
Clothing	Green slacks, dark sweater

HUETT observed numerous photographs and picked WILLIAM HARRIS' picture as being the man in the store.

HUETT further advised that the girl carried a big black purse with her during the entire proceedings and guarded it closely.

According to PATRICIA HUETT, the female had a yellow lined pad of paper which she referred to frequently and HUETT speculated this was a shopping list. HUETT was furnished a spread of photographs containing the pictures of WILLIAM and EMILY HARRIS, however, she was not able to identify these individuals.

The man asked for an extra large sweatshirt, saying it was for someone else, and placed it on the front counter. Items purchased after that were likewise placed on the front counter. Both the man and woman brought items to the counter such as expensive hunting type socks, and a green Army surplus style cartridge belt. The man then asked if the store had heavy type shirts and he was subsequently directed to the proper counter. A short time later, TONY SHEPARD, another employee in the store, whispered to her that the man had stolen a pair of heavy socks. When the man and woman finished their shopping and came to the cash register, TONY SHEPARD rang the items up on the cash register and took their money. PATRICIA HUETT advised she then placed the purchased items in the shopping bags.

When the couple left the register, TONY SHEPARD followed them to the door and after they got to the sidewalk, SHEPARD accosted the man. A scuffle commenced and Mrs. HUETT yelled at that time that the man had a gun.

Her husband, BILL HUETT, ran out to the sidewalk as did another employee, GARY MASON. The scuffle continued and she next heard a volley of gunfire sounding to her like fire-crackers popping. She remained behind the counter in the store and after she felt something hit her forehead, she dropped to the floor behind the counter. Apparently a fragment did strike her in the head. Finally, she realized TONY SHEPARD was firing at someone across the street, however, since she was behind the counter she was not able to see at whom he was firing.

Someone yelled out that the red van across the street belonged to the couple and she subsequently saw that red van heading east down the parking lot across the street. She immediately attempted to call the police department, however, she had to use two different telephones since both were busy when she initially tried to call. She was finally able to get the police dispatcher and told her the people had left in a red van and that an employee, TONY SHEPARD, was following the van in his own car.

PATRICIA HUETT further advised that the money given to them by the couple for items purchased had been taken by [REDACTED] Inglewood Police Department. She also stated that [REDACTED] had taken a cap which must have been lost by the man in the scuffle on the sidewalk.

HUETT further advised that one [REDACTED] was a customer in the store at the time of the altercation. She furnished his address as [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] furnished the following information: [REDACTED]

MASON advised that on May 16, 1974, sometime between 4:00 p.m., and 5:00 p.m., he was helping his boss, BILL HUETT, restock the fishing equipment. MASON said that during that period of time he noticed a Caucasian male and Caucasian female enter the store and begin shopping. He said that as he was busy he did not pay any more attention to them until TONY SHEPARD, another employee, came over and told him and HUETT that they may have some shoplifters in the store and indicated the couple who had entered earlier.

MASON stated that HUETT then told him to keep an eye on the couple and on TONY and that if TONY followed them outside to immediately go out and help him. MASON said that he began watching the couple and watched them go over to the area where the cartridge and ammunition carrier belts are kept. He said that they then went over to the cash register and TONY took care of their purchases.

After they paid for their purchases the couple left the store. He said that TONY yelled at him and HUETT, grabbed a gun and handcuffs, and went after the pair. MASON said he immediately followed them and grabbed the man with TONY. He said that they wrestled the man to the ground and the female jumped on TONY's back. MASON said that by then HUETT had joined them so he grabbed the girl and pulled her approximately six feet away. He said that he held her while TONY and HUETT wrestled with the man. Just as TONY put a handcuff on one of the man's wrists, HUETT took a gun away from the man.

MASON said that while HUETT was taking the gun from the man the female kept trying to grab what he assumed was a gun at her waistband.

MASON advised that it was at this point that someone began firing at them from across the street. He said that he ran back into the store with HUETT and TONY and the two subjects got up and ran across the street to a red Volkswagen van. They got into the van and went east through the parking lot, then east on Imperial.

MASON said that during the firing all he saw was a gun barrel. The sun was shining on the window so he could not see into the van. MASON advised that there were two volleys of fire from what he believed was an automatic weapon.

MASON stated that during the scuffle a man came by on a motorcycle and helped them but MASON does not know who he was.

MASON said that after the van left TONY got into his personal car and went after the van.

MASON furnished the following descriptions:

Sex	Male
Race	White
Age	Early thirties
Height	5 feet 9 inches
Weight	160 pounds
Hair	Brown, short beard
Clothing	Checkered jacket, Levis

Sex	Female
Race	White
Age	25 to 26 years
Height	5 feet 6 inches to 5 feet 7 inches
Weight	130 to 140 pounds

ANTHONY E. SHEPARD was contacted and interviewed at his residence, [REDACTED] California, telephone [REDACTED] by SAs [REDACTED]. SHEPARD was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the interview, regarding the altercation at Mel's Sporting Goods, 11425 South Crenshaw Boulevard, Inglewood, California, on the afternoon of May 16, 1974. Present during the entire interview was SHEPARD's mother, Mrs. ARTYENE SHEPARD.

ANTHONY E. SHEPARD supplied the following account of the events that took place on the afternoon of May 16, 1974, in Mel's Sporting Goods Store, where he is employed:

At approximately 4:10 p.m., a white male and white female entered the store and began browsing around. SHEPARD first observed the couple near the south wall of the store. After picking up several items the male left the female and went into the north section of the store, which contains, among other things, the athletic equipment and clothing. SHEPARD, who described himself as the manager of the athletic department of the store, thought he observed the male stuff something down the sleeve of his shirt. Due to the location of the male at the time, SHEPARD could observe him closely. SHEPARD believes that the male stuffed either a pair of sweat socks in a plastic wrapper or a 30.06 caliber ammunition pouch in a plastic wrapper down his sleeve due to the sounds heard by SHEPARD. At this time SHEPARD went to the rear office of the store, told the other employees that there was a shoplifter in the store, and that he was going to stop him as he exited the store. He then picked up what he believes to be a small Smith and Wesson .38 short caliber revolver and put it in his pocket. SHEPARD advised that he normally carries a Smith and Wesson 9 millimeter automatic pistol, but he did not have it on this particular day.

After obtaining the revolver SHEPARD returned to the athletic department of the store and when he did, he was asked by the male if the store carried portable air horns. SHEPARD told him that they had the compressed air cans for the horns but that they were out of the horn assemblies. At this point the unknown male was again joined by the unknown female and the two approached the checkout counter together. SHEPARD rang up the following purchases:

- One ammunition pouch
- Two pair white sweat socks
- Five pair heavy duty boot socks, gray with red tops
- One pair navy blue sweatpants
- One navy blue watch cap

The unknown male paid for the items with cash, but SHEPARD was unsure as to the exact denominations. The bill came to a total slightly over $30.

After the unknown male received his change the couple exited the store with SHEPARD following them. As soon as the male had followed the female out of the front door, SHEPARD grabbed his right arm and requested that he return into the store. At this point the male resisted SHEPARD and a scuffle ensued, with the unknown male and SHEPARD both falling to the sidewalk. SHEPARD managed to clasp one handcuff of a pair of Peerless handcuffs around the unknown male's left wrist. Then SHEPARD observed the unknown male reach for a revolver in the waistband of his pants. SHEPARD and BILL HUETT, the owner of the store, wrestled the gun away from the unknown male.

At this point SHEPARD heard what he thought were fire-crackers, and glass started flying everywhere. As the unknown male said, "You'd better let me go!", SHEPARD realized that he was being fired upon with an automatic weapon and he ran for cover behind a concrete street light pole. Two bullets hit the light pole while he was behind it. SHEPARD observed what appeared to him to be a white female sitting in the driver's seat, firing an automatic rifle out of the window. The gun appeared to have a wooden stock and a long magazine protruding from the side of the receiver. SHEPARD thinks there were four blasts fired from the driver of the van. He is quite certain that there were no other vehicles parked on either side of the van during the shooting.

SHEPARD observed the right hand door of the van close and he assumed that the unknown male from the store had entered the van. SHEPARD then fired two shots with the store revolver at the van. The van left the parking space it had occupied and fled the scene at a high rate of speed. SHEPARD observed three individuals inside the van as it fled.

SHEPARD then ran across the street and entered his own personal automobile, a brown Mazda, which was parked a few spaces from where the van had been parked. He drove his vehicle in the direction of the fleeing van and followed it to Ruthelen Street where he observed it stop. He then observed the three individuals exit the vehicle and proceed into a black over yellow Pontiac. The individual he had observed shooting at him started walking towards him with the machine gun uncovered. SHEPARD then backed up his vehicle to get out of sight. He observed the black over yellow Pontiac leave the scene. At this point SHEPARD returned to the store to report what he had seen to the police.

SHEPARD supplied the following descriptions of the three unknown subjects:

Suspect Number One:

Sex	Male
Race	White
Age	26 to 27 years
Height	5 feet 6 inches
Weight	150 pounds
Hair	Dark brown, medium length; full moustache, full beard but much shorter than the moustache, beard appeared relatively new
Clothing	Gray golf hat, three quarter length red and black plaid flannel shirt-jacket, dark pants, boots
Distinguishing characteristics	Wore sunglasses; was in extremely good physical condition; reached for gun with right hand and appeared to be right handed; no accent

Suspect Number Two:

Sex	Female
Race	White
Age	23 to 24 years
Height	5 feet 3 inches to 5 feet 4 inches
Weight	115 pounds
Hair	Dark, shoulder length
Complexion	Pale
Clothing	Dark three quarter length coat or sweater, dark pants, wore a white scarf around her neck
Distinguishing characteristics	Wore sunglasses, "very unattractive"

Suspect Number Three:

Sex	Unknown
Race	White
Height	Appeared fairly tall
Age	Twenties
Hair	Brown, shoulder length
Clothing	Light colored upper garment, nothing else observed
Miscellaneous	Wore sunglasses

SHEPARD advised that he is a college student and hopes to get a job with the Los Angeles Fire Department. He is presently taking a course in Police Science as he is very interested in the field of law enforcement.

SHEPARD stated that he had been interviewed on several occasions previously by both FBI Agents and officers of the Inglewood Police Department.

SHEPARD was shown approximately ten photographs of various white male and female individuals. He studied these and stated that he thought he recognized a photograph of WILLIAM HARRIS as suspect number one and he stated that a photograph of EMILY HARRIS resembled suspect number two. He was unable to select a photograph resembling suspect number three.

LAWRENCE MECUM, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] telephone number [REDACTED] was interviewed at his place of business, Mel's Sporting Goods, 11425 South Crenshaw Boulevard, Inglewood, California. He is a partner with BILL HUETT in this firm.

On the previous afternoon, May 16, 1974, at approximately 3:45 p.m., he was on duty at his store serving a customer. They were interrupted by a man whom he later identified from a spread of photographs as WILLIAM HARRIS. This man rudely interrupted and asked for a cartridge holder belt other than the loop type. The individual then went to the counter indicated. MECUM furnished a description of HARRIS as a white male American, approximately 5 feet 8 inches, medium build, brown moustache, brown hair, coming down over his ears, wearing a blue cap. When HARRIS walked away from him he continued to serve his customer.

The first indication of any problem was when he heard sounds like firecrackers outside and he saw and heard an altercation at the front of the store. He went back and picked up a .38 caliber pistol and took a position behind the counter near the cash register. Around this time a man came running into the store with his hands up yelling that he had nothing to do with the shooting. This man was [REDACTED]

He saw TONY SHEPARD, an employee, positioned behind a post in the front of the store exchanging gunfire with someone across the street. He could not see at whom SHEPARD was firing since his view was blocked. During the firing he felt a tug on his shirt and apparently a mechanical pencil in his pocket was hit by a fragment. This pencil was confiscated by [REDACTED] of the Inglewood Police Department.

[redacted] furnished his date of birth as [redacted] [redacted] furnished the following information:

He was at the Chevron Gas Station located at the southeast corner of Crenshaw Boulevard and Imperial Highway on Thursday, May 16, 1974, between 4:00 and 4:30 in the afternoon. He observed a disturbance occurring near the vicinity of Mel's Sporting Goods, 11425 South Crenshaw Boulevard. He heard approximately 36 shots fired from what sounded like an automatic weapon and the shots sounded as if they were coming from inside the bar next to Mel's Sporting Goods. He observed a scuffle occurring in front of Mel's Sporting Goods, but could not see who was involved because it was taking place behind cars parked directly in front of Mel's Sporting Goods. He himself took cover in the area of the Chevron Gas Station.

While the shooting was occurring he saw a young black male run from the vicinity of Mel's Sporting Goods Store. The black male came across Crenshaw Boulevard and ran into the parking lot of the shopping center directly across the street from the sporting goods store. He then disappeared into the parking area and was not further observed by [redacted]

[redacted] described this black male as follows:

Height	Approximately 5 feet 10 inches
Weight	Approximately 135 pounds
Build	Thin
Hair	Very short Afro-type haircut
Age	Approximately 18 - 19 years
Complexion	Medium

Characteristics

[redacted] observed a photograph of DONALD DAVID DEFREEZE and advised that he could not be sure if this was the individual described above, however, he did note that this individual had a round face much the same as DEFREEZE.

This black male was not observed to be carrying any kind of weapon and although he was not sure, he is under the impression this individual had something to do with a robbery at Mel's Sporting Goods. This individual did not run into the parking lot area until the last of the shots had been fired. Also, at about the time this individual entered the parking lot, [redacted] believes that a police unit arrived on the scene and gave chase to this male Negro, however, he does not know if the police caught this individual.

Concerning the scuffle outside Mel's Sporting Goods, [redacted] believes a young man and woman, both white, both with long hair, were involved. He observed these two getting into a vehicle across the street from Mel's Sporting Goods, but was unable to furnish the color or make of this vehicle. He was fairly certain that this vehicle proceeded south on Crenshaw Boulevard.

[redacted] advised that his recollection of this situation is spotty because during a good part of this time he remained under his vehicle because of the gunshots being fired. In all, he would estimate that approximately three dozen shots were fired and they all sounded as if they came from an automatic weapon.

[redacted] advised that he does not recall seeing any kind of van in the area which would have been connected with the robbery of the sporting goods store.

[redacted] observed photographs of all of the Symbionese Liberation Army suspects and advised none looked familiar to him.

She advised that on May 16, 1974, at approximately 4:30 p.m., she was sitting at her desk in the office when she heard a series of shots. She jumped up from the desk and ran to the window which looked down on the parking lot, which was south of the building. She was also able to see Mel's Sporting Goods Store on Crenshaw Boulevard, where she saw a man and a girl, who appeared to be struggling with another man in the doorway of Mel's. All three of these people were white.

She was not able to see where the shots came from, although she heard 15 to 25 more shots. She saw one of the men fall to the sidewalk and believed that he had been hit by the gunfire. The other man and the woman ran from in front of Mel's, across the street, and into the parking lot which was below her.

She stated that the man and the woman got into a red Volkswagen van which was parked in the front part of the parking lot, adjacent to Crenshaw Boulevard. The van was white over red and appeared to be fairly new. She was not able to observe the license plate on the vehicle nor could she see who was driving the van.

She saw the van back out of its parking space and proceed to the south end of the parking lot and then turn in an easterly direction. She was not able to see the car any further as her view was obstructed by the building.

She was able to recall that the man had reddish brown hair and the woman had brown hair. The man appeared to be wearing a white jacket over a shirt. The woman had a white jacket or shirt and wore dark pants.

She ran to the window of her office and looked down on the parking lot below her, which was south of the building in which she was located. She could also see Mel's Sporting Goods Store which is located on Crenshaw Boulevard. She saw a white man lying on the sidewalk in front of Mel's. She saw a man and a woman, both white, run across the street from in front of Mel's Sporting Goods Store.

She recalled hearing two more series of shots, but she was not able to locate where these shots originated. She saw no smoke from the weapon that was firing.

[REDACTED] saw the man and the woman run into the parking lot below her and enter a red Volkswagen van. Both entered the passenger side of the vehicle. She could not see the license plate on the van and she was not able to see who was driving. The van then backed out of the parking space which was in the third row from Crenshaw Boulevard, and then headed south to the edge of the parking lot and then turned east. From this point she was not able to see the vehicle because her view was obstructed.

She did see a man whom she believed came from Mel's also run across the street, get into a bronze colored sedan, and head away in an easterly direction.

He advised that in the late afternoon of May 16, 1974, he was in the back of his store when he heard what appeared to be machine gun fire and went immediately to the front of the store to observe what was happening. He stated he saw a new van with temporary license plates on the back window parked in the shopping center parking lot directly across from his store. He advised the van was red and that he believes it was a Volkswagen type van. He advised he also observed a white male getting into the van, but could not get a good look at his face and could furnish no details concerning his clothes or other personal effects. He did advise he thinks the man had a beard and light brown hair. He also observed what he thought to be a black female with an "Afro" also get into the truck, but could furnish no other details concerning the female. He stated that at that point he left the area and went into the store and observed no further activities. He did advise that he observed the van driving east through the shopping center parking lot. On May 16, 1974, at approximately 4:40 p.m., while working [REDACTED] she heard what sounded like gunfire and went to the door leading outside [REDACTED] which empties onto the parking lot directly across the street from Mel's Sporting Goods Store. She observed two individuals run across Crenshaw Boulevard from Mel's Sporting Goods Store. These individuals were some distance from her but they appeared to be one white female and one male, possibly a dark Caucasian or a light complexioned Negro. She described this white female as small in stature with light brown, bushy hair, which was short. The male she described as having dark bushy hair.

She believes that the white female was carrying a weapon and that when the two were fleeing across Crenshaw Boulevard they stopped in the center median and the female turned toward Mel's Sporting Goods Store and fired shots at the store. The two then proceeded to a red Volkswagen van which was parked facing Mel's Sporting Goods Store in the parking lot directly across Crenshaw Boulevard. The two again stopped as they approached the truck and she again heard firing from the area of the truck. The two then entered this Volkswagen and it appeared as if there was some difficulty in starting this vehicle because it seemed to remain there for almost one minute after the two individuals entered it. During this period someone leaned out from the passenger side of the vehicle and fired shots toward Mel's Sporting Goods Store with some type of weapon.

She saw only two individuals enter this Volkswagen van and does not know if anyone else was in the van. She described this van as a brand new red Volkswagen with windows in the back and with white temporary paper plates. The van also possibly [REDACTED] advised that shortly after 4:00 p.m., May 16, 1974, her mother left her residence enroute to the shopping center at Crenshaw Boulevard and Imperial Highway. [REDACTED] then heard gunshots from the area of the above shopping center located about five or six blocks away. Being concerned for the welfare of her mother, [REDACTED] advised she immediately got into her car and proceeded to the shopping center. She parked across the street from where she later found out the shooting took place at Mel's Sporting Goods, 11425 South Crenshaw Boulevard. [REDACTED] advised she observed a red Volkswagen van, further description unknown, going eastbound through the shopping center and entering Imperial Highway. She noticed this vehicle because an unknown man yelled out, "There they go", at which time he jumped into his own light brown or cream colored Chevrolet and attempted to follow the van. This man is described as a short Philippino wearing glasses and a business suit.

[REDACTED] advised she never saw who was driving the van or any of the passengers. Several minutes later units from the Inglewood Police Department arrived at the scene. She talked to one of the officers and they began a search for empty shell casings and succeeded in locating one which the officer picked up with his pencil and presumably saved for evidence. [REDACTED] advised there was a group of children around and they probably recovered most of the shells. She further advised she observed a shiny object in the center divider of Crenshaw Boulevard located directly in front of the above store and she directed the officer to search that area. It is not known if he recovered anything more. [REDACTED] advised she heard at least 30 shots fired and the shots came from an automatic weapon.

[REDACTED] telephonically contacted the FBI Office and advised that she had information regarding two white females whom she observed and spoke to on Saturday, May 11, 1974, in the vicinity of Imperial and Crenshaw Boulevards.

Special Agents proceeded to [REDACTED] residence where the following information was obtained:

On May 11, 1974, at approximately noon, [REDACTED] was having her car washed at the intersection of Imperial and Crenshaw Boulevards. It is noted that Mel's Sporting Goods Store is directly across the street from this car wash. [REDACTED] stated that a white female exited from a vehicle, which she described as a gray or light blue van. The paint on this van was in a faded condition and the vehicle had a dealer tag. The white female approached [REDACTED] who was seated on the car wash bench, and asked her for directions to East 66th Street. [REDACTED] thought this was unusual for two white girls to go into that area, but proceeded to give them directions. [REDACTED] described the girl who approached her as follows:

Race	White
Features	A full face
Build	Medium
Hair	Wearing a blonde wig, with knit turban on the top of her head
Dress	Dressed shabbily in work type clothes, wearing tinted glasses with wire frames
Height	Medium, approximately 5 feet 5 inches
Age	Mid to late twenties

[REDACTED] selected and positively identified from a group of pictures that of CAMILLA CHRISTINE HALL.

[REDACTED] advised that the second white female did not exit the van, however, she had mid length dark brown hair which was in a tapered cut and was parted in the middle. This female was observed to be eating while sitting in the driver's seat of the van. After [REDACTED] had given directions to the first female the girl entered the van and the two drove off.

[REDACTED] advised that she was curious about these two white females, but did not relate this contact to any Symbionese Liberation Army activities at the time. Later it became obvious to her that this may have been connected in some manner to the HEARST case.

ANTHONY E. SHEPARD was interviewed at his place of employment, Mel's Sporting Goods, 11425 South Crenshaw Boulevard, Inglewood, California.

SHEPARD stated that his residence address is [REDACTED] and he is employed at Mel's Sporting Goods as a clerk.

SHEPARD advised that he was working at Mel's Sporting Goods on May 16, 1974, at approximately 4:15 p.m., when he observed two young persons in the gun section of the store. He described these people as follows:

Number One:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	Approximately 26 years
Height	5 feet 7 inches to 5 feet 8 inches
Weight	150 pounds
Hair	Dark
Characteristics	Full moustache, with the start of a beard. Wore dark glasses
Clothing	Red jacket or heavy shirt with black dots woven into the material. Light colored shirt, dark trousers, boots, wearing a gray fishing hat

Number Two:

Race	White
Sex	Female
Age	Mid twenties

Height	5 feet 4 inches to 5 feet 8 inches
Weight	125 - 135 pounds
Hair	Black, stringy, shoulder length
Characteristics	Wore plastic sunglasses; characterized as "ugly"
Clothing	Jacket or coat, color unknown, white ski scarf around neck, dark slacks, two or three inch high platform shoes with cork colored heels

SHEPARD stated when he first observed the couple they were walking together in the gun section of the store but they soon separated. The female remained in the gun section and the male went to the clothing section.

While the male was shopping in the clothing section, SHEPARD heard the crinkling of cellophane and believed he observed him putting something up his sleeve. SHEPARD presumed he had put a pair of socks up his sleeve, but he did not know for certain the type of merchandise he was attempting to shoplift.

At this point SHEPARD went to the rear of the store to obtain a .38 caliber pistol which he put in his right pocket. Then, he alerted store owner, BILL HUETT, and employee GARY MASON that he thought he had observed a shoplifter and for them to be ready if he called.

When SHEPARD returned from the rear of the store the male asked if they sold air horns. SHEPARD replied no, but they did have extra cans of gas for air horns. SHEPARD told him he could check on the air horn but the male said, "Don't bother".

At this point the couple came to the checkout counter with the following items:

One ammunition pouch
Two pair white sweat socks

Five pair heavy duty red-topped gray socks
One pair navy blue medium sweatpants
One navy blue watch cap

SHEPARD stated he rang up the purchases and the male gave him $32. SHEPARD gave the male his change and bagged the items. SHEPARD stated he noticed the male had about $60 to $80 in his wallet.

At this point the couple walked out of the store and he followed them outside. SHEPARD approached the male and grabbed him by the right arm with his left hand, and at the same time asked him to come back in the store. At this time a struggle began and he tried to throw the male to the ground. The female grabbed SHEPARD by the shoulders and began pulling. SHEPARD then called to GARY MASON for help and MASON pulled the girl off his back. SHEPARD threw the male to the ground and straddled his back and put one handcuff on his left wrist, clamping it tightly.

At this point the male made a motion for a gun in his belt with his right hand. The gun was a two inch Colt Detective Special. The male got the gun out but SHEPARD could see that he did not have his finger on the trigger. SHEPARD stated he grabbed the gun with both hands and forced it to the ground and simultaneously BILL HUETT, store owner, grabbed the gun and yanked it from the male's hand.

At this point SHEPARD heard what he thought were firecrackers. He looked up and saw a red and white Volkswagen van parked diagonally in the parking lot across Crenshaw. The van was directly opposite the front door of Mel's. SHEPARD saw an individual in the driver's seat with long hair and sunglasses holding a gun in a sideways position. He said the weapon appeared to be a semi-automatic carbine. The first burst appeared to be about nine shots.

The male shouted, "You better get out of here", and SHEPARD released the male and he ran across the bushes in the traffic island on Crenshaw, heading for the red and white van.

SHEPARD crawled behind a light pole north of the location of the struggle and he saw and heard three more bursts of gunfire from the individual in the van.

DEL / KAH

The van was described as a red 1972 or 1973 Volkswagen with a white top. It had curtains, color unknown, behind the driver's seat. It had no side windows and bore a temporary license plate.

The van started moving south through the parking lot and SHEPARD shot at it twice with his .38 caliber revolver. The van then turned east on the street in front of the stores in the shopping center.

At this point SHEPARD realized they were getting away and he jumped in his Mazda and started in pursuit.

He next saw the van next to Thriftmart turning east on Imperial. When SHEPARD got to the Thriftmart he could not see the van but proceeded east on Imperial and saw the van about one quarter of a mile ahead on Imperial. At this point, SHEPARD called "React Monitor" on his citizens band radio and advised he was in pursuit of robbery suspects, eastbound on Imperial.

The van turned south on Wilton Place and proceeded to 115th Street and turned left and proceeded to Ruthelen and turned south. The van stopped at about the 11600 block of Ruthelen and SHEPARD stopped about an eighth of a mile back and observed the driver get out of the van and force a black couple in their mid thirties out of their vehicle, a yellow 1968 or 1969 Buick or Oldsmobile. Three persons got into the commandeered vehicle and continued south on Ruthelen.

SHEPARD followed them for a quarter of a mile and stopped and entered a house on the corner and called the Inglewood Police Department. SHEPARD waited until a Sheriff's Office car and Inglewood Police car arrived. He talked to officers from both agencies and then started on his way back to the store.

As he was returning to the store he observed the vehicle commandeered from the black couple parked at the intersection of 115th and Cimarron. The vehicle was surrounded by police officers.

SHEPARD returned to the sporting goods store where everyone wanted to know where he had been. He also met a man in his early twenties with dark hair who, he was told, aided him in the struggle in front of Mel's Sporting Goods Store. He thanked the man but never learned his name.

SHEPARD was shown a photograph spread consisting of five white males, including WILLIAM TAYLOR HARRIS.

SHEPARD identified the photograph of HARRIS as being a picture of the person with whom he struggled on May 16, 1974. He stated he was 100% certain of his identification of HARRIS.

SHEPARD was shown a photograph spread of six white females, including EMILY HARRIS, and he was unable to make an identification of the female. He said he doubts if he could ever identify the female because most of his attention was focused on the male.

SHEPARD stated he never heard either of the individuals call each other by name.

CARROLL WILLIAM HUETT, Mel's Sporting Goods, 11425 South Crenshaw Boulevard, was advised of the identities of SAs [REDACTED] HUETT was advised that the nature of this interview was to discuss his observations during a shooting incident which occurred at Mel's Sporting Goods on May 16, 1974.

HUETT said he was co-owner of Mel's Sporting Goods and had no objection to talking with the FBI concerning the May 16th shooting. HUETT said he was not present in the store when the couple who were a part of the shooting entered the store. HUETT said he returned to the store and observed the couple which later created all the trouble. HUETT described the female as follows:

Sex	Female
Race	White
Height	5 feet 5 inches or 5 feet 6 inches
Weight	125 - 130 pounds
Age	Middle 20s
Hair	Dark, parted in the center, frizzed and windblown, possibly wearing a dirty wig
Complexion	Possibly pockmarked
Clothing	Green slacks, dark sweater or jacket

Sex	Male
Race	White
Height	No taller than 5 feet 8 inches
Weight	150 pounds
Age	27 - 28 years
Complexion	Dark

HUETT said that TONY SHEPARD, a store clerk, approached him and GARY MASON, another store clerk, and SHEPARD said he had observed a possible shoplifter and to be ready to help if there was any trouble. HUETT said that the female was carrying a pad of paper, but he never observed her writing down anything on this pad.

HUETT said the couple bought some articles from SHEPARD and SHEPARD followed the couple out the door and attempted to stop them. HUETT said GARY MASON followed SHEPARD and the couple and a scuffle began with the white male. HUETT said that SHEPARD and MASON were attempting to hold the white male and SHEPARD managed to get one handcuff on the arm of the white male. HUETT said that MASON went to subdue the white female who was hitting SHEPARD.

HUETT said he assisted SHEPARD with the male and eventually grabbed a gun out of the male's hand. HUETT said the gun originally came from the waistband of this male. HUETT said when he grabbed the gun he heard the first volley of shots, which sounded like a number of firecracker explosions. HUETT said the white male said, "Get out of here, you're going to get shot". HUETT said there was a second volley of shots which seemed to be hitting all around him.

HUETT said he grabbed the gun, put it in his pocket, and told SHEPARD to get out of there. HUETT said he went in the store to get a rifle and, at that time, heard his wife say, "I've been hit". HUETT said he heard single shots, which he later learned was SHEPARD shooting a .38 caliber revolver. HUETT said another volley of shots were fired at this time.

HUETT said he never saw anyone in a Volkswagen van which was parked in the parking lot directly east of Mel's Sporting Goods across Crenshaw Boulevard. HUETT said he saw the Volkswagen van back up, go east in the parking lot, and eventually go east on Imperial Highway.

HUETT said that when the Inglewood Police arrived an unidentified person came from the parking lot in the vicinity of where the van was parked and said, "I think the person in the Volkswagen van was PATRICIA HEARST".

HUETT said that during the struggle with the white male an unidentified white male came to SHEPARD's and his assistance. HUETT said this man was Spanish in appearance, clean shaven, neat, and wearing a light shirt and blue jeans.

HUETT said he also heard a statement that an employee at Banner Carpets had seen individuals in the Volkswagen van who were apparently watching Mel's Sporting Goods for a period of time.

HUETT was shown a photographic spread of five white males, one photograph being a picture of WILLIAM T. HARRIS. HUETT said the photograph of HARRIS appeared to be of the person who was in his store and with whom he had a struggle, but he was not absolutely positive.

HUETT was shown a photographic spread of six white females, one of which was EMILY MONTAGUE HARRIS. HUETT identified the photograph of HARRIS as the female who was in his store.

MASON was advised that the nature of this interview was to discuss his observations during an altercation which occurred at Mel's Sporting Goods on May 16, 1974.

MASON advised he was completely willing to talk with the FBI and assist in any way possible. MASON said he has been employed as a clerk at Mel's for approximately one month. MASON said that on the afternoon of May 16, 1974, he was working in Mel's Sporting Goods in the southeast portion of the store near the fishing rods. MASON advised he had noticed a couple enter the store sometime between 4:00 and 4:30 p.m., but he could not be sure of the time. MASON described the male individual who entered the store and later became involved in the confrontation in front of the store as follows:

Sex	Male
Race	White
Age	Approximately 32 - 35 years
Weight	150 to 160 pounds
Height	Approximately 5 feet 10 inches
Build	Medium, solid
Complexion	Dark, but definitely not Negro

MASON described the female who accompanied this male as follows:

Sex	Female
Race	White
Age	26 to 27 years
Height	5 feet 6 inches to 5 feet 7 inches
Weight	130 to 140 pounds
Build	Medium
Complexion	Ruddy, possibly pockmarked
Hair	Very dark, frizzy or stiff, possibly a wig, worn shoulder length
Eyes	Not noticed, possibly wore sunglasses
Clothing	Dark green or black slacks; dark wool sweater which came to hips; was carrying hand- bag slung over shoulder

MASON said when he first noticed this couple they appeared to him as a hippie type couple, and the female was not particularly attractive. MASON said the couple walked to the southeast corner of the store and were casually looking at clothing. MASON said that at one time he noticed the couple in the area of the gun racks where the handguns are kept.

MASON said that after the couple had been in the store for approximately 20 to 30 minutes TONY E. SHEPARD came over to him and advised he had spotted a shoplifter. MASON said that SHEPARD was also a clerk in this store and had caught many shoplifters in the past. MASON advised that at this time he was working with BILL HUETT, a co-owner of Mel's Sporting Goods. MASON said that SHEPARD did not identify the shoplifter and there were four or five customers in the store in addition to the couple.

MASON said that SHEPARD went behind the counter in the center of the store and the couple placed the articles they were going to buy on the counter. At this time, SHEPARD "rang up" these articles for the couple. MASON said that

SHEPARD followed the couple out of the front door and said, "Sir". MASON advised he followed SHEPARD and the couple to the area of the front door. MASON said that SHEPARD motioned for him to come out of the store as SHEPARD was moving to physically stop the white male.

MASON advised that a fierce struggle began and he and SHEPARD were attempting to force the male to the pavement. MASON said the female began hitting SHEPARD on the back, and MASON then attempted to subdue the female by keeping her hands behind her back. MASON said that BILL HUETT came out of the store and was assisting SHEPARD in subduing the male. SHEPARD yelled out to HUETT to "look out, he's got a gun". MASON remembered seeing the gun being pointed at SHEPARD. MASON said he was still holding the girl, who seemed to be trying to get her right hand free to get at her left side. MASON said he felt something which felt like a gun handle.

MASON advised he then heard something which sounded like a string of firecrackers exploding. MASON said he then heard another round of firecracker explosions and things were hitting the concrete. MASON said he looked across Crenshaw almost directly east of Mel's Sporting Goods and saw the barrel of a gun sticking out of a Volkswagen van on the driver's side. MASON said someone yelled to "look out, they have a machine gun", and he then let go of the girl. MASON said he ran toward the store and noticed that the couple was running toward the Volkswagen van.

MASON got inside the store and heard another volley of what he then knew to be shots being fired in rapid succession. MASON said he then heard two single shots and saw the Volkswagen van moving east in the parking lot which is directly east of Mel's Sporting Goods. MASON said the van went east all the way to the end of the parking lot, turned left, and headed east on Imperial Highway.

MASON said that he also remembered an additional person who had helped to subdue the white male, but he could not identify this person. MASON said he heard BILL HUETT say, "Call the police", as the Volkswagen van was moving away, and MASON advised he also observed SHEPARD leaving in his personal car to evidently follow the Volkswagen van.

LAWRENCE CHARLES MECUM, Co-owner, Mel's Sporting Goods Store, 11425 South Crenshaw Boulevard, Inglewood, California, telephone 675-8747, home address [REDACTED] [REDACTED] home telephone [REDACTED] was reinterviewed and furnished the following information:

MECUM advised that late Thursday afternoon, May 16, 1974, at approximately 4:00 p.m., he was waiting on customer [REDACTED] when an individual interrupted him and inquired about a .30-06 cartridge holder. He stated that he told this individual where the cartridge holders were located and then went back to helping [REDACTED]. MECUM furnished the following description of this individual:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Height	5 feet 10 inches
Build	Medium
Age	Late twenties
Hair	Light brown
Remarks	Had a partial moustache, appeared to have not shaved in a few days
Attire	Wore a hat or cap, blue in color, and a dark colored jacket

MECUM advised that he is positive that he would be able to identify this individual if he ever saw him again. MECUM was then shown a spread of five photographs of white males, which included a photograph of WILLIAM TAYLOR HARRIS. After viewing these photographs, MECUM advised that the photograph of HARRIS resembled the individual who interrupted him shortly before the altercation occurred. He stated, however, that this individual's hair was not as dark, nor did he wear glasses.

He noticed that this individual had entered the store accompanied by a white female, however, he did not wait on her and therefore could furnish no further description. He further advised that a few minutes later he walked towards the front of the store to total up [REDACTED] bill when he heard what sounded to him like firecrackers exploding out in the street. He then noticed that [REDACTED] had dropped to the floor and then on either a second or third burst he felt something strike his shirt pocket and looked down and discovered that his mechanical pencil had apparently been hit by something because it was bent out of shape. MECUM stated that he later turned his damaged pencil over to the Inglewood Police Department.

He advised that soon after the firing began he ran and picked up a six inch .38 caliber revolver which he kept under the counter for protection. He stated that he then observed that BILL HUETT, GARY MASON, and an unidentified man, who it was later determined had come to the store employee's aid, were lying on the floor inside the doorway, apparently attempting to take cover. MECUM stated that he then observed another store employee, TONY SHEPARD, in a prone position on the sidewalk outside the front door, fire two shots from a revolver.

MECUM advised that he never saw who SHEPARD was firing at, nor did he ever see who was firing into the store. He further advised that he did not witness the struggle which preceded the gun fight, nor did he see how the individuals who were involved in the incident made their escape.

MECUM stated that during this entire incident he was behind the counter and that he never personally witnessed what actually happened.

_____ furnished the following information:

At approximately 4:10 p.m., on Thursday, May 16, 1974, he was at the Chevron Service Station located on the southeast corner of Imperial Highway and Crenshaw Boulevard in Inglewood, California. His vehicle, a 1973 Lincoln Continental, was parked between the gas pumps on the west side of the station and the station building, headed in a northerly direction.

[REDACTED] was standing in front of his vehicle and while watching the attendant who was checking under the hood, he heard gunshots being fired in rapid succession. About 30 to 40 rounds in all were fired in bursts of what sounded like eight or nine shots at a time with a short pause between each string of shots. He added that a number of years ago while residing in Canada he had practiced with automatic weapons such as a .45 caliber pistol and is familiar with the sound of automatic gun fire. In his opinion the shots which he heard were coming from an automatic weapon of some type. The clarity of the sound made it appear the shots were being fired from outside of a building as opposed to the shots coming from inside of a building which in his opinion would have a muffled sound.

The shots sounded to him like they were coming from a southwesterly direction and he turned his attention to that direction and saw three or four people lying facedown on the sidewalk in front of Mel's Sporting Goods Store, which is located on the opposite side of Crenshaw Boulevard and a little south of where he was standing. He could not determine whether the people on the sidewalk were scuffling or whether they were taking cover from the shots being fired as he merely looked in their direction and then took cover in front of his vehicle as he did not know where the shots were coming from.

by S [REDACTED] KAH Date dictated 5/21/74

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

When the gunfire ceased he again looked in the vicinity of Mel's Sporting Goods Store and the people that had been lying on the sidewalk had disappeared. At that time two vehicles were pulling away from the curb from the vicinity of Mel's Sporting Goods Store and a Negro male was running across Crenshaw Boulevard in the direction of where he, [REDACTED] was standing. The Negro male came within ten to twelve feet of him and disappeared from view southeast of the Chevron Station in the Crenshaw-Imperial Shopping Center. He did not see where the Negro male went as his view was blocked by the service station building. At about the time he lost sight of the Negro male he saw two Inglewood Police Department squad cars come into the area. One of these squad cars was proceeding east on Imperial Boulevard and one was going south on Crenshaw Boulevard. His thoughts were that the Negro male had robbed Mel's Sporting Goods Store and was trying to make his get away in the parking lot of the shopping center. Upon seeing the two squad cars he assumed the police officers would apprehend the Negro male and he did not pay too much attention to what else might have gone on in front of Mel's Sporting Goods Store other than people started to congregate.

[REDACTED] advised further that upon the ceasing of the gunfire one of the Chevron Service Station attendants, who he could describe only as having red hair, ran into the service station office and the other attendant, who he could describe only as being dark complected, ran to the emergency telephone located on a red pole at the southeast corner of Imperial Highway and Crenshaw Boulevard. The dark complected attendant said he would call for help.

[REDACTED] was questioned as to whether or not he recalled seeing any vehicles parked in the west end of the shopping center parking lot, adjacent to the sidewalk which is located directly south of where he was standing. He said that to the best of his recollection there were no vehicles at all parked at that location.

Regarding vehicles in the area of Mel's Sporting Goods Store, [REDACTED] said he recalled there were no vehicles parked directly in front of Mel's, but there were two vehicles parked south of Mel's and possibly one or two parked north of Mel's, all facing in a southerly direction on Crenshaw Boulevard. He recalled one of the four vehicles was a van, possibly white and blue in color, of unknown make, which was parked south of Mel's. There was a small sports car parked either in front of the van or behind the van and they were parked about opposite the bar which is south of Mel's Sporting Goods Store. When the gunfire ceased and he again looked across the street toward Mel's Sporting Goods Store two of those vehicles were pulling away from the curb and were proceeding south on Crenshaw Boulevard. He could not recall which vehicles had pulled away from the curb and could not recall whether the van was one of them. He did not see anyone get into a vehicle in the vicinity of Mel's Sporting Goods Store and saw no one other than the Negro male cross Crenshaw Boulevard. He did not recall having seen a white over red Volkswagen van parked or moving in the area.

[REDACTED] was not acquainted with anyone that he saw in the area at the time of the shooting who may have also witnessed the incident.

He returned to the [REDACTED] at approximately 4:30 p.m.

[REDACTED] described the Negro male he saw running across Crenshaw Boulevard as follows:

Age	18 - 19 years
Height	5 feet 9 inches to 5 feet 10 inches
Weight	135 - 150 pounds
Complexion	Medium
Characteristics	Round face, no beard, no moustache
Hair	Short
Appearance	Clean-cut
Clothing	Dark blue jeans, dark blue short-sleeved sweater
Weapons	None observed

[REDACTED] was unable to recall whether or not the Negro male was one of the three or four people he saw lying on the sidewalk.

LA 7-1627
CEH / KAH

[REDACTED] said he could not identify any of the three or four people who were lying on the sidewalk as he did not see their faces. He recalled there was one female and two or three males.

He described the female as follows:

Sex	Female
Race	White
Age	25 years
Height	5 feet 4 inches to 5 feet 5 inches
Weight	120 pounds
Hair	Light brown, worn shoulder length
Clothing	Gray or blue clothing, slacks or jeans

He described one of the males as follows:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	25 years
Height	5 feet 7 inches to 5 feet 8 inches
Weight	140 pounds
Hair	Dark, full
Clothing	Gray or blue clothing

He stated he could not describe the other one or two individuals who were also lying on the sidewalk. The reason his attention was attracted to the above described two individuals is that they were dressed so much alike. He did not observe where they might have gone following the shooting as his attention was attracted to the Negro male who was coming toward him.

1 [REDACTED] advised that her desk is located immediately adjacent to the south window of the office. She stated on May 16, 1974, she heard a "popping noise" coming from outside and looked out of the window to determine the source of that noise. After looking all around the portion of the parking lot which she could see from the window, she saw people "hitting the ground" at the base of her building and saw other people looking west toward Crenshaw Boulevard. She advised that she saw some commotion in front of Mel's Sporting Goods Store located on the west side of Crenshaw Boulevard, but did not determine what type of commotion it was as she was afraid that the persons at the window might get hit from gunfire and she turned away from the window trying to discourage several young girls who work in the office from looking further.

advised that on May 16, 1974, she heard shots which appeared to have come from the Crenshaw end of the building. She advised she went to the window, which is on the south side of the building, and saw a white male lying on the sidewalk on his stomach behind a pole in front of Mel's Sporting Goods Store located on the west side of Crenshaw Boulevard.

She advised that she did not see any individuals crossing Crenshaw Boulevard but that she could see inside the front seat through the rear window of a red over white Volkswagen van which was parked in the first row of parking directly across from Mel's Sporting Goods Store. She advised she could see two people in the front seat of the van who were definitely not Negro and more probably white.

She stated that she could not determine what type of clothing the individuals were wearing and advised the van backed to the north out of the parking stall and then circled to the east, cutting across the parking lanes through the middle of the parking lot where it continued in an easterly direction until it was out of sight.

She advised that at approximately 4:50 p.m., on May 16, 1974, she heard what she thought to be a vehicle backfiring outside her office building in the parking lot area. She immediately got up from her desk and went to her office window, which faces the parking lot. She noticed a few people, all Caucasians, running across Crenshaw Boulevard from Mel's Sporting Goods Store into the parking lot area directly below her building. Two of these individuals went to a van, beige in color. These individuals got into the van and the vehicle drove out of the parking lot, going in a southerly direction to the end of the parking lot where it turned east and disappeared. She could furnish no further information concerning this matter.

She advised that at approximately 4:30 or 5:00 p.m., as she was leaving her office building she heard what sounded like shots coming from a popgun. She then approached her office building parking lot which is directly south of her office building and observed a van moving slowly out of the parking lot area. She then heard some repeating shots which appeared to come from the moving van. She advised that the driver of this vehicle was a male Caucasian and she believes that he had blond hair. She saw no other individuals in the van. The vehicle continued out of the parking lot going in an easterly direction and traveled out of her sight.

[REDACTED] then observed a male Negro get into a green car which was parked in the parking lot and appeared to be in pursuit of the van. She could furnish no further information concerning this matter.

She stated that around 4:45 p.m., on May 16, 1974, she heard what sounded like machine gun fire coming from the parking lot area located directly south of her office building. Approximately ten seconds later she heard more of the same machine gun fire and she immediately went to her office window. She first observed two Caucasians run from Mel's Sporting Goods Store on Crenshaw Boulevard, cross Crenshaw Boulevard and go into the parking lot area of her building. These individuals ran to a Volkswagen van described as having a white top with red bottom and bearing a white sticker license tag. As they approached the van it was facing Mel's Sporting Goods Store. One of these individuals got into the van on the passenger side and appeared to be carrying a light colored paper bag. The other individual got into the driver's side of the van. RUGH then observed a man running from Mel's Sporting Goods Store toward the van. At this point she heard more machine gun fire at which time this individual jumped to the sidewalk. [REDACTED] described the two individuals who got into the van as having medium long hair. The van then exited the parking lot, going east and out of her sight.

[REDACTED] advised as follows:

[REDACTED] advised that she was in the office on May 16, 1974, when she heard a noise she described as "rat-a-tat-tat", which was "obviously not a car backfiring". She advised she went to the large window of the office which faces south, but from which a portion of Crenshaw Boulevard is visible to the west, and she saw a group of people in front of Mel's Sporting Goods Store located across Crenshaw Boulevard.

[REDACTED] advised that from what she recalls, there were one white male and one white female immediately in front of Mel's Sporting Goods Store and a young black male to the rear of them near the entrance of the store. [REDACTED] stated that the white male appeared to have medium brown long hair and was wearing a red and black lumberjack-type jacket. She advised that the white female appeared to be wearing a brown shirt jacket. She advised that the white male and white female ran across Crenshaw Boulevard to the parking lot located on the east side of Crenshaw and went to a red and white Volkswagen van parked in the parking lot. She advised that as the couple ran across Crenshaw Boulevard the firing continued and she observed chips of concrete as bullets hit the concrete curb of the median strip in the middle of Crenshaw Boulevard. [REDACTED] was certain that the two individuals she saw running were not the ones doing the firing and she observed no weapons in their possession.

[REDACTED] advised that the Volkswagen van was parked within the marked lines approximately five parking rows from Crenshaw Boulevard.

[REDACTED] advised that on the afternoon of May 16, 1974, he was in the office when he heard gunfire which he was certain was a machine gun.

[REDACTED] advised he went to the window of the office which faces south but offers a view of Mel's Sporting Goods Store on the west side of Crenshaw Boulevard, and he advised that what appeared to be a young white male and white female were running east across Crenshaw Boulevard from Mel's Sporting Goods Store. He advised he could not recall what the white male and white female were wearing and that it appeared to him that the gunfire must be coming from the van as the young male and female running toward the van did not appear to have any weapons nor did they appear to turn around toward Mel's Sporting Goods Store in order to fire any weapons.

[REDACTED] advised that he could not recall which doors the white male and white female used to enter the red Volkswagen van parked in the parking lot on the east side of Crenshaw Boulevard, nor could he remember the specific location where it was parked. He advised, however, that as he recalls, it was parked immediately across the street from Mel's Sporting Goods Store and that after the individuals entered the van it backed to the north then proceeded south to the end of the aisle where it turned east and continued east through the parking lot.

[REDACTED] advised that she was working in the [REDACTED] located in the southwest corner of the building, on the evening of May 16, 1974.

She advised that there were only two customers [REDACTED], neither of whom she knew as regulars and that neither the two customers nor [REDACTED] went outside the [REDACTED] were in a position to view the incident on Crenshaw Boulevard.

She advised, however, that when she heard what she believed to be gunfire she went out of the west side entrance door to see if she could determine the source of the gunfire. She stated that as she went outside the firing was still in progress. She had the impression that it was a holdup across Crenshaw Boulevard at Mel's Sporting Goods Store because she saw two individuals running from the direction of Mel's, cross Crenshaw Boulevard toward a shopping center parking lot located on the east side of Crenshaw Boulevard.

[REDACTED] advised that the two individuals appeared to stop at the west side of the median strip dividing Crenshaw Boulevard and they appeared to look back toward the store. She advised that both individuals appeared to have some type of bag in their hands but she observed no weapon.

[REDACTED] was certain that during the time the individuals were running the sound of firing continued. [REDACTED] described the firing as "rapid firing". She advised that the two individuals went to a new looking red Volkswagen van which had no license plates, but had a temporary white tag in the rear window. She stated that this Volkswagen van was parked in the first parking lane adjacent to the sidewalk on the east side of Crenshaw Boulevard and directly across from Mel's.

She stated she was working and heard gunshots and ran to the window of the Household Finance Corporation office and saw a red and white van headed west towards Mel's Sporting Goods Store. This van made a U-turn and traveled east at a high rate of speed and passed in front of the Household Finance Corporation office.

She said she saw three people in the front seat of the van, which was red and white. The driver was a male, which she thought to be a Negro wearing a black "natural" hair style. She saw two other individuals but could only describe one of the individuals as being a white female with light brown hair, shoulder length, and she appeared to be thin.

She said she vaguely remembers having seen that same van parked in the same place in the parking lot at 2:00 p.m., when she returned from lunch. She stated she recalled seeing a tall white man somewhere near the van and she thought he was standing on the driver's side. She said this individual was wearing light colored clothes and a short sleeved shirt, but she could not be certain about any further description.

[redacted] and he advised that on the previous Thursday, May 16, 1974, he had driven his wife to Imperial Highway in Inglewood, California, to keep an appointment with [redacted]

[redacted] ordinarily parks in front of the building on Imperial Highway, but on that date it was after the hour for legal parking there and after he had let his wife out of the car he turned south onto Crenshaw Boulevard and attempted to drive behind the doctor's office to park. Just as he turned onto Crenshaw Boulevard he heard about three gunshots. He recalled that recently a lady in Los Angeles had heard similar gunshots which were fired on a movie set, and she had panicked and had driven into a crowd of people, injuring several individuals and causing a great deal of damage. That situation came to his mind immediately and he stopped his car and almost immediately thereafter he heard a burst of rapid gunfire which he believed to be a machine gun. At this point he jumped out of his car and crouched behind it. He then heard a second burst of machine gun fire at which time he ran onto the sidewalk on Crenshaw Boulevard and into an arcade at the drug store on the corner of Imperial and Crenshaw Boulevard.

[redacted] looked down the street toward Mel's Sporting Goods Store where he saw a male individual lying on his stomach on the sidewalk. There was a commotion around this individual but he got the impression that he had not been shot. In a moment he saw this male get up and run across Crenshaw Boulevard, signaling on the way with his hand for traffic to stop, and then he ran to the parking lot where he got into a brown car and drove rapidly from the lot.

[redacted] advised he does not recall seeing a van leave the parking lot and he did not see who had fired the machine gun that he had heard. He has the impression that a fight of some sort was going on around the man who had been lying on the sidewalk, but he cannot recall seeing any particular individuals involved.

[REDACTED] was interviewed in the vicinity of [REDACTED] furnished the following information:

On May 16, 1974, at approximately 3:30 to 4:00 p.m., [REDACTED] was on his motorcycle in a shopping center driveway across the street from Mel's Sporting Goods Store on Crenshaw Boulevard. [REDACTED] pulled out on Crenshaw Boulevard a little south of Mel's Sporting Goods and made a right turn, heading north on Crenshaw Boulevard. As [REDACTED] made the right turn he noticed a white male run out of Mel's Sporting Goods Store pursued by a black male, which black male was later identified to him as "TONY". As [REDACTED] passed Mel's Sporting Goods Store heading north, TONY overtook the white male and a scuffle ensued at which time [REDACTED] made a U-turn on Crenshaw Boulevard and parked his motorcycle just north of Mel's Sporting Goods, approximately fifteen feet from the scuffle. [REDACTED] was in the process of getting off his motorcycle in order to come to the aid of TONY when he noticed another individual pull a gun from the belt of the white male. [REDACTED] advised that while the scuffle was going on another male, later identified to [REDACTED] as a store employee, had a white female restrained several feet from where the scuffle was taking place. The store employee had his arms around the white female who was struggling to free herself.

[REDACTED] noticed that TONY was attempting to put handcuffs on the white male and accomplished getting one handcuff on the white male's wrist. At this point TONY had the white male on the ground, however, it appeared as though the white male was going to free himself so [REDACTED] entered the scuffle in order to aid TONY subdue the white male. [REDACTED] advised that he kicked the white male's legs out from under him and had the white male in a prone position on the ground while TONY was attempting to get the white male's other hand in handcuffs.

[REDACTED] advised that while the scuffle was going on neither the white male nor the white female made any noise and the white male kept looking across the street.

[REDACTED] advised that at this point in the scuffle someone started shooting at him from across the street with an automatic weapon, with several shots hitting the wall of the sporting goods store about four feet above his head. [REDACTED] glanced instantaneously across the street and saw a yellow Pontiac in the parking lot of the shopping center, but has no idea whether the gunfire was emanating from this vehicle. [REDACTED] told TONY to get out of there at which point [REDACTED] dashed inside the entrance of Mel's Sporting Goods Store. [REDACTED] threw himself on the floor as soon as he entered the store and simultaneously a burst of gunfire came through the door and windows of the store.

An employee of the store was behind one of the counters and pointed a gun at [REDACTED] and said to [REDACTED] "Don't move or I'll shoot". [REDACTED] advised this man that he was an innocent party and had come to the aid of TONY.

[REDACTED] further advised that he definitely did not see who was doing the shooting and does not recall seeing any van parked on the street.

[REDACTED] described the white male as follows:

Height	Approximately 5 feet 10 inches
Weight	Approximately 160 pounds
Age	Mid twenties
Hair	Brown (possible moustache)
Clothing	Jungle boots, light blue jeans, possibly wearing a vest

[REDACTED] furnished the following description of the white female:

Height	Approximately 5 feet 5 inches
Weight	Approximately 140 pounds
Age	Late twenties
